

"DEFEAT IOWA" IS THE CRY

Cornhuskers Emerge from Kansas Game Without Injury.

SCRIMMAGE WORK FIRST DAY

Interference Was Never Better Than at Lawrence and Mud Alone Prevented Running Blitzer Score.

LINCOLN, Nov. 17.—(Special.)—Coach Stehm and the victorious Husker eleven today began preparations for the final game of the season with the dangerous Hawkeyes, whose 6 to 7 defeat of Ames last Saturday has thrown terror in the hearts of the Nebraskans.

Iowa Defense Lacking. Dudler, the assistant coach, who watched the Gophers and Jayhawkers work earlier in the season, and whose predictions have come true with surprising accuracy, witnessed the Iowa-AMES game last Saturday. The assistant coach was much impressed with the work of the Iowa backfield, but does not think the Iowa eleven sizes up with Nebraska in defensive ability.

Co-eds "Beam" Way. Many amusing incidents have leaked out in connection with the Kansas excursion. Two co-eds, determined to see the game, joined the party and "bummed their way to Kansas."

Tomorrow a big rally will be held at the convocation to celebrate the Kansas victory. The chancellor will have a place on the program and the innocents will be in charge of the meeting.

Brooklyn Releases Manager Dahlen

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Manager William Dahlen of the Brooklyn base ball club was today given his unconditional release by the club. His successor will be announced next Thursday.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 17.—Felder Jones denied today that he had negotiated with Brooklyn, although he admitted having had a talk with Charles Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club, at the Columbus minor league meeting.

King Ferdinand May Leave Throne

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, who arrived today in Coburg, is passing through such a crisis, according to well informed circles in Coburg and Berlin that his abdication of the throne in favor of his son is possible and even probable.

The king is residing incognito at the palace in Coburg. He spent this morning in prayer at the graves of his ancestors.

Austrian statesmen are doing their utmost to discourage his proposed surrender of the throne because they consider the young crown prince, Boris, likely to be influenced by the element friendly to Russia.

King Ferdinand, at the same time, is receiving little encouragement in Germany. Emperor William and the German government have expressed themselves openly as friendly to Greece. It is understood that when King Ferdinand expressed a desire to come to Berlin he was given an intimation that such a visit would be useless.

Ferdinand is the youngest son of the late Prince Augustus of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and was elected prince of Bulgaria on July 7, 1887. He declared himself king in 1908 and was recognized by the powers. The Bulgarian legation here has issued a denial of the reports that he intends to quit the throne, but the denial is regarded here as merely perfunctory.

