

SEMI-MONTHLY MAGAZINE

SECTION OF

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

Omaha, Neb.
Sunday, November 23, 1913

PART
FIVE

THE TYPICAL AMERICAN

This composite photograph, representing an outlay of $21,000 and four years spent in securing the negative, was specially taken of Four Hundred Eminent Representative Men, selected from a list of Fifty-two Thousand Americans prominent in Big Business and in shaping the character and thought of the nation. It is not merely a photograph, but is a most interesting prophecy. Its complete history is on Page Three.

HANDS ACROSS THE SEA, by Lord Northcliffe

THE GOD IN THE CAR, by Robert Barr

A LITTLE FLYER IN BOXES, by Peter B. Kyne

THE FIRST PROPHET OF PANAMA

PUNCTURING THE STAR, by Thomas Grant Springer

A MAGAZINE for your READING TABLE