

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER... TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Sunday Bee one year... $1.50

REMITTANCE: Remit by draft, express or postal order... OFFICES: Omaha-The Bee building...

APRIL CIRCULATION: 50,106

State of Nebraska, County of Douglas... Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them.

Ak-Sar-Ben scores in the first inning.

Isbipening may now resume its place as a dot on the map.

Old John Barbeycorn will never have a look-in at Armageddon.

Judge English will be expected to put the Irish on the spinning ball of justice.

Yes, and think of the fresh editorial inspiration they will take home with them.

"Corset Steel Saves Woman from Bullet," says a headline.

It is naturally assumed that there are no devils in this body of state editors Omaha is entertaining.

Even Mr. O'Hara of Illinois is finding it hard to give a new meaning to the words "lieutenant governor."

The president has begun his hunt for the "numerous and insidious" lobby.

"War is hell," said General Sherman, and the spirit of the day is peace.

Remember that you can get drinking water at home practically for nothing.

The Board of Trade farmers may be depended upon to make and break the wheat crop several times yet before the season closes.

If Senator J. Ham Lewis is to be the democratic whip of the senate,

If the weather man must lose those thunder showers, let him please send them to us in the day time.

Total active membership of the Omaha Commercial club has reached 1,582.

Japanese orators bespeak a peaceful settlement with California.

Bombardier Wells, England's latest white hope, has been knocked out by a French pugilist.

That reminds us, what has become of the law or ordinance that was to prevent building contractors from blocking more than one-third of the street space.

The first senators to testify in the lobby inquiry case are Senators Ashurst, Bacon, Bankhead and Borah.

It is certainly hard to realize that fifteen years have passed since the opening of our Omaha exposition.

Much is being made of the fact that Ethel Barrymore, who is Mrs. Russell G. Colt of the stage,

Lobbyists—Domestic and Imported.

How well naturally discerning people see far-away dangers while blind to those right close at hand is illustrated by the outburst...

At each session of the legislature we see the city haunted by men, and sometimes women, who come here for no other purpose than to influence legislation...

Now, as a matter of fact, wherever there is molasses in summer time there are likely to be flies, and wherever legislation is being compounded...

The only difference between the imported and domestic variety of lobbyist is that the domestic variety is on the ground doing business all the time...

College fraternities are on the defensive, organizing to avert threatened doom.

The opposition to the fraternities grows out of the simple fact that they have become hindrances instead of helps to education.

Even the fraternalists, to make any sort of fight must undergo a complete change of character.

The widespread demand for purging the stage of suggestive songs and plays is an admission of the potential influence of the theater which the manager should not misconceive.

Stands back! The June bride cometh! Mrs. S. A. Kiddy of Grass Valley, president of the Nevada County Narrow Gauge railroad.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

Looking Backward This Day in Omaha

Thirty Years Ago—Rev. J. W. Harris of the First Baptist Church preached his sermon on "Atone ment for Sin."

A horse belonging to Pat Gordon fell into the creek near the street car barn and was only rescued with the assistance of all the north end of town.

Mrs. Larkin, mother of Mrs. Pollock, wife of our signal service officer, has been summoned to the bedside of her mother in Michigan.

D. B. Morse, the South Thirteenth street harness man, has a curiosity in his window in the shape of some unknown fowl, for which he offers $1 to anyone who can tell what it is.

The debt of the First Methodist Episcopal church, amounting to nearly $3,000, was checked off as paid tonight and a small sum left in the treasury.

A man called in the treasury, Mr. Green, a mail carrier, collected nearly $100 of this sum.

"A Man for Marrying" was presented in German at Turner hall with Mr. Brockmann, Mr. and Mrs. Eureka, Miss Theissen and Miss Buchmann in the leading roles.

Henry Gibson, secretary of the Board of Trade, left for Chicago.

John Heath and family of Lincoln have come to Omaha to locate permanently.

F. Beatter, recently of St. Joseph, has taken a position with C. F. Goodwin as manager of the glass department.

Twenty Years Ago—Fire caused by lightning destroyed the building and stock of Charles Shiverick & Co., 126-129 Farnam street.

Loop City Northwestern: Billy Sunday was offered $21.00 to go to Omaha and convert that Dalmatian city, but considered it too tough a proposition to tackle.

York Times: Billy Sunday seems disposed to fight shy of Omaha, notwithstanding the tempting offer made him.

A permit was issued by the building department to N. A. Kuhn to erect a cottage at 423 Ohio street, to cost $1,600.

