Visitors and brides are of prime interest to society. One of the first of the summer visitors to arrive was Mrs. Russell B. Harrison, who has been spending the winter in Washington, D. C. She will be with her mother, Mrs. Alvin B. Saunders, at their country home this summer. Mrs. Harrison was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Harry A. Williams, Jr., and small daughter, Mrs. Williams was formerly Miss Marthens Harrison of this city and has many friends here. Another popular visitor was expected Monday—Mrs. William Karnes of Kansas City, but Mrs. Karnes' visit has been indefinitely postponed. There was some social affair planned for each day this week in her honor. Most of these affairs will be cancelled.

Major and Mrs. Charles French, Fourth United States Infantry, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marion, to Lieutenant Elen Swift of the Twelfth cavalry. The announcement was made at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where Lieutenant Swift is stationed and where Miss French and her mother have been visiting part of the time since leaving Fort Crook a few weeks ago. The wedding will be celebrated in the autumn at Fort Crook.

Another engagement announced last week was that of Miss Evelyn Bergman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Bergman, to Mr. Meyer Fridstein of Milwaukee. Mr. and Mrs. Bergman will receive June 1 at their home in honor of Miss Bergman and Mr. Fridstein, who will be their guest.

Benefit for Sacred Heart Academy. All of the boxes have been engaged for the concert to be given Monday evening by Max Landow at the Brantley theater for the benefit of the Sacred Heart academy, which was badly damaged by the tornado.

The patronesses are Mrs. C. W. Hill, Mrs. Albert Swartzlander and Miss Rita Baumer. Box parties will be given by Mrs. George Brandeis, Mrs. L. F. Crofoot, Mrs. C. Will Hamilton, Mrs. J. C. Kinler, Miss O'Boyle and Mrs. Paul Getzschman. Mrs. A. B. McConnell bought one of the boxes and then donated it to the committee. The upper boxes will be occupied by the Sacred Heart alumnae and the Crichton class club. Mr. Landow will be assisted by Martin W. Bush.

From 130 pictures submitted for approval for this exhibition, only seventy-five were chosen, two being by Mr. Van Brunt. These pictures are in water colors, illustrations from his book, "Moon Tales," which will soon be published.
