

What Women Are Doing in the World

Club Meetings. MONDAY—Graduation exercises of the Bishop Clarkson Memorial hospital class of trained nurses at Trinity cathedral at 9 o'clock; young women's class in European history at 7:30 o'clock in lecture room of the public library.

THE closing weeks of many of the women's clubs of the country have been of much interest to all women associated with the work of the federated clubs, not only in the local and state societies, but in the national.

On Wednesday, May 21, from 7 until 9, will be the annual May morning breakfast under the auspices of the Business Girls' club.

The final number of the association entertainment course will be on Monday evening, May 20. It will be given by the association chorus under Miss Blanche Sorenson.

Among the encouraging replies received by the Nebraska Suffrage association in answer to letters sent urging early and favorable action by the senate woman suffrage committee on the federal amendment before it is the following from Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota:

"Before many of those who are now interested in the subject had entered this earthly vale of tears, I was combatting for woman suffrage, not on the plea of her right to vote, for I would no more discuss the right of a woman to vote than I would my own, some matters are beyond the pale of discussion.

The Suffrage club at Greeley recently gave the play, 'How the Vote Was Won,' with the clever little skit, 'The Suffragette Baby,' as a curtain raiser.

Price essays on the subject, 'Why Women Should Want the Ballot,' have already been received from several counties, but they will be held until the first of June before being turned over to the state judging committee.

The annual election of officers for the coming year will precede the program of the afternoon.

Paul A. Thomsen will read a paper on the geography of the Panama canal and Mrs. Robert L. Smith will tell of the inhabitants.

A mothers' day program will be given. Mrs. D. C. Dodds will give a reading and Mrs. A. C. Rawson will have charge of the program.

The roll call will be answered by the names of mothers of great men.
