THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE The First Space-Fifty Years After. FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR. REE BUILDING, FARNAM AND 17TH Entered at Omaha postoffice as second-

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

DELIVERED BY CARRIER.
Evening and Sunday Bee, per month. Se
Evening, without Sunday, per month. Se
Daily Bee, including Sunday, per month. Se
Daily Bee, without Sunday, per month. Se Address all complaints of irregularities in deliveries to City Circulation Dept.

REMITTANCE REMITTANCE.

Remit by draft, express or postal order,
Only 3-cent stamps received in payment of small accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha and eastern exchange, not OFFICES. Omaha—The Bee building. South Omaha—Zill N. street. Council Bluffs—1s North Main street. Lancolo 3 Little building.

Chicago 99 Hearst building.
New York—Room 1106, 38 Fifth avenue
St. Leuis-365 New Bank of Commerce
Washington—725 Fourteenth St., N. W

CORRESPONDENCE.

OCTOBER SUNDAY CIRCULATION 43,162

Btate of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss.
Dwight Williams, dreulation manager of The Bee Publishing company, being duly sworn, says that the average Sunday circulation for the month of October, 1911, was 43,162 DWIGHT WILLIAMS, Circulation Manager.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this lith day of November, 1915.

ROBERT HUNTER,
Notary Public.

Subscribers leaving the city tem porarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

Shop early! Mail them early! Acknowledge promptly!

Oh, it surely cannot be that the packers have a corner on eggs.

And don't forget that the crooked lawyers are all down on The Bee Nobody ever accuses the United States senste with exceeding speed limits. Former President Taft advocates a broader mint system. Kentucky kind.

Looking backwards, Thanksgiving seems already farther away than Christmas.

The rule will be suspended so as to permit licking Red Cross stamps in the old-fashioned way.

Election time must be near for Governor Blease of South Carolina. He has pardoned 900 criminals.

The head of the household does not have to look at the calendar to says in so many words, "This experirealise the advent of the first of ment has falled." And further it

The contingent-fee lawyer plays or nothing.

Huerta ought to find pointers enough to satisfy him projecting from the turrets of those nearby American battleships.

As soon as your pocketbook re covers from the effects of the Thanksgiving day, start in on your early Christmas shopping.

Why spend time hunting up a new job for Colonel Goethals? first finish the one he has?

No place like home for a demowhen his democratic colleagues are holding a family conference.

If the vacancy is not filled pretty soon our Commercial club may acquire the delusion that it can get along just as well without a commissioner.

Anyway, it is reassuring to know him early and often.

keep up with the shifting scenes in ator Cummins, is making a careful in the first big city he strikes instead the constitutionalists.

The present extra session of congress is likely to go down in history as disappointing in more ways than one and one is its short reach for the mileage pickup at the finish.

Mrs. Sayre showed she was not superstitious when she became the thirtsenth White House bride, Still some one had to be, if we were to any more White House brides.

standing, fewer auto accidents have been chronicled during the dangerously dense fog days than during sula. the period of reckless driving immediately preceding.

ner, is still knocking on Omaha's strictions, while the public thinks is luridly pictured and sold under credit. He is careful, however, not freight rates are already too high misrepresentations of fact, those per- building is the collector of internal to divulge that it is the return of and protests on the size of annual petrating a swindle ought to be revenue, who is preparing to gather the $5,000 forfeited by his refusal dividends. President Ripley voices brought to account for it. The over- in the income tax, and the funniest you stay in Washington and introduce to take the batch of bonds bid for the railroad side of it by saying, weening American desire for land, in thing about it is that this particular and awarded him, that he is really "The legislatures hamper and cut likelf a most wholesome thing, makes collector expected to be busy hunting trying to force

It will be just fifty years ago next Tuesday since the first spade was put into the ground for the building of the great Union Pacific rallway. Notable is the fact that the man who made the initial stroke into the earth upon that occasion is still among us ripe in years and honors, and gives his vivid recollections of that historic event for us on another page of this issue. It is a story of intense interest, the reprospect almost unbelievable, even taking into consideration the marvelous progress concurrently wrought during the half century that has since elapsed. When the larger part of the popuof Omaha turned out en masse on that crisp December morning to help celebrate what was expected to be a turning-point in the community's career, they listened to word-pictures have liked to believe, but which were, this colossal enterprise was not exaglinked together. Except for its position as the terminus of the principal transcontinental raticoad Omaha commercial and industrial cities. Omaha's commanding future was assured from the day work was commenced here at the gateway, to be crowned later by the driving of the highway.

dication of the prophets whose vis-

What Next in Mexico?

