Postoffice Department First, Pension Second, Army Third, Navy Fourth and Public Works is Fifth.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Congress will have to appropriate $1,368,481,777 to operate the government of the United States during the fiscal year 1914, according to the estimates prepared by each department and sent to the house today by Secretary McAdoo of the treasury.

The estimates submitted today are $22,000,000 in excess of the appropriations for the last fiscal year, but their total falls $88,300,000 below the estimates for that year.

For the preservation and completion of vessels already in commission or authorized the Navy department wants $8,200,000; for the hulls and machinery of the two battleships and eight torpedo boats destroyers which Secretary Daniels wishes to build in the fiscal year 1914-1915, $7,800,000; for armor armament of vessels authorized, $10,000,000.

Increases for army.—Many increases are sought for the army. One of the principal military items is $20,000,000 for military aeronautics, of which $10,000,000 is to be spent for fifteen aeroplanes, said to be necessary for the United States to keep abreast in this science and "be prepared to cope with other first class powers in case of war."

The estimates for the organized militia are larger by many millions than in previous years. Sums of $1,300,000 for field camps of instruction, $400,000 for equipment of coast artillery armories, $1,000,000 for field artillery material, and $2,000,000 for ammunition for such artillery for militia are asked.

For armament in fortifications the estimate is $5,500,000, an increase of more than $2,000,000 over last year. This $2,000,000 is to be expended in the purchase, manufacture and test of ammunition for mountain, field and step cannon.

The War department estimates that $25,128,956 must be appropriated for the Panama canal in 1914, which is about $5,000,000 more than the current appropriation.

For miscellaneous material for the canal $10,420,000 is asked, and $2,331,530 is wanted for fortifications. Of the appropriation for fortifications $1,200,000 is to be spent for army quarters to provide accommodations in all for ten companies of coast artillery and $700,000 is for installation of ten six-inch guns, seven fourteen-inch guns and twenty-eight twelve-inch mortars.

One of the most interesting items in the long list of estimates is that of $475,500 for salaries and expenses of special attorneys, examiners and agents of the Bureau of Corporations, an increase of $200,000 over last year. In a note accompanying the request for this additional sum congress is told:

"This increase is due entirely to the plan projected for additional work to be done by the Bureau of Corporations. This plan has to do with the facts on stocks and bond issues, holding companies, interlocking directorates, etc., the economy and efficiency of trusts and interstate corporations and conflicting state laws." The census bureau wants $25,000 for collecting statistics, of which $66,600 is for a census of manufacturers. For an investigation of the materials used in railroads, wheels and other railway equipment and the cause of their failure, $80,000 is asked.

More Money for Investigators. Secretary McAdoo estimates that he will need $1,800,000 to collect the income tax. He says an increase is necessary because the tax collection machinery will be perfected by the time the appropriation is made and because investigations will determine cases of taxes withheld in previous years.

The Department of Agriculture asks congress for $400,000 to use in eradication of the cattle tick, an increase of $75,000.

This department lines itself up with the Department of Justice and congress in the effort to delve in the operations of the cold storage dealers. It asks $50,000 to investigate the preparation for the market, the storing, freezing and other operation, incidental to the transportation of poultry and eggs; $15,000 to look into similar operation in fish; $25,000 for an oyster investigation, and $30,000 for a biological investigation of food and drug products, with $65,400 for the enforcement of the pure food and drugs act.