Nebraska City News: The Omaha churches combined, all but two, and raised a fund of $2,000 with which to induce Billy Sunday to come to that town and hold a series of meetings.

Wayne Herald: When the mountain refused to come to Mahomet, Mahomet went to the mountain. So, if Evangelist Billy Sunday persists in refusing to come to Omaha, why doesn't Omaha go to Billy?

Plattsmouth Journal: That $21,000 that Omaha has raised to secure Billy Sunday to come there and pour forth a rehash of his Sam Jones slush had better have been donated to the tornado sufferers.

Nebraska City News: The Omaha churches combined, all but two, and raised a fund of $2,000 with which to induce Billy Sunday to come to that town and hold a series of meetings.

The Northern Nebraska Journal-Leader of Ponca, has just completed installation of a new cylinder press.

Ross & Ross have sold the Salem Standard to E. S. Galloway, formerly of Auburn. The transfer was made last week.

The Ullyses Dispatch has just finished installing a cylinder press. The Dispatch is the second oldest paper in Butler county.

The Belgrade Herald has begun the construction of a new cement block building, 20x4 feet. It will be completed some time in July.

D. C. Jenkins is the new editor of the Beatrice Express. He was formerly foreman for Milour & Scott, a job printing firm of Beatrice.

The Carpenter News is the name of a newspaper started last week at Carpenter by Sidney Clower, who recently finished his apprenticeship on the Prairie Herald.

Wills H. Haaner, formerly of Millmore, Mo. has begun the publication of a newspaper at Dawson, to be known as the Dawson Reporter. Dawson has been without a paper for several years.

G. L. Carlson has bought a controlling interest in the Rundschau, a German weekly paper of Norfolk. The Ahlmann will remain in charge of the business office and plant and Mr. Carlson will act as editor. It is the intention to make a state paper for German readers.

Boston Transcript: It appears that the supreme court can't even get a patent on its own decisions.

Washington Post: Thirty-seven answers from American bankers may safely be expected to furnish 4,763 entirely satisfactory solutions to the currency problem.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Science now steps in and fights the grasshopper pest with poison. This at once puts the 'hop- per on a social equality with the potato bug.

Philadelphia Ledger: Attorney General McRaynolds says his department is going to file many new suits. Perhaps he may make a better showing than Wickersham.

Bidding for Billy

Hastings Tribune: Billy Sunday has been offered $21,000 for six weeks' evangelistic work in Omaha.

Freemont Tribune: Omaha does not know whether Billy Sunday will come next year and battle with the cohorts of sin.

Nebraska City News: Billy Sunday was offered $21.00 to go to Omaha and convert that Dalmatian city, but considered it too tough a proposition to tackle.

York Times: Billy Sunday seems disposed to fight shy of Omaha, notwithstanding the tempting offer made him.

A permit was issued by the building department to N. A. Kuhn to erect a cottage at 423 Ohio street, to cost $1,600.

Nebraska City News: The Omaha churches combined, all but two, and raised a fund of $2,000 with which to induce Billy Sunday to come to that town and hold a series of meetings.

The Northern Nebraska Journal-Leader of Ponca, has just completed installation of a new cylinder press.

Ross & Ross have sold the Salem Standard to E. S. Galloway, formerly of Auburn. The transfer was made last week.

The Ullyses Dispatch has just finished installing a cylinder press. The Dispatch is the second oldest paper in Butler county.

The Belgrade Herald has begun the construction of a new cement block building, 20x4 feet. It will be completed some time in July.

D. C. Jenkins is the new editor of the Beatrice Express. He was formerly foreman for Milour & Scott, a job printing firm of Beatrice.

The Carpenter News is the name of a newspaper started last week at Carpenter by Sidney Clower, who recently finished his apprenticeship on the Prairie Herald.

Wills H. Haaner, formerly of Millmore, Mo. has begun the publication of a newspaper at Dawson, to be known as the Dawson Reporter. Dawson has been without a paper for several years.

G. L. Carlson has bought a controlling interest in the Rundschau, a German weekly paper of Norfolk. The Ahlmann will remain in charge of the business office and plant and Mr. Carlson will act as editor. It is the intention to make a state paper for German readers.

Boston Transcript: It appears that the supreme court can't even get a patent on its own decisions.

Washington Post: Thirty-seven answers from American bankers may safely be expected to furnish 4,763 entirely satisfactory solutions to the currency problem.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Science now steps in and fights the grasshopper pest with poison. This at once puts the 'hop- per on a social equality with the potato bug.