What is next on the program in Mexico? Or perhaps the question the program in our relations with though it is doubtful if any one, the is satisfied with the succession of by other practitioners. events that has led up to the Outside of the jingo newspapers tion that has come to our notice is elimination of General Huerta, it that purpose."

doubted.

Owning the Railroads.

Talk of government ownership of railroads assumes a serious form when United States senators begin preparation of data to be submitted welfare and ultimate destination of to congress as the basis of such consideration and the head of a great that the colonel took his typewriter railway system goes so far as to with him on his South American say, "Government ownership of all trip, and that we will hear from railroads is coming as certain as him all we can to do that. We are Santa Fe has done. Senator Ken-It takes very close reading to you, with the collaboration of Sen- when we let him lodge accidentally Mexico and be able to tell offhand study of the situation and during of out in the open agricultural counwhich are the federals and which the coming discussion of the try whose development calls for his Alaskan ratiroad construction ex- help. pects to submit his facts and figurea to show the advisability of acquiring all railways.

projected Alaskan ratiroads become some weeks ago about worthless Florsuccessfully operated by the United ida land grossly exploited on the idea will thereby gain great im- business men, who complained that to conceal its glee over the sugparison for such purposes of the event, since its original warning ap- distressing to behold. conditions in the states and in peared, six men who dealt in Florida But nevertheless and notwith- Alaska. Here we are well equipped land, or rather water, have been intically hone in the northern penin- Kansas City.

The railroads are clamoring for ble for the reason that it lies sub- steadily climbing up. The man with the hammer, Ven- higher rates and looser legal re- merged in water. When such land sea.

Indeed so long as deals such as that them on a sound basis. recently turned by the 'Frisco are possible, some will say that the ment, but they cannot come in now icism. Yet an understanding such through the mails. as the acquisition and operation of lation of the then straggling village all American railroads is too gigantic to be approached except as the very last resort.

Medical Ethics Again.

and predictions which they would leading medical journals of the coundustry and public life, and to listen in truth, received by most of them eminent surgeon called to operate on thought from the firing line of progas the wildest imaginings of over- President McKinley when he was ress. For some peculiar reason the wrought enthusiasm, or the frenzied shot, is beautifully illustrated with majority of the guests so far have fancies of an excited mind. Yet all reproduced photographs, including devoted the larger part of the time that was foretold, and much more, one of him in action in the operating consumed by their speeches to hamhas already come to pass in full vin- room. When The Bee a year or so mering somebody or something and ago published a story describing cer- converting the subject matter to ions have fallen far short of werity. tain unique work being performed in fragments, if not to pulp. To strike Today we know that the signifi- a local hospital, with appropriate pic- a smashing blow at existing institucance of the first spade turned in tures, a resolution was promptly pre- tions, customs or traditions is the gerated either for Omaha, or for Ne- demning the surgeon who had per- thing wrong and nothing right is rebrasks, or for the nation, whose At- mitted himself to be photographed in lied on as the effective applauselantic and Pacific shores were thus his operating costume and denounc- provoker. To hit a responsive chord ing the act as unprofessional.

McBurney is dead, and the free ad- hanging. vertising he might derive from the tended only for professional readers, among lay readers who might be en-that have been constantly crying for ethics is an anachronism without obstacles and obstructions. war, the most unequivocal declara- justification in these modern days of specializing and concentrating. This found in the latest issue of the Out- foolish code is what gives the quacks look, Referring to the attempt of the and fakers an open field, and the tem of nominations. Why should following, gathered at a banquet board

City Still Gets the Newcomer.

A review of immigration statistics however, leaves for the year ending June 30, offers the administration facing a very sim- no new-encouragement for turning regime. ple alternative. We must either the tide of newcomers away from the the game desperately because he abandon the attempt to secure peace, city to the country, although in time the south as to our intentions and New York state, most of them prob- it just as much? policies. "Is there any reason why," ably in New York City: 182,000 in it asks, "the plan of united interven- Pennsylvania, 107,000 in Illinois, proximity of a new turn of affairs share, leaving a comparatively small of the big boss. cratic senator out with the party with reference to Mexico cannot be number for the great agricultural territories prolific with promises and opportunities.

