LINCOLN BANS SHAVE PAPER

Gets One Per Cent for Handling State Warrants.

MAKES FIVE PER CENT REVENUE Agreement Among All Institutions at Capital City Apparent, and No One is Able to Break It.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 4.—(Special.)—Registered state warrants are making trouble for some of the banks of Lincoln and may result in giving people who have them a chance to get them cashed at their face value at those institutions.

State warrants when registered draw 4 per cent interest. The banks of Lincoln have been charging 1 per cent for cashing the warrants, making a 5 per cent revenue from their purchase. The other day a prominent official of the state house went to the bank where he has been doing business since coming to Lincoln with his warrant registered in the regular way and put it in for deposit. He was informed that the warrant would not be accepted without a shave of 1 per cent. He tried to make the banker believe that as he was a regular customer that he ought to be allowed the face of the warrant on a deposit, but the banker demurred, with the result that the gentleman told the bank to go to, and withdrew his deposit.

It is understood that the Lincoln banks have an agreement that no state warrants will be received unless the owner agrees to a 1 per cent shave, thus giving them a 5 per cent revenue on the warrant. Depositors are objecting to paying 1 per cent shave and some of them declare that they will send their warrants to their home town banks for deposit rather than submit to the shave.

The new officers are: Captain John Zaloudek, formerly detective. Captain Henry Carey, formerly patrolman. Court Officer William Corrigan, formerly jailer. Jailer Tony Smith, formerly patrolman.

Members of the Board of Fire and Police commissioners of South Omaha held their meeting last night to discuss the matter of patronage and the long expected fall of the gullotine was heard. Henry Eiselfelder is one of the oldest members of the police force in point of service and for years was a detective. He has been a captain for three years. He is one of the most capable officers on the South Omaha police force. When he learned of the board's action, he was determined to turn in his star at once, but refrained only at the express desire of Chief Briggs.

It is said that an effort is still being made to get Chief Briggs' place though this did not come before the meeting last night.

The police department is under the civil service rules. It is said that only one or two exceptions everyone on the force took some part in the election.

It is understood that Fire Chief John McKale will file charges against Fire Captain John Kubat and Firemen Anton Spevak and Anton Buglewicz.

WANT GOOD ROADS IN POLK

Iowa Highway Commission Meets in Des Moines.

FINDS HIGHWAYS IN BAD SHAPE

Police Investigation Reveals Studied Efforts to Block Way of Inquiry Which May Bring Injunction Law into Effect.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, June 4.—(Special Telegram.)—The State Highway commission after an extended session with city and county officials here today secured an agreement that there will be a joint meeting of the county board and city council and an effort made to have co-operation in the building of roads and keeping them up. The commission visited the roads about the city and reported that they are the worst roads that have ever been seen. They declared there was no evidence of their ever having been dragged at all.

The officials agreed to get busy. The action was taken largely as an example for delinquent officials elsewhere in the state.

Trouble with Police Inquiry

The inquiry into corruption in Des Moines police circles resulted in three more police officials being placed under suspicion today by the chief, and disclosure that a strong effort is being made to cause embarrassment to the investigators. The chief discovered a number of new witnesses and also that some of the witnesses have been coached as to what not to say. It was also found that the state law for injunction against disorderly houses is to be invoked because of the revelations made. Four of the police force are now out.

Consider Libraries

The quarterly conference of heads of the state institutions today was largely a library meeting having relation to the institution libraries. Miss Robinson, who has charge of the libraries for the state institutions, told of the needs of such libraries and how to get the best results from them. Miss Carey of Minnesota told especially of libraries and books for the insane and declared that these books should be not only attractive and entertaining, but have a moral effect and end well to make the best impression. The preparation of libraries for the state institutions has become quite an art and a great deal of attention is being given to this phase of the work of the state for the unfortunate.

Retrenchment in State Coal

A saving of nearly $3,000 a year could be effected by the state of Iowa in the coal burned at the heating and lighting plant of the state by installing new machinery and methods at a cost of $18,000, according to a report of the efficiency engineers made today to the retrenchment and reform committee of the Thirty-fifth general assembly. The experts report in favor of a great many changes, including a switch track to the plant and installation of equipment for testing coal and buying it by the heat unit instead of by the ton.

Committee on Retrenchment and Reform asked the attorney general for an opinion on the powers of the committee.

Conference on Valuations

There will be a conference in the offices of the railroad commission Friday and Saturday of this week, relative to valuation matters.