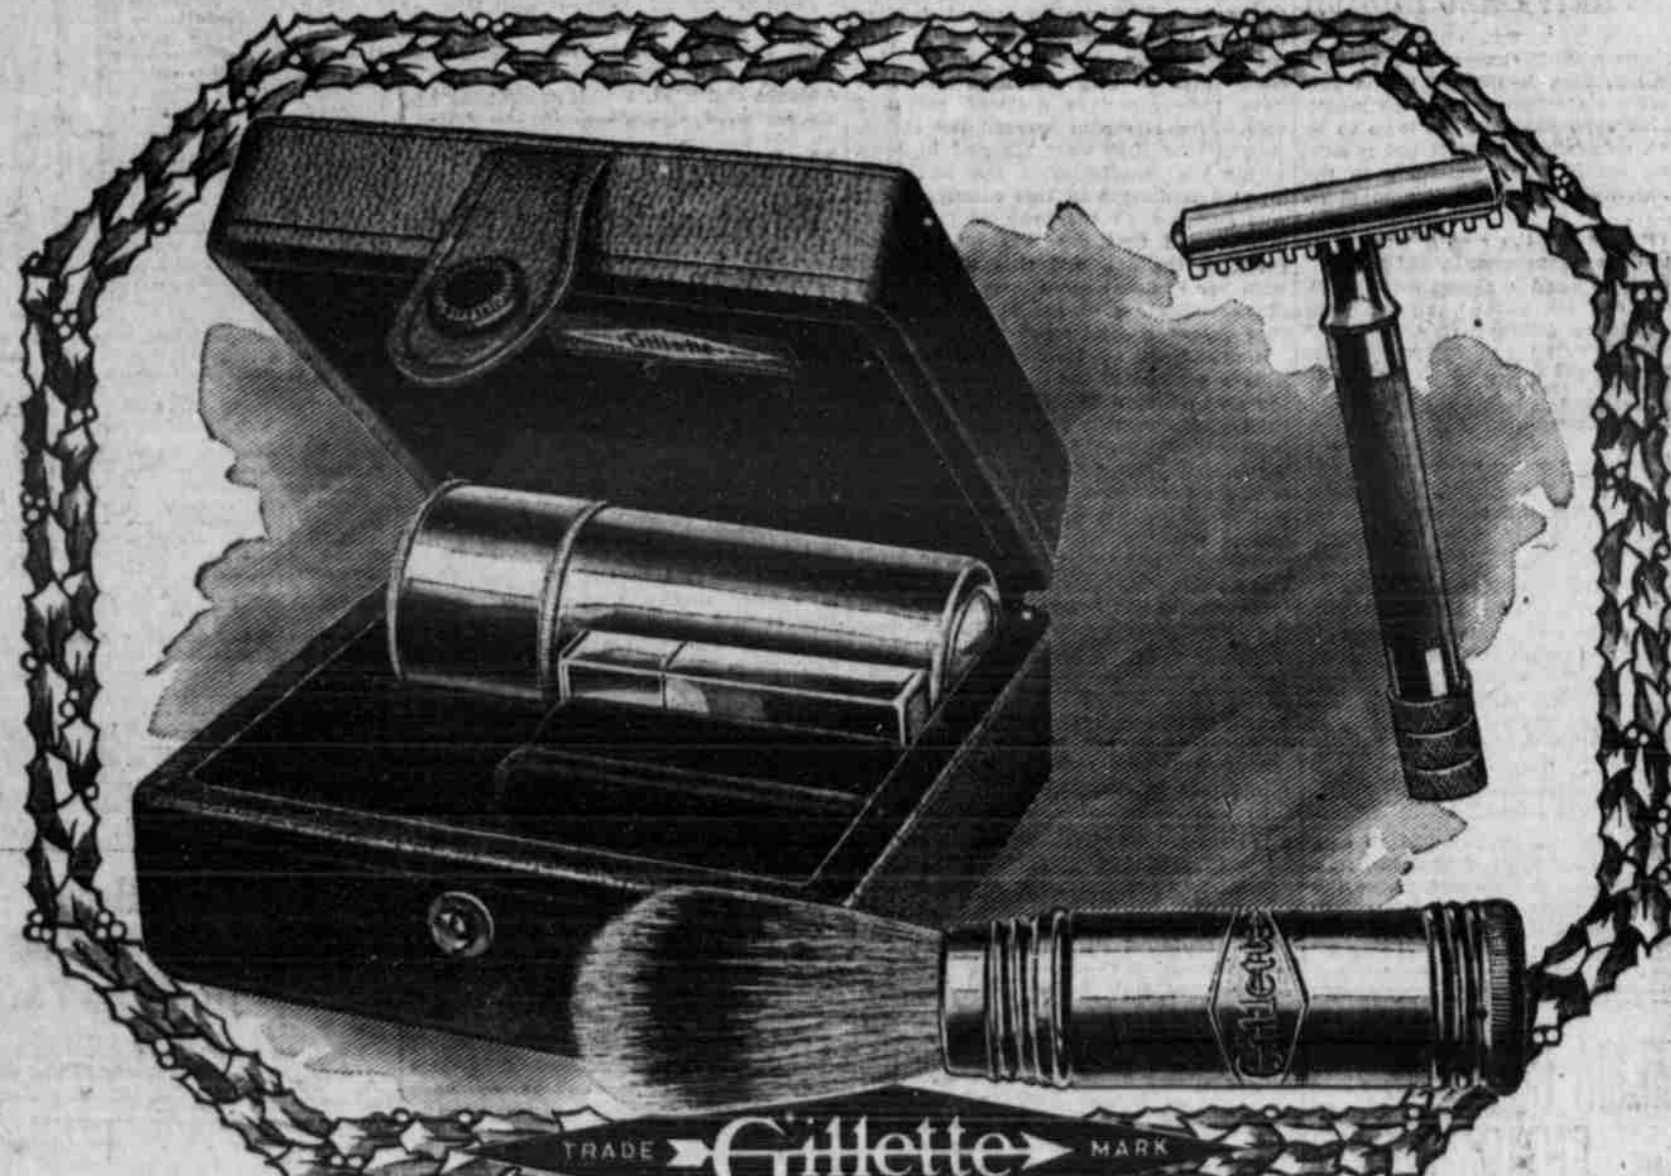

The State department evidences its determination to house American representatives abroad in buildings furnished by the government, in asking $150,000 for the purchase of a site and the construction of an embassy building in Mexico City; $100,000 for the purchase of a site and construction of a building for the legation at Bern, Switzerland; and $100,000 for the construction of an embassy building on ground now owned by the United States in Tokyo.

For continuing work on buildings already authorized, the Treasury department puts in an estimate of $1,111,283. For continuing rivers and harbors work, the War department says it needs $41,181,831, which includes $175,000 for improving the waterway connecting lakes Washington and Union at Seattle; Columbia river, Oregon, $1,000,000; Humboldt harbor and bay, California, $1,500,000; the Dains rapids to head of Cello falls, Columbia river, $25,000.