In this showing there is nothing the White House - Exchange new, but only additional emphasis of the need for close attention on the part of the federal government in tive accounts of the marriage say the conjunction with the states, to the word was used at the specific directhe immigrant. There is one reason only for the foreigner coming to this country, namely to improve his confate," as President Ripley of the failing of the duty when we let the immigrant's location go by default,

After Florida Land Fakers.

It seems to assume that if the an article published in its columns nomination upon him?

our profits and labor unions take many people easy prey for fraudulent for something else to do long ago.

what is left. We are practically promoters. The government has to between the devil and the deep blue step in and protect them and itself and the integrity of the mails. It is While not wholly themselves to to be hoped complete success will atblame for their situation, neither tend the effort to correct conditions are the railroads entirely faultless. In the Evergiade situation and put

Since these indictments were re- Thirty Years Agoturned the government is said to roads are only reaping the whiri- have begun sweeping investigations the belt line has been amicably settled wind of their own sowing. To be of various land schemes in different by agreement, the injunctions and sure, they have discarded many old parts of the country, which may beobjectionable methods and policies, come the basis for subsequent lending a hand toward improve- prosecutions. The inquiry is being conducted by the Postoffice departand claim exemption from all crit- ment, as the schemes are exploited

The Anvil Chorus.

Omaha possesses a unique culture club whose purpose is to entertain socially around the banquet Hon. Guy C. Barton and E. W. Nash board men distinguished in various of the Omaha smelter works left for An obituary article in one of the fields of science, art, literature, intry on the late Dr. McBurney, the to the latest observations and sented in our medical society con- popular pastime, and to find everythe terribleness of the times must be But how could the code of medical depicted in lorid colors, and at that ethics be infracted in the one case but seldom are we told just what we would never have been in the race of and not in the other? Two explana- must do to be saved from the awful tions are suggested: First, that Dr. precipice on whose brink we are left

But why should it be necessary for again. picture of the operating room over a public speaker to join an anvil which he presided cannot do him any chorus to command attention? May father of a brand new boy. golden spike in completion of the good or the other doctors any harm. we not doubt that it is necessary? long-dreamed-of ocean-to-ocean steel Second, that the McBurney picture, No one of intelligence wants to be Omaha land syndicate, has returned from appearing in a medical journal in- lured to sleep with the false assur- the east. ance of security, and every one realdoes not violate the ethical code in izes that many abuses and evils call a business trip. should be stated. What is next on ticed as possible patients. If it is making tremendous strides forward, Fitsmorris, telegraph editor; H. the effectiveness of the advertising and most of our social troubles grow 5mith, commercial editor; Frank Allen. that counts, however, that in the out of this very residity of advence. Mexico? Knowing the delicate con- that counts, however, that in the out of this very rapidity of advancemedical journal, gauged by the lim- ment. We should think that occarejuctant to express an opinion, at- ited number of readers, is probably sionally an orator, gifted with ap- Twenty Years Agomore valuable to the surgeon because pealing language, might make a cen-

Governor Morehead does not like administration to restore peace, and damage it does far outweighs its be complain when he won out, unless perhaps he now has pangs of rish, F. B. Tracy, C. W. Haller, W. A. conscience over the cost? The man DeBoard, C. S. Wright and others. who is beat is the only one who have fared better under some other order and good government in Mex- this may be accomplished. The Burl- the slate clean for anti-trust law joy to various elements of Omaha's popuico, or we must forcibly intervene for ington railroad purports to show that offenders from now on, on condicomparatively few farmers were tion that they do not do it again. The Outlook advocates soliciting among the 1,197,000 immigrants Why confine the amnesty privilege the co-operation of the principal passing through our ports of entry in to lawless captains of industry, and Ten Years Ago-South American republics in this en- the last fiscal year. According to its high financiers, when the ordinary deavor to reassure our neighbors to figures 330,000 of these located in little malefactors would appreciate tion by leading European powers in 101,000 in Massachusetts and 61,000 tried to persuade Huerta to resign, eridge, Dolliver, Spooner, Judge W. H. Mexican affairs is not practical? If in New Jersey. More than 65 per went to Europe, according to the Taft, Governor Cummins of Iowa. It there is no such reason, why not at cent of the total number of immi- Mexican version, to "raise the and other prominent men of this state. once take steps to that end?" If grants for one year settled in five credit of Mexico." According to A voice called over the telephone to What's the matter with letting him this expression voices the culmina- leading industrial states. Of the the facts, he seems to have gone be- the superintendent of schools, Carroll G. tion of public sentiment among ob- other 35 per cent large cities in other cause he thought Europe a safer Pearse. "I called to say I would not be serving and thinking people, the states undoubtedly got the lion's place for him than the near vicinity at my room at Franklin school Monday