Reduced Rates for Fair

The State Board of Agriculture has prepared a petition to the railroad commission asking that the commission order the railroads to put in the reduced rate to the state fair as authorized by the legislature. It is understood the railroads have refused to make any reduction in rates for state fairs or similar gatherings. The legislature authorized the commission to decide whether such rates are proper and, if so, to order them adopted. The railroads will resist in the courts.

Supreme Court Decisions

Drainage District No. 3, Ed Ryg against Board of Supervisors Boone and Story counties, Story county, Judge Albrook; affirmed by Evans.

C. Moffitt against George Fitzer, appellants, Cedar county, Judge Trechler; assessment omitted property, reversed by Ladd.

John Boone, appellant, against Emaline Boone, Dallas county, Judge Fahy; will settlement; affirmed by the court.

M. M. Wilson against J. A. Beck, appellant, Dickinson county, Judge Hallie; to quiet title; affirmed by Withrow.

Bessie Farnsworth, appellant, against Muscatine Produce and Pure Ice company, Muscatine county, Judge Hord; action to secure money back for stock purchase; reversed by Withrow.

George Cosson, attorney general, against Judge Bradshaw; certiorari from Marshall county; annulled.

Attorney General Winner. The supreme court annulled the order of Judge Bradshaw, in the suit, in which Attorney General Cosson tried out his right to appear before a grand jury in Marshall county. The court held the judge had erred in refusing to permit the attorney general to go before the grand jury.

Judge Bradshaw had held that the act of the legislature, which Attorney General Cosson, while a state senator wrote, did not give the attorney general authority to go before a grand jury; and this all hinged on the meaning of the word tribunal as found therein.

"In the light of the evident purpose of this statute," said the court, "and in recognition of the fact that our court and other courts in speaking of this body, the grand jury, have denominated it a tribunal, there is no escape from the conclusion that the legislature in the use of this word referred to and included the grand jury."

SOMETHING DOING, AFTER ALL

Skillful Slicer Tells What He Can Do and is Hired on the Spot.

Mr. Underdone Cutlets, proprietor of the Speedy Cafe, was notoriously hard-hearted. The most weeping widow who ever graced a melodrama couldn't have wept a slice of stale bread out of his restaurant without the price. So when a pale and timorous bum approached the desk and made a fattering appeal, it was no surprise to the lunch fiends to hear a curt "nothing doing. Beat it."

"I'm not a beggar," retorted the hungry man. "I'm willing to scrub floors or wash dishes. I'm just out of prison, and nobody will give me work. I'm starving."

The proprietor betrayed a faint interest. "What were you in for?" he asked idly.

"I'll tell you the truth," explained the ex-convict, "I was a kind of a counterfeiter. I used to take a hundred dollar bill and split it in two with a razor. Then I'd take a one and split that and then paste the halves together, so I'd have two centuries. If the sucker didn't look on both sides, it took 'em five years to catch me."

Mr. Cutlets beckoned the ex-prisoner behind the bar. "Order what you like on the house," he whispered. "I've got a steady job for you. I'll give you thirty a week to slice the ham for my sandwiches."—Lippincott's Magazine.

Goodrich Tires

are best in the long run

Not because the makers of practically half 1913's output of new cars have bought Goodrich Tires to equip them—

Not because so many well known car makers have always equipped their output with Goodrich Tires—

Not because thousands and thousands of more-than-satisfied tire users recommend them enthusiastically—

But— Because the Goodrich principle of unit molding, which was crystallized from our twenty-seven years of experience in rubber manufacturing before we made the first American clincher tire and which we have never changed, demonstrated its soundness from the start—

And because our long experience in selecting the best crude rubber and compounding it gave us the ability to give it toughness and durability and at the same time keep the buoyant life in it—

And because we make Goodrich Tires of the finest fabric that can be woven of Sea Island Cotton—fabric that costs as much as silk—and of pure rubber—

And because Goodrich unit molding makes the whole tire one integral piece—a unit—which wears uniformly and gives long, comfortable service.

The thick, tough tread, being of the tire and not merely on it, naturally cannot strip or peel.

Our single vulcanization makes all the tire at once—a unit—and frees you of the danger from weak spots or dead places caused by over vulcanization cooking the life out of the rubber.

Your tire dealer will supply you with whatever style of Goodrich Tire you need—but there is only one kind and quality.

Write for free set of folders telling you how to get the most service from your tires and how to avoid the common tire injuries.
