

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER... TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION... DELIVERED BY CARRIER...

A Good Graft—Hit It. Congressman Barton should have encouraged approval of his effort to kill the mileage graft as practiced by our distinguished representatives...

Looking Backward This Day in Omaha COMPILED FROM OLD FILES

December 5. Thirty Years Ago—Falconer's hall, corner Fifteenth and Douglas, has been transformed into a fair play for a party for the benefit of the child's hospital...

Twice Told Tales The Explanation. Sweetly smiled Miss Ruth St. Denis, the dancer, the other evening when reference was made to the antics of college boys...

The Bee's Letter Box Southern View of the Negro. SOUTH OMAHA, Dec. 4.—To the Editor of The Bee: Upon reading your editorial headed "Worse than Jim Crow Laws"...

TOLD FOR FUN. "Pa, tell me one thing about army and navy officers?" "What is it, son?" "Is it when they get tired that they put on their tailgate uniform?"—Baltimore American.

A TIMELY REMINDER. Do your Christmas shopping early. Buy your books and games and toys. Buy your silver and jewelry...

52,068 State of Nebraska, County of Douglas, ss: Dwight Williams, circulation manager of The Bee Publishing Company...

Our American Melting Pots. George Ade rises to the defense of his home city, Chicago, against which moralists inveigh when they have nothing else to do...

Circumstantial Evidence. Bayard Veiller, at a luncheon, was accused of writing broad plays in order to make money, but Mr. Veiller insisted vehemently that he writes such plays in order to do good.

Keeping in the Linelight. BRADSHAW, Neb., Dec. 4.—To the Editor of The Bee: There seems to be a natural tendency in man to desire a place in the limelight of human events...

Homelike Church. He had been around in church to church trying to find a congenial congregation, and finally he stopped in a little church just as the congregation read with the minister: "We have left undone those things which we ought to have done..."

Purpose of Religion. KEARNEY, Neb., Dec. 4.—To the Editor of The Bee: Will you let me answer through your paper the question of F. J. Irwin of Lincoln in regard to the brakeman and the bishop?

Political Tips Former Mayor McGuire of Syracuse, N. Y., a reformer of some distinction, adds to his political laurels an indictment for soliciting campaign contributions.

You can almost hear Huerta mumbling "caramba." Now the question is, Can Uncle Sam can the Can Trust?

Pruning the Wall Street Tree. Speaking of unsatisfactory financial conditions, the Wall Street Journal declares it is "revealing no secrets" to say that an unprecedented number of stock exchanges and banking houses will go out of business at the beginning of the year...

People Talked About Mrs. Hannah Grossides of New York, on her ninety-ninth birthday calculated that she had spent 36,000 hours of her life away.

Odd Bits of Life Mrs. A. E. Faught of Augusta, Me. has an interesting relic in the form of a bill entitling the State of Maine to ten million dollars or their value in gold or silver.

Chance for Food Inspectors. OMAHA, Dec. 4.—To the Editor of The Bee: I notice by your paper that on the morning of December 1 the Illinois Central had a very bad wreck in the north and east of their yards in Council Bluffs...

GOLD DUST. Gold Dust does what you can't do for dishes. It digs into the corners and cleanses and sterilizes. GOLD DUST cleans everything. Never be without it.

Between the high cost of living, the seductions of the auto and the reductions of the tornado, our country clubs seem to have caught it coming and going.

That shaking off the dry rot is what is needed, and make way for something better, is also just as vigorously asserted by this Wall Street organ.

Mayor-elect Jerryms of Scranton, Pa. has given notice that during his term at the city hall the rich citizens who get drunk in public places will not be tenderly sent to their homes in taxicabs; they'll ride in the patrol wagon...

National Bird Exonerated. Government figures exonerate the great American hen from the charge, so to speak, of laying down on her job, and thus forcing up the price of eggs.

Manly the Middleman. Baltimore American. A Nebraska man wants to raise vegetables and ship them to customers by parcel post, and Uncle Sam thinks such a scheme might prove a success.

Select your office location keeping this in your mind Safety First Fire-Proof THE BEE BUILDING is absolutely fire-proof. No wood was used in its construction...