The word "obey" was not used in the when she might be expected back. "You Wilson-Sayre marriage ceremony. Is this need not expect me," said the young an indication that feminism has invaded woman. "And my name is Mrs. Phelps.

tion of the bride.

Everybody should know the value dition in life. It is our duty to aid Timothy, on the matter of personal duct in a certain case before him and of Paul's advice to his young friend, purity, "Flee also youthful lusts, report at once upon the findings. Call on the Lord out of a pure heart." It is hard to work clean purposes through an unclean mind.

Mr. Hearst once more tears himself apart from the democratic party and announces himself an independent. Now what if the democratic party should overpower him, bind The Saturday Evening Post says that him hand and foot and thrust a

The strenuous efforts of our would rather have you shoot at them than States, the government ownership market brought letters from Florida amiable democratic contemporary laugh at them. petus. Some believe it will become the article misrepresented conditions gestion that Governor Metcalfe of irresistible. But, of course, it is and opportunities in that state. The Panama head the next democratic not fair to make too rigid a com- Post differs with this view. In any state ticket in Nebrasks, are almost promises to obey she generally does

"While the lamp holds out to with railroads, while there is prac- dicted by a federal grand jury at burn, the vilest sinner may return." Florida, like other states, has some lamp would have to be kept lighted ostrick buries its head in the sand. Admittedly conditions in the rail- good land, also some bad land, some continuously night and day, with way world are not what is desired. of which is not available or accessi- bills for gas, oil and electricity he already has an automobile, a motor

The busiest boy about the federal

Looking Backward . This Day in Omaha

NOVEMBER 30.

The war between the St. Paul road and counter injunctions having been dismissed.

Only one more block to be finished by the paving gang.

Mr. J. D. King of Janesville, Wis., ha. been appointed successor to Captain Furay, postoffice inspector at this place. Mr. King has been in the Chicago division, and on his arrival Chief Inspector Stewart returned to Chicago.

Dr. G. F. Stelling, pastor of the Lutheran church, has returned from the Chilago.

Hereafter children in arms will not be admitted to matinees at Boyd's opera

James Stephenson, who has been laid up for a month with rheumatism, is Tom Ruane, the policeman, was the biggest man on the job today. He is the

Alexander Swan, president of the South

Mr. E. L. Stone has gone to Idaho or the same way that the same picture urgently for reform. The world, Bee is made up as follows. E. Rosewould in a daily newspaper circulated however, has not been going back- water, editor; Alfred Sorenson, assistant ward; on the contrary, it has been editor; A. E. Meigs, night editor; T. J.

By a score of 30 to 18 Nebraska unipresident and his advisers included, his subjects as a rule are sent to him ter shot by leaving his hammer at on an Omaha gridiron. It was a fiercely versity beat Iowa university at foot ball home, and picturing how we of to- fought game, both sides struggling like This exhibit only confirms us in day enjoy blessings undreamed of demons to the last and a falling snow our belief that in prohibiting legiti- before because of the achievements and sharp wind added to the crispness of mate advertising the code of medical of the creative genius overcoming all the contest. Here was Nebraska's lineup: Johnston (captain), Oury, Wilson, Hope well, Dern, Whipple, Wiggins, Frank Little Yont, Flippin, Big Yont,

Incidental to the foot ball game alumn the present Nebraska primary sys- of the University of Iowa, including the Organized labor circles were much agihas a right to imagine he would tated by a report from abroad that the the Federation of Labor would be demanded by his enemies at the forthcoming convention of that organization Lawyer Untermyer would wipe Thanksgiving day was one of much himself rather ungenerous with zero atmosphere.

