The mirror pictures which have been popular throughout the east and in Europe are now quite the craze in Omaha. A novelty in photography is always appreciated, especially if the novelty is artistic.

The new mirror pictures fill a long felt want, as in many poses with the mirror both a front face view and profile may be had in the same picture.

The mirror has long been useful in art. Rembrandt painted several portraits of himself from his mirror, as also did Madame Lelbron, the French, who are a decidedly artistic race, were among the first to make the mirror a thing of beauty and all French women have this necessary article exquisitely framed for the dressing table and for the drawing room.

The new mirror pictures first became popular in London and Paris, the duchess of Marlborough being one of the first to have her photograph in this style.

These pictures did not become popular immediately with the artists, as it took considerable practice and experience to be able to pose the subjects. The double reflection makes the picture most difficult to get the two views in correct proportion.

Miss Marie Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Stewart of Council Bluffs, who has returned to Briard Cliff for her last year at school, probably will be one of the debutantes next year. Miss Stewart is one of the most beautiful young women of the school set and was one of the first to have the new mirror photographs. Mrs. Jerome Magee has gone to New York City to visit Mrs. E. Dimon Bird, formerly Miss Carita Curtis of this city. Mrs. Magee has been crowned queen of Ak-Sar-Ben and is considered one of the most beautiful of the royal line of queens and her picture in the new style of mirror picture has been much admired.

Creighton Senior Hop.
The Creighton senior hop will be one of the most important social functions of the Creighton university student year, and will take place at Chambers' dancing academy next Wednesday evening, November 13. This will be the first strictly formal affair given. The new dances, the waltz, the castle walk and others approved by Prof. Chambers, will be permitted. Mr. Lawrence Bushman, class president, will lead the grand march with Miss Margaret Morrison.

The decorations are to be the most elaborate ever attempted. The ball room is to be fitted up as an art gallery, and oil paintings of landscapes are to be hung on the walls, surrounded with ferns and palms, to carry out the idea of natural simplicity. Each pillar, robed in its own gown and girdle, will be joined with it by interwoven ropes of Creighton blue and white.

The towering white lattices work will be decorated with autumn leaves and will fill in the corners of the hall and the cozy corners will be typical of various nationalities.

The patrons and patronesses are: Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Swift, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McManis, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Beaton, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brynith, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Haney, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hoffmann, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kinsler, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Burckley, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hoffmann, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Hippie, Dr. and Mrs. B. A. McDermott, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Broening.

At the University Club.
The University club is the first to make definite arrangements for a New Year's eve celebration.

The social committee plans to have a dancing party, starting at 8 o'clock. A supper will be served about midnight, and carolers will entertain. It will be made quite a college affair, about sixty different universities and colleges being represented. It is planned to have part of the evening for favor dances and small presents of the different colleges will be given as souvenirs.

The club is centrally located and the New Year's eve supper dance will be an annual affair.

Another dinner dance is planned for early in December at the club.
