DEDICATE NEW COURT HOUSE

Odd Fellows of State Have Charge at Central City.

SPECIAL RITUAL FOR EVENT

Brigadier General Boyd and Staff Attend, While Hundred Patriarchs Militant Are in Line of Parade.

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., May 24.—(Special Telegram.)—Under the auspices of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, grand lodge of Nebraska, the new Merrick county court house was dedicated yesterday in the presence of a large assemblage representative of the entire state. The parade formed in front of the Ratcliff hotel and proceeded through the business district of the city. The three branches of the order, subordinate, encampment and canton were each well represented and the appearance of 100 patriarchs militant in full uniform, was a distinctive feature.

The city band was in the lead and in addition to the Odd Fellows the Grand Army of the Republic and school children participated in the procession. The officers of the grand lodge were escorted by Brigadier General Earl E. Boyd, department commander of patriarchs militant. William Wagner, chairman of county commissioners, presided at the ceremonies which were held on the lawn fronting the new structure. The dedication ritual which had been especially prepared for the occasion, was beautifully rendered by the officers of the grand lodge.

Following the invocation by Rev. H. W. McJadden of Holbrook, the address of the day was delivered by Judge Lucian J. Eastin of St. Joseph, Mo.

In behalf of the Grand Army of the Republic, Judge W. H. C. Rice of this city presented to the county a large silk flag which was unfurled at the close of his brief but pointed remarks. The exercises closed with the rendering of "Star Spangled Banner" by the band while the assemblage stood at attention.

This evening the decoration of chivalry was conferred at the city park, on Captains Short of Omaha followed by degree work under the direction of the subordinate lodge at the hall. Among Odd Fellows of prominence in attendance were: T. W. Bass, grand master grand lodge; S. R. McFarland, chief priest grand encampment; Fanny C. Bow, president Rebekah assembly; members of General Boyd's staff, and Editor Corrick of the Nebraska Odd Fellows.

GIRL TOILERS DRIVEN TO CITY

Missouri Witness Says Farm Domesticities Get Small Pay.

LESS THAN A DOLLAR A WEEK

Job of Waitress Best Employment for Young Woman, One Asserts—Food Item is Considerable.

ST. LOUIS, May 24.—That the work of a waitress is the best employment for a girl; that the low wages paid to domestic servants in the rural districts is one reason why country girls seek employment in the cities and that girls in steam laundries work in such intense heat that they often faint at their work was testified today before the Missouri Wage Investigation commission.

State Senator Wilson asked a girl employed at Munger's laundry, St. Louis, why the girls employed there did not leave the city and do domestic work in "good homes at $5 to $7 a week and board." "I just came from the country," replied the girl. "I never knew a girl in the country working as a domestic who could make more than 60 or 75 cents a week. That's why I came to the city—because I did not wish to work for such small wages. I don't want to go back to the country."

Tips Dollar a Day. The testimony as to the relative desirability of work in a restaurant for a woman was given by a girl employed at the Gem restaurant here. She said she was paid $7 a week and that her tips averaged $1 a day. She lives with her cousin, who works at the same restaurant during the noon lunch hour. She pays the cousin $1 a week for taking care of her 11-year-old daughter.

"I manage well," she said. "I stop and think twice before I buy. I work ten hours a day. Our room costs $2.50 a week and it is good enough for a working girl. I am in it only at night. I get all my meals at the restaurant. I manage to have a suit for Sunday and a suit for work."

"My employers treat me well. I have a little bank account. Waitress work is the best there is for a girl if she has nobody but herself to look out for."

A frail little girl, who looked so thin that State Senator Kinney asked her if she had been sick, testified that she worked at Penny & Gentle's store for $3 a week, all of which she pays to an aunt for board. A 14-year-old girl said she went to work at the same store recently for $2.50 a week.

Girls Frequently Faint. A fisher at the Anchor laundry said girls at that place frequently faint from the heat. They then are laid on a table for an hour or two. No doctor, she said, ever is called. She told of one girl who was unconscious for three hours.

State Senator Kinney, chairman of the committee, said today that he has information that a man is making the rounds of St. Louis stores warning the girls not to testify before the committee. "If this committee finds," said Senator Kinney, "that any employer is doing such a thing he will be investigated. All the girls who have been called before this committee have been instructed to notify us in case they are discharged. Any employer discharging a girl for testifying before this committee likely will find his experiment costly one."

At the Theaters

Vaudiville at the Brandeis. Manager Charles W. Turner of the Brandeis theater, returned from Chicago Friday morning with the announcement that he had arranged for the exhibition of Sullivan-Considine 10-cent vaudeville at the Brandeis during the summer months. The season will start on Sunday afternoon. Five vaudeville acts will be given and some moving pictures. Performances will be given three times a day, matinee and evening.