The McKinley club, which decided to celebrate January 29, the birthday anniversary of the late President McKinley, named this list of dignitaries from which to select a speaker for the occasion: Aldape, the cabinet member who Senators Hanna, Depew, Fairbanks, Bevwas decided to invite Governor Mickey morning and let you have time to fill my place." Mr. Pearse said "all right," and asked for the name and address and It used to be Miss Nina Kinkead." Cupid No, it is only an indication of had been up to another trick. The lucky saffron journalism. The authorita- man was Daniel P. Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Phelps of Louisville, Neb., where the ceremony was performed so secretly that even the bride's most intimate friends wot not of it. Judge Slabaugh of the district court named H. H. Baldrige, George W. Shields and W. C. Lambert as a special com-

General Agent Thomas of the Great Western announced that arrangements had been made whereby the Union Pacific would handle the through freight for the Stickney road.

MUSINGS OF A CYNIC.

The fellow who is all wrapped up himself is generally a bundle of concelt From a woman's point of view to be compelled to suffer in slience takes all the pleasure from it. Some men are so sensitive that they

The Good Book tells us that man is made of dust, but somehow or other he always seems to want more, When a girl who is getting married rather than make a scene. There is nothing in the world a man gets used to so quickly when he once starts as making a fool of himself, Possibly we close our eyes to our own Yes, but no one had any idea the faults on the same principle that the Some people are never eatisfied. Many boat and a wife.-New York Times.

> Between Two Pires. New York Post.

Being a congressman is no fun. It bills, the newspapers talk of the harm you have missed.

People and Events

What happened to the grub and stout was aplenty

Wedding bells are silent and the cake s cut, but the administration that hopes to grip the affections of Nebraska patriots must cut the ple and hand out the stabs.

Transactions on the New York Stock exchange have fallen down to a poorlouse standard. Brokers with a champagne appetite now have to be satisfied with plain beer.

An imprisoned labor leader in Dublin, named Mullen, emulated the suffragettes by going on a hunger strike, but a steam ing Irish stew and a bottle of stout placed withing reach wrecked his high resolves According to the contract, the new capitol of Missouri will cost $2,719,700. The appropriation for the building is far enough above the contract figures to place a few julcy extras on the ple counter.

The "last remaining vestige of oper gambling in Chicago," the twenty six dice game, has been put under the ban by Mayor Harrison. Persons eager to get rich quick, however, will be accomdated any old time in Chicago.

The French secress, Mme. Thebes, prophesies a number of events scheduled to happen next year. Unfortunately, the secress confines her advance observation to Europe, leaving to prophets in the United States the task of doing their own guessing.

An aspiring soldier seeking enlistment in Kansas City worked the recruiting officers for nine meals, lodgings to match and transportation to St. Louis, and then jumped the job. Your Uncle Samuel was so pleased with the nerve of the fellow that he took him in out of the cold an will feed him on short rations for ninety dayw.

Mrs. Peter Edwards of Pittsburgh whispered to the police court judge that the affectionate Pete gave her a beating as least once every week for forty years His honor worked his pencil and figured out 2,080 beatings in that time. The amazed magistrate handed a few words of sympathy to the beaten, tapped Pete on the sleeve and gave him thirty days.

MUFFLED KNOCKS.

When our side wins it is always the Triumph of Right over Wrong.

A woman can do as much with a hair pin as a man can with a monkey wrench. Half the world is trying to break into the newspapers and the other half is trying to keep out, Once in a while you gives you the impression that he is wearing long stockings and a corset. Some men imagine Dignity means maintaining a constant grouch, and others think it means wearing impossible whiskers.

A woman who has horse sense in other ways will wear a $1,900,000 string of pearls and imagines nobody knows she got them at the 10-cent store. There are other Liars in the world, but ball-bearing Lar is the man who says he likes to take a cold bath every morning in Winter. A man brags that he is boss in his and the best towels are always saved for company. A man can walk a block with another woman and discuss 4,678 subjects in a delightful manner. And he could walk nine miles with his wife and not be at to think of a darn thing to say. The old-fashioned woman who used to have her weekly wash on the line at 8 o'clock on Monday morning now has a daughter who can't get up in time to gather the laundry for the driver because he calls at noon.-Cincinnati Enquirer.

Enger to Know.

Boston Transcript. Some of the crowned heads and imperial potentates who have contributed so generously to Miss Jessie Wilson's gift table are probably anxiously inquiring of their ambassadors how many other daughters President Wilson has.

SECULAR SHOTS AT PULPIT.