Mr. Rockefeller's touching tribute to sunlight may be taken in the form of peevish at the modern methods of illumination, threatening to supplant his glorious old oil lamps.

Speaking of the currency bill, Edgar Howard in his Columbus Telegram says: "The caucus decree will be opposed by Senator Hitchcock and some other Standard Oil republican senators."

That New Jersey man with two legs, who eloped with the daughter of one, taking along the daughter of the other, must be as bad off for trouble as the Chicago woman about to adopt fifteen children...

The Los Angeles Times publishes a photo of a beautiful pair of feminine shoulders and a neck, concealing the head, underscored thus: "Guess to whom it belongs and win a pair of theater tickets." Heavens, are they that familiar to you there?

What kills the old-fashioned brokerage firm, with names familiar to those who follow the backstairs gossip called "so-called news," is the overhead charges. A house at Newport, a dozen on Long Island, a third in the south, a cottage in the Adirondacks, a dozen expensive club memberships...

THE BEE BUILDING two years ago installed the most modern new elevators, with full width doors and modern floor signals. The rule for our conductors is "safety" and accommodation of tenants first; speed last. Only six floors; no long waits for a ride.

The Los Angeles Times discredits the criticism of newspapers 1,000 miles and more from Hetch Hetchy as of value with reference to the proper disposition of that great possession, yet here is John Temple Graves of one of Hearst's New York papers, 3,000 miles away, giving "The Truth About Hetch Hetchy."

Another American girl's name is added to the long list of disappointing matrimonial alliances with foreigners. The daughter of Robert J. Wynne, former American consul general at London, has just divorced her British soldier husband.

One of the youngest bidders who lost on the recent election was Miss Evelyn Campbell of Guilford, Me., who is 10 years old. She has just completed a pair of mittens which she knitted herself in payment of the bet.

Mr. Rodemeyer, editor and humorist, 58 years old, never loved but one girl. He married her recently in Canaan, Conn. Her name was Jenny Brown. They were sweethearts of youth. She married another man and a decade later Rodemeyer founded the Bachelors' club...

Miss Mary Rock, who died at Chambersburg, Pa., recently at the age of 72, had lived for fifty-six years of that time on milk, water, coffee and candy alone, as she imagined she could not eat solid foods. An autopsy immediately following the woman's death revealed the fact that her digestive organs were in perfect condition and she might easily have eaten anything she wanted to.

THE BEE BUILDING THE building that is always new For offices apply to the building superintendent, room 103.

It is not the fault of the hen, but of base human greed. Thus the slight tarnish on a reputation hitherto filled with glory has been removed by all the force of an official utterance.

Now, here's where we protest! It may be "some other Standard Oil senator," but not some other "Standard Oil republican senator."

A resident of the uplift state of Wisconsin addressed a letter to "Hon. John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury," requesting treasury documents "in order that I may keep abreast of the times."

Mrs. A. E. Faught of Augusta, Me. has an interesting relic in the form of a bill entitling the State of Maine to ten million dollars or their value in gold or silver.

John Rodemeyer, editor and humorist, 58 years old, never loved but one girl. He married her recently in Canaan, Conn. Her name was Jenny Brown. They were sweethearts of youth.

ADVERTISING insures to you an established price that you can count on and a fixed profit that you can count up.

Now, here's where we protest! It may be "some other Standard Oil senator," but not some other "Standard Oil republican senator."

The caucous decree will be opposed by Senator Hitchcock and some other Standard Oil republican senators.

Mr. Carlisle was secretary of the treasury twenty years ago, and died August 1, 1913. The Wisconsin statesetter needs something more than public documents to accretate his pace

Government figures exonerate the great American hen from the charge, so to speak, of laying down on her job, and thus forcing up the price of eggs. It is not the fault of the hen, but of base human greed.

Mrs. A. E. Faught of Augusta, Me. has an interesting relic in the form of a bill entitling the State of Maine to ten million dollars or their value in gold or silver.

ADVERTISING insures to you an established price that you can count on and a fixed profit that you can count up.