Philadelphia Ledger: Attorney General McRaynolds says his department is going to file many new suits. Perhaps he may make a better showing than Wickersham.

Boston Transcript: It appears that the supreme court can't even get a patent on its own decisions.

Washington Post: Thirty-seven answers from American bankers may safely be expected to furnish 4,763 entirely satisfactory solutions to the currency problem.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Science now steps in and fights the grasshopper pest with poison. This at once puts the 'hop- per on a social equality with the potato bug.

Philadelphia Ledger: Attorney General McRaynolds says his department is going to file many new suits. Perhaps he may make a better showing than Wickersham.

Boston Transcript: It appears that the supreme court can't even get a patent on its own decisions.

Washington Post: Thirty-seven answers from American bankers may safely be expected to furnish 4,763 entirely satisfactory solutions to the currency problem.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Science now steps in and fights the grasshopper pest with poison. This at once puts the 'hop- per on a social equality with the potato bug.

Philadelphia Ledger: Attorney General McRaynolds says his department is going to file many new suits. Perhaps he may make a better showing than Wickersham.

Boston Transcript: It appears that the supreme court can't even get a patent on its own decisions.

Washington Post: Thirty-seven answers from American bankers may safely be expected to furnish 4,763 entirely satisfactory solutions to the currency problem.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Science now steps in and fights the grasshopper pest with poison. This at once puts the 'hop- per on a social equality with the potato bug.

Philadelphia Ledger: Attorney General McRaynolds says his department is going to file many new suits. Perhaps he may make a better showing than Wickersham.

The Bee's Letter Box

Anti-Saloonists and Billy Sunday. OMAHA, June 2.—To the Editor of The Bee: Your paper quotes the Rev. Dr. Mackay as saying:

The real estate agent, tired and peevish, arrived at his home in the suburbs. "Oh, George," greeted his wife, "the dog has been whining all day long! What do you suppose is the matter? It never barks like that when he is hungry."

What do you think of the Bill under consideration? "Oh," replied Senator Sorghum, "that is a matter of no importance. But we must be very careful about getting it equipped with the proper riders and jokers."—Washington Star.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

There is no good reason to live unless we can enjoy life at least part of the time.

JOLLIES FROM JUDGE. Miss Ouldieri—Now if I should find a man under my bed, I'd simply tell him to marry me or I'd shoot.

"Children, children, what in the world is the matter?" "We is standin' comic supplement, and Joey won't stay up so 'at I kin hit him on the head with the cuspidor."

New Yorker—One of our new hotels, Uncle Bill, is to contain over 2,000 rooms. Uncle Bill—Gee crackey! I'd hate to be the bellboy!

Civious-Good scheme, this administration no-wine dinner rule at Washington. And they'll be able to put it over. Critics—Umph! Doubt it. Somehow, lacks the punch.

Boss—What are you handing in your resignation for? Messenger—Well, boss, you called me down twice dis week, so I thought I'd better get out before I'm tempted to make things unpleasant for de firm.

The real estate agent, tired and peevish, arrived at his home in the suburbs. "Oh, George," greeted his wife, "the dog has been whining all day long! What do you suppose is the matter? It never barks like that when he is hungry."

What do you think of the Bill under consideration? "Oh," replied Senator Sorghum, "that is a matter of no importance. But we must be very careful about getting it equipped with the proper riders and jokers."—Washington Star.

Time Your Relief from Constipation. YOU are constipated. You want relief and want it quick. There is no use going around all day with a heavy, dragging feeling—a headache, disordered stomach, bad breath, and all that—when, within one hour from the time you take 1/2 glassful of HURTADE JAWORSKI'S WATER...

DENNSYLVANIA LINES. "The Call of the East" in Summer attracts tourists to Seashore Resorts and numerous points of interest in and around New York where Vacation Outings are one round of enjoyment.

30-Day Round Trip Tickets to New York, Atlantic City and Other Seashore Resorts. Sold Daily June 1 to September 30 Inclusive. Variable Route Tickets to New York and Boston.

Look into The Business Opportunities in the BEE classified pages. Your chance to make money may lie in a want ad in The Bee. Others have made money through acting upon opportunities offered in the "Business Chances" columns of The Bee.

DR. BRADBURY DENTIST. 1506 Farnam St. Extracting... 25c Up. Filling... 50c Up. Bridgework... $2.50 Up. Crowns... $2.50 Up. Plates... $2.00 Up. No Pain. The Food Drink for all Ages—Others are Imitations.