Pittsburgh Dispatch; The pastor of John D.'s Cleveland church increased the Sunday evening attendance to 1,000 b judicious advertising. It pays.

New York World: The theory of a Phila adelphia pastor that "there is nothing in the Bible to decide authoritatively that a man cannot be a true Christian and a smoker" is historically sound, at least, Brooklyn Eagle: The archbishop of York defends fox hunting as a Christian sport because of the pleasure it gives the fox. The fox has the misfortune of a layman hearing a Sunday sermon. He can't talk back.

Houston Post: A Dallas preacher delivered a sermon a day or two ago on "The Danger of Belleving a Lie." If the married women didn't believe lies now and then a great many bushands would be afraid to go home.

TOLD IN FUN.

"We were married two years before my husband spoke a cross word to me." "Rather a good record. What hap-pened to break it?"
"Oh, by that time the situation got to setting on my record. getting on my nerves, and I purposely made him angry just to see him in a new light."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

down at home and unable to ever go any-Then I fell to sympathizing with her.

"Then I fell to sympathing with her it told her all the children were grown up now and I thought it was high time for her to cut loose." "Yes?" "And what do you reckon she did? Went right down town and hopped into a 530 hobble skirt."—St Louis Republic.

"I thought I would be clever last Christmas, so I gave my wife some good cigars for a present."

"Then, of course, she gave them to you "She did nothing of the kind. She kept them for company, and won't let me ha "My dear man, how is it that you have come such a slave to the liquor habit?"

"Twas me parents' fault, lady. They "You mean to say your parents formed this habit in you?"
"Sure, lady. They brung me up on the bottle."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

They were giving the author of the famous pamphlet, "Be Punctual," a complimentary dinner. It was half an hour beyond the announced time.
"What are we waiting for?" inquired a nervous guest.

"The author."—Cleveland Plain Dealer "And what do you do in the dull sea-con?" we asked the Fool Killer. "What dull season?" exclaimed the

What dull season? exclaimed the Fool Killer.

"Why, when the Man Who Rocks the Boat and the Man Who Didn't Know It Was Loaded gult operations. What do you do then?"

"Oh. I get on the trail of the Man Who Know It All " replied the Fool "Oh, I get on the trail of the Man Who Knows it All," replied the Fool Killer,—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE HAPPY MAN.

William Cooper, from "The Task." He is the happy man whose life even Shows somewhat of that happier life to Who, doomed to an obscure but tranquil thirty-six-jeweled, six-cylindered. Is pleased with it, and, were he free to choose, kes to take a cold bath every morn-would make his fate his choice; whom of virtue, and whom virtue, fruit of faith.

own house. But we all know that the best silverware and the best table linen and the best towals are always and always are always ar The world o'erlooks him in her busy Of objects, more illustrious in her view; And, occupied as earnestly as she, Though more sublimely, he o'erlooks the world, them not: He seeks not here, for he has proved them vain. He cannot skim the ground like summer Pursuing gilded files; and such he deems Her honors, her emoluments, her joys.

Therefore in contemplation is his bliss,
Whose power is such that whom she lifts
from earth
She makes familiar with a heaven unseen.

And shows him glories yet to Not slothful he, though seeming unem-And censured oft as useless. Stillest streams Oft water fairest meadows, and the bird.
That flutters least is longest on the wins.

Lovers of Novelties

-and-All Say

"Let's go to Hospe's" On shopping days the above is a store-word and street-word in Omaha's shopping center-

The people have learned to look for "something new at Hospe's"-and they always find it. The House of Hospe keeps abreast of the times

WE WANT TO HELP BEAUTIFY YOUR HOME Kmas is Coming-It will pay you to review our wonderful showing of art goods-Money savers, all

Cordova Leather from$1.00 Brass Jardinieres — up from$1,50 Candle Sticks, in manogany, bronze, brass and enamel, up from . $1.50 Electric Lamps, in natural wood, gilt bronze, up from84.50 Artificial Flowers - up brass and leather, now, in what is new-

Pictures, framed - up and cards for all occasions, up from ic Statuary, a great assortment, up from 50c Trays, in mahogany, gilt and walnut, up from . . $1 Hand Mirrors, Shaving Sets, Pepper and Salt, in sterling silver and cut glass, up from 50e

A. HOSPE

"Framur's Craft Shop" 1513-1515 Douglas Street: Omaha