Red Cross Stamps On Sale Monday

Seventy merchants in Omaha will start the sale of Red Cross Christmas senis Monday morning in their various places means is to be devoted hereafter to the local tuberculosis work, and will be used to finance the University of Nebraska free medical dispensary at Jacobs hall, 1716 Dodge street, in so far as the latter's work applies to the battle being waged against the "white plague."

Each store where the little red seals may be secured will display a small window card on which a large Greek cross in red appears. The seals were delivered to the stores Friday by Mrs. K. secretary of the association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis. In the task of distribution, a touring car was used through the courtesy of the Acme Auto livery.

The association has changed its headquarters to Jacobs hall, where Mrs. Edholm or her assistants may be reached by telephoning Douglas 5190. The committee of workers are especially anxious that the seals may have a large patronage this year, since the proceeds will be used locally in fighting the dread disease. They will remain on sale until Christmas eve, but the public is urged to begin using them at once, on their early mailing, as well as upon the packages to be delivered during the holiday week.
