

Silk Hat Harry's Divorce Suit--Speaking of Swell Dressed Dolls

Copyright, 1913, National News Assn.

Drawn for The Bee by Tad

CHAMPIONS ARE SHUT OUT

White Sox Defeat Boston by Five to Nothing Score.

SCOTT ALLOWS FOUR SINGLES

Chicago Hit Leonard Opportunely and Do Some Good Base Running--Errors of Opponents Prove Costly.

BOSTON, June 5.--Scott held Boston to four singles today, all of which were made by Hooper and Ball, two being of a scratch nature, and Chicago shut out the locals, 5 to 0.

The visitors hit Leonard opportunely and did some good base running. Errors by Leonard were costly. A double by Mattick in the second, followed by Weaver's single, an error and a sacrifice fly, gave Chicago two runs. Fournier doubled in the third and scored on Collins' single. With one out in the seventh, Scott doubled and went to third on Rath's scratch hit. Lord hit to Leonard and Scott was run down, Rath coming around to third on the play. A double steal by Lord and Rath followed, the latter scoring. Mattick singled in the eighth and was safe on second on Yerkes' miff of Hooper's throw. Weaver scored him with a double to center. Score:

Table with columns for teams (Chicago, Boston) and individual players (Rath, Lord, Fournier, Collins, etc.) with their statistics.

*Batted for Leonard in the ninth. Chicago 5, Boston 0. Two-base hits: Mattick, Fournier, Scott. Sacrifice hits: Lord, Mattick, Stolen bases: Rath, Lord, Scott, Schalk. Left on bases: Chicago, 5; Boston, 1. First base on errors: Chicago, 1; Boston, 2. Wild pitch: Leonard, 1. Umpires: Connolly and McGreevy.

Yanks Lose to Naps. NEW YORK, June 5.--Although New York put up a game fight against Cleveland today they lost in the tenth inning, 5 to 3. Olson walked with one out in the extra inning and Turner doubled. Jackson was purposely passed, filling the bases. Lelivelt batted for Leibold and struck out. Whitney singled through the box, scoring Olson and Turner.

Wolver of the Highlanders hit a home run in the first ten times up. His second circuit smash came with Hartzell on base. Mitchell pitched fine ball for Cleveland. He relieved Steen in the fourth, after the latter started the inning by passing Cree. McConnell also pitched a fairly effective game for New York, though he was hit freely in the first three innings. Score:

Table with columns for teams (Cleveland, New York) and individual players (Johnston, Chapman, etc.) with their statistics.

*Batted for Ryan in eighth. *Batted for Swenney in eighth. Cleveland 3, New York 5. First base on error: Cleveland, 1. Two-base hits: Graney, Turner (2), Horton. Three-base hits: Johnston, Chapman. Home runs: Walter (2), Sacrifice hits: Zelder, Chapman, McConnell. Sacrifice fly: Turner. Stolen bases: Graney, Feickpaugh. Left on bases: New York, 4; Cleveland, 3. Double play: Johnston to Chapman. Bases on balls: Off McConnell, 4; off Steen, 1; off Mitchell, 2. Struck out: By McConnell, 5; by Mitchell, 2. Hit by pitched ball: By Mitchell (Swenney). Hits: Off Steen, 3 in three innings; (two out); off Mitchell, 4 in seven innings. Time: 2:25. Umpires: Egan and Evans.

St. Louis Defeats Senators. WASHINGTON, June 5.--St. Louis revised his batting order today with excellent results and easily defeated Washington, 13 to 3, in the third game of the series here. All of the home pitchers looked alike and were hit to all parts of the field. Score:

Table with columns for teams (St. Louis, Washington) and individual players (Shotton, etc.) with their statistics.

*Batted for Altrock in the third. St. Louis 13, Washington 3. Two-base hits: Johnston, Compton (2), Mitchell, Stovall, McBride. Three-base hit: Balenti. Home runs: Henry, Calvo. Hit: Off Mitchell, 1 in one inning; off Altrock, 3 in two and two-thirds innings; off Gallia, 1 in six innings. Sacrifice hit: Pratt. Struck out: By Mitchell, 2; by Gallia, 2. Time: 1:58. Umpires: O'Loughlin and Hildebrand.

Tigers Take Third Trailing. PHILADELPHIA, June 5.--Detroit lost its third straight game of the series today, 10 to 6. Whitt pitched for the visitors and the Mackmen got to him hard and often, most of their hits being of the timely order. Connie Mack sent in Cottrell against the veteran Tigers and the youngster got away with his game.

TRAINER OF ATHLETES DIES

Mike Murphy Meets Death Due to Complication of Diseases.

DYING FOR FIFTEEN YEARS

Considered Greatest Track Coach and Developer of Players in Other Branches of Sport America Has Known.

PHILADELPHIA, June 5.--Michael C. Murphy, famous as a developer of athletes, died shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon. Death was due to a complication of diseases. Never a robust man, "Mike" Murphy had been practically dying for the last fifteen years. About eight years ago he was at death's door, but he pulled through and was later able to render great service in his chosen calling.

Murphy was born in Natick, Mass., in 1869 and early in life became prominent as a trainer of athletes. He had charge of the American teams at three Olympic meets, the last being the victorious team of last year.