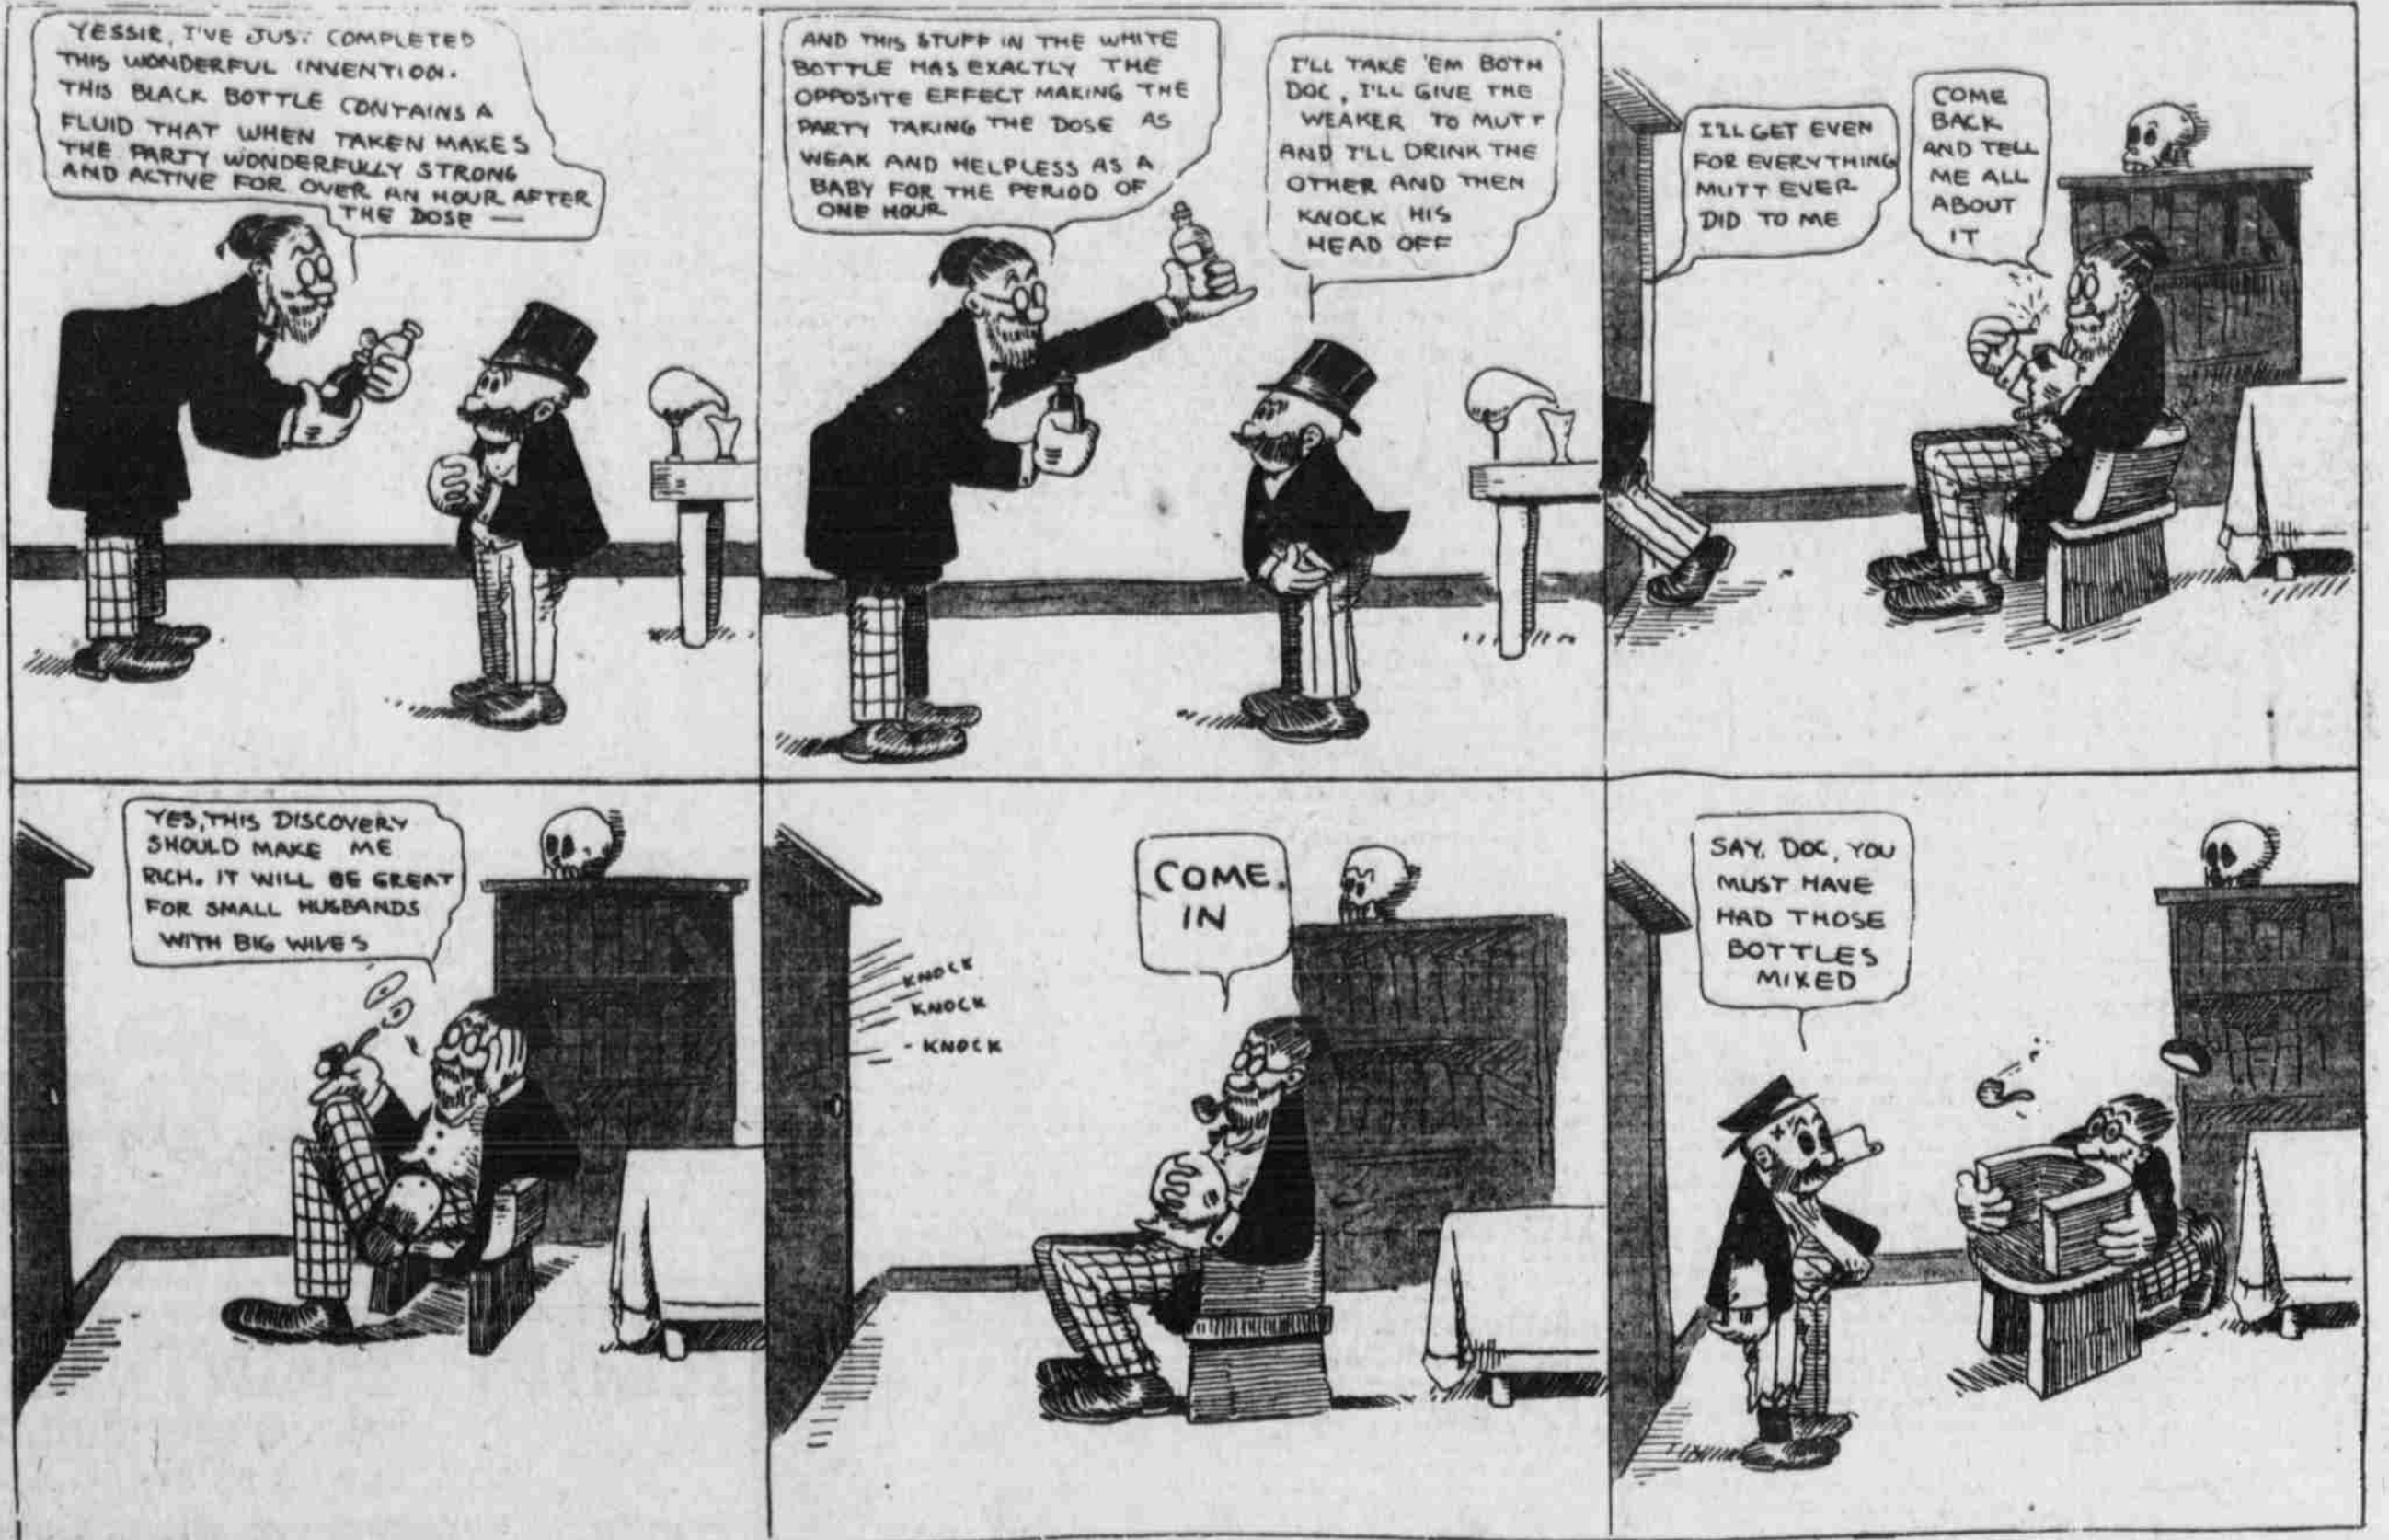

Wyoming Reported Safe. BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 17.—A member of the Wyoming Steamship company, owners of the steamer Wyoming, reported lost today said their vessel was safe at Lily Pond, Lake Superior.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—F. L. Willis of the firm of Hartline & Willis, pharmacists, suffered greatly from asthma and bronchitis, so bad he could not attend to business. As he writes: "I got no relief until I took Holey's Honey and Tar Compound. It entirely removed those choking sensations and never failed to produce an easy and comfortable condition of the throat and lungs."

with a 285 count. This is some come-up after starting with 137.

After being called a has-been for a couple of years, Frank Thomas has again been drafted, and is showing that someone overlooked a good bet.

Why shouldn't the Gate City league be beat with two speed merchants in the lineup by the name of Karr and Gallup? No Walkers in this bunch.

Wuestrich has it an over Terrell when it comes to making alterations in a bowing ball. To date he has drilled seven different holes in his sphere and has filled them with wood, cork, lead, paper and numerous other materials. Some say he shoots the dope ball.

Frank Fagerberg says that not only does he have hard luck in bowling, but has it in all other walks of life. In the last two weeks he has been struck twice and knocked down by a street car, causing injuries making him unfit for play.

"Roste" Rosenberg has been taking a drop in his recent games. He said that an 150 average would be soft for him this season, but he is several points short.
