Attorney General Proposes a Grauuated Tax on Output.

LARGE FACTORIES TO PAY MORE

Cabinet Officer Says He Regards the Dissolution Decree as Obvious Subterfuge and Miscarringe of Justice.

WASHINGTON, June 4 .- Attorney General Reynolds today declared that he had always regarded the final decree intended to dissolve the tobacco trust as an "obvious subterfuge and a miscarriage of justice," and if there were any proper and just way by which he could cure the evil he would do it. As an immediate step he is considering proposing to congress a graduated excise tax on tobacco manufacturers. He advocates a sliding scale in such a way that the big manufacturers will pay more and more as their output increases. It is said the attorney general has talked his plan over with President Wilson and the cabinet and will submit it to Chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee. While such a plan of taxation could not be called a tariff for revenue only measure, Mr. Reynolds contends that it the pleas of independent tobacco manufacturers that the dissolution of the socalled trust has not relieved them of a situation which they say, threatens to place them in as much danger as they were from the "trust" before it was dissolved.

May Also File Suit. In addition to correcting alleged inequalities by such a method of internal revenue taxation, the attorney general is still considering the advisability of beginning an investigation to determine whether the decree dissolving the tobacco trust is being violated. Most of the attorneys of the department of justice agree that the government could not reopen the dissolution case and future movements must be supplementary. It is pointed out that the United States court in entering the former Attorney General Wickersham's request that the government be permitted to reopen the decree at any time within the next five years in case it de- for which they paid, but didn't get. veloped that the plan of dissolution had not accomplished the purposes of the Sherman law.

The attorney general said that while he had not finally decided upon an investigation of the tobacco situation with a view to further anti-trust prosecution, he likewise has not reached a conclusion as to whether the decree of dissolution, which he regards as inadequate, can be reopened. The attorney general indicated that he was firmly convinced that the decree was not commensurate with the

The council considered the equalisation of water taxes in nineteen districts. The Water board is constantly creating other districts. The council can see nothing ahead but trouble, trouble, as long as water is pumped through the mains.

Hoctor Brings Council. Mayor Hoctor, who appeared as South Omaha's representative, brought his council with him. He was spokesman for them. He said that South Omaha was in urgent need of twelve fire hydrants. The councyil passed a resolution a year ago ordering these hydrants installed. "For some reason nothing has been done by the Water board," said Mayor

Hoctor. "We are here to protect the interest of our constituents. Personally none of us will suffer much, but we belleve our people ought to be protected. "For a year the board has made no move to comply with our request. We owe the board about 10,000 hydrant rentals and have the money to pay it. The board has accepted money from us in payment for fire protection. Presumably it was accepted under the contract made with the old company. If that is so it is time for the Water board to live up to that agreement. Under it we are entitled to fire protection." Water Commissioner Howell refuted the mayor's remarks insofar as they related is an emergency measure devised to meet to the board having made no move to comply with the South Omaha council's request.

"We've ordered 1,000 tons of pipe," he

"Then why don't you lay it and get these fire hydrants in?" "It hasn't come yet." Hoctor continued:

"Perhaps the Water board has been thinking of this metropolitan water district bill and has purposely delayed laying the mains and putting in these hydrants, believing it wouldn't have to do it under the old contract."

The city council, except for a sudden spurt of fires from Councilman Thomas McGovern, sat quiescent through the battle, not enjoying it in the least. Police Commissioner Ryder was in the chair and now and then asked a placid little question, seeking only for information, decree of dissolution declined to grant of denunciation of Water board methods. but every time brought forth a fusillade Some of the complainants said they were well supplied with water, but would do most anything to get fire protection,
