Here's Something Good

Why consider an inferior built house in an "off" location, when for a little more invested you can buy a "built on honor" house in a location that you need not apologize for. On S. Ed St., just a block west of Hanscom park, on a street of beautiful shade trees, we have several 3-story dwellings, no two alike, which will compare favorably so far as location and quality of workmanship is concerned with anything in Omaha. They were built by day labor, consequently are first-class; large living room and dining room; press brick fireplace and built-in bookcases in living room; nice sized kitchen; butler's pantry. Three large bedrooms, one finished in white enamel; elegant bathroom; tile floor, Fine sleeping porch; full basement; press brick foundation; many little details included such as clothes chute, patent coal chute, window stop fastened with screws; full set of screens, etc. We will sell these on very reasonable terms, or would consider medium priced vacant lot as part payment. All we ask is an opportunity to show these properties.