Many of the best college athletes in America had been developed by Murphy. To his wonderful knowledge of the conditioning of men was due his selection as the trainer in charge of the three foreign invasions, all of which turned out successful.

He had charge of the combined teams of the New York Athletic club and the University of Pennsylvania, which represented America in Olympic games in Paris in 1900; the American team to the London Olympics in 1908 and the American team to the games in Stockholm in 1912. Murphy was also the trainer of the London Athletic club in a dual track meet in 1905.

During his career Murphy was a follower of all kinds of athletics. He became physical director of Yale in 1887 and since then had been considered the greatest coach of track men and trainer of men in other branches of sport that America has ever known.

Before he was 25 years old he became the trainer of John L. Sullivan. After one year with the great pugilist, Murphy conceived the idea of finding a man able to defeat Sullivan. He searched for a year through the wilds of Canada and the lumber camps of the great northwest, but he failed to find the man.

Girls Use Hatpins On Strike Pickets. HAZELTON, Pa., June 5.--Hatpins and screw drivers concealed in their sleeves were used by girl workers at the Gerhardt shirt factory when approached by strike pickets, and asked to walk out. Frank Fitzpatrick was stabbed below the ribs with a hatpin. Miss Hartley Brierly was arrested charged with attacking him and held under $500 bond.

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 5.--A strike of 1,500 marine firemen has been ordered here. A raise of $2.50 to $3 a month is demanded.

PATERSON, N. J., June 5.--Thirty-three strikers and sympathizers were placed on trial here today charged with rioting in connection with the silk strike.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 5.--A general strike in Pennsylvania as a protest against the action of the senate in amending the workmen's compensation bill is being discussed by labor organizations.

EL PASO, Tex., June 5.--Threats to unionize or close every smelter in the southwest and northern Mexico were made here today in a written declaration signed by Charles Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners.

Insane Come to the Rescue of a Keeper. MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 5.--Five insane patients at the Emergency hospital today came to the aid of Dr. R. L. Williams when an insane and enraged patient attacked an orderly and overpowered him.

The orderly, John Thompson, was attacked by Julius Jeswein, and was unconscious when the doctor arrived upon the scene. Five other insane men were watching the attack and enjoying it, but when Dr. Williams ordered them to assist in subduing the assailant, they complied and Jeswein was placed in a straitjacket.

Dark Cell or Church For Refractory Man in the Penitentiary

St. Clair Will Not Say Whether He Has Any Religious Belief, but Simply Refuses to March with the Rest of the Prisoners when they Line up for Church Services.

Warden Fenton Is of the Opinion that a Prisoner at the Penitentiary Cannot Fall Back on the Constitution to Prevent the Authorities from Enforcing Discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

G. A. St. Clair, a convict sent up from Lancaster county refuses to attend religious exercises either of the Protestant or Catholic faith held at the institution.

Now the warden is up against the proposition whether he shall enforce discipline along the lines of church attendance by the convicts.

St. Clair will not say whether he has any religious belief, but simply refuses to march with the rest of the prisoners when they line up for church services. While Warden Fenton is a Catholic, Deputy Warden Harman is a Christian, and Chaplain Johnson a Methodist, nothing has ever been said regarding church beliefs, but the services at the chapel every Sunday have been of the Protestant nature. To give those of the prisoners who are Catholics an opportunity to attend services of their own church Father Moran of the church holds services there every two weeks.

The refractory prisoner claims to be of the Jewish belief, but when Warden Fenton called up one of the rabbi of that church and asked him if there was anything in the services held at the prison which would be against the attendance of St. Clair, he was informed that there was not and that he should be compelled to attend. St. Clair heads his stand on two things, first that he does not want to attend church with a "bunch of hypocrites," and second, that the constitution of the state and nation declares that no person shall be compelled to take any religious belief or attend any religious gathering against his will.

Warden Fenton is of the opinion that a prisoner at the penitentiary cannot fall back on the constitution to prevent the authorities from enforcing discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

Governor Morehead is of the same opinion and has issued an order that St. Clair be required to obey the rules at the penitentiary requiring attendance at public worship. Should he refuse to obey the order it will be the dark cell for St. Clair.

Culls from the Wire. The Illinois state senate advanced a bill appropriating $500,000 for the Panama-Pacific exposition, from second to third reading yesterday.

Members of the Western and American Associations of General Baggage Agents gathered at Grand Springs, Colo., for their annual convention yesterday.

John E. Wilkie, former chief of the United States secret service in Washington, yesterday was elected vice president of the Chicago Railway company.

Robert J. Rubin, convicted recently as head of the "arson trust" was sentenced by Justice Goff at New York City, yesterday, to serve six to ten years in Sing Sing prison.

Proposed changes in constitution and by-laws of most of the time of yesterday's brief session of the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen at San Francisco last night selected Detroit, Mich., as the convention city for 1916. The vote was second choice and Cleveland, O., third.

President Menocal has signed the act re-establishing the civil service law. This law will take effect on July 1, 1913.

Referendum petitions directed against the selection of the recently enacted penal code of Arizona which would deprive the governor of his power to pardon or re-appoint, were placed in circulation yesterday.

Seven Industrial Workers of the World who went on a "hunger strike" in the city jail at Peoria, Ill., and broke up the dishes which were given them, were fined $300 and costs and sent to the workhouse for six months each.

Dark Cell or Church For Refractory Man in the Penitentiary

St. Clair