the prominent workers in the Episcopal church of Nebraska. was elected president of the Woman's auxiliary of the Ne-S brasks branch of the Episcopal church at its twenty-seventh annual meeting held Tuesday at Jacobs Memorial hall in this city. Mrs. Potter is a graduate of Brownell hall, and was for several years president of the Alumnae association. During this time she was one of those influential in establishing the Talbot scholarship. At the time Mrs. Worthington was president of the state auxiliary association, Mrs. Potter was secretary and has been active in the misgionary work gince the organization was established in 1886. She was also secretary of the Women's society, which raised $22,000 for Clarkson hospital, and had charge of the tag day on which $7,000 was raised. She has been an active worker in the Social Settlement. Mrs. Potter is many duties connected with it and only last evening for her home. one who is familiar with the work and has been associated with it could accept the office.