Press Agents' Promises. The last three performances of "A Knight for a Day," will be given at the Hippodrome this afternoon and evening. Commencing Sunday matinee, a big new show, "Patience Kincaid," with all-star cast.

Should you allow it too, the loss is dis-tributed over as their own and trouble over getting someone else to occupy the big, roomy seat that might have been yours. Tomorrow a program of special interest to the kiddies will occupy the screen from noon to 11 p. m. So, if you are interested in seeing moving pictures that do not flicker or tire the eye or brain, drop in there at any time; you will find yourself well repaid and wonderfully rested after passing an hour in such pleasant surroundings.

Taft Jumps on the Recall of Decisions

CANADIANS MEET BRITISH

John Bull Subjects and Former Compatriots Dine Together.

CONSUL NUGENT MAKES SPEECH

Points Out the Increasing Similarity of Good Fellowship Between United States and Great Britain.

About seventy-five members and friends of the Canadian club gathered Friday evening at the Paxton hotel to celebrate Empire day, the late Queen Victoria's birthday. Owing to circumstances the program was arranged a day ahead of time yesterday.

A reception was held upstairs in the hotel parlors before the banquet. Dean J. A. Hancock had been called out of the city and was not present for the invocation, but W. G. Cleveland read a prayer that had been prepared instead. Chairman W. J. Colvin also had to respond to the call of business and in his place presided the British vice consul of Omaha, M. A. Hall.

At the beginning of the banquet, toasts were responded to the health of the two oldest members of the Canadian club, J. W. McDonald and John Dale.

Several songs were then sung by Captain Collins with Mrs. Collins playing the accompaniment.

In answer to a call "Why is a British Consul?" Vice Consul M. A. Hall told of the needs of such an office in Omaha and his first experiences in its connection with the British government in settling legal claims that had to go through England jurists' hands.

Victor White spoke briefly upon the friendly relations between Canada and the United States and the necessity of it continuing to grow everlastingly.

The feature of the evening was the speech by Horace D. Nugent, British consul general of the Chicago division. Mr. Nugent briefly cited a few figures of the total commercial relations between the United States and Great Britain. For last year he said imports into the country amounted to $1,800,000,000 and $20,000,000 of that amount was from the British empire, while in return that country and its provinces imported $2,400,000,000 worth of product, of which $1,100,000,000 came from the United States, not counting the importation into Canada, which totaled $500,000,000 more.

He also spoke of the coming centennial celebration of the final agreement of peace between Great Britain and the United States.

of peace between Great Britain and the United States.

To knit the friendly feeling between these two countries a statue of Queen Victoria is proposed for New York City while a peace memorial bridge will likely be built from Canada to the United States at Niagara Falls.

Referring to Canada and the United States again he pointed out that the 3,000 odd miles of boundary between these two countries, without armed protection, was one of the greatest examples for universal peace the world has ever known.

In closing, he quoted that "John Bull had nothing but the friendliest feeling for Americans."

John Dale also spoke briefly upon his impressions of Canada after a fifty-year absence.

"God Save the King," and "America" were sung by all present.

DENVER GRAND JURY INDICTS

Two Former City Officials Charged with Attempt to Bribe.

EIGHTEEN BILLS RETURNED

Street Commissioner Alleged to Have Offered Supervisor Money for Changing Vote on Franchise Deal.

DENVER, Colo., May 24.—The grand jury returned eighteen indictments to Judge C. C. Butler today. Two of the indictments are against former city officials, charging them with attempts at bribery of other city officials. Former Alderman James O'Driscoll was indicted on the charge of having offered Excelsa Commissioner A. A. Blakely $500 if he would grant him a saloon license for property which Alderman O'Driscoll owned. O'Driscoll was an official at the time the alleged bribery was attempted. The matter became public during a council meeting several weeks ago and Councilman Henry J. Arnold called for the alderman's resignation. The other bribery indictment was directed against William Geary, already under indictment for alleged padding of the city payroll while he was engaged as head of the street cleaning department. It is charged in the second indictment that Geary offered Supervisor H. B. Scheverell a reward for changing his vote in connection with a proposed gas company franchise pending before the council.

Two indictments were directed against persons charged with selling adulterated milk. The defendants are Horace W. Bennett, a business man of Denver, and Fritz Stahler, one of his employees. It is alleged they sold milk from tubercular cows.

The other indictments were returned against saloon and restaurant proprietors, who are charged with violation of the county's liquor laws.

All men indicted tonight gave bond and were released. All have been arrested. The grand jury tonight took a recess until June 2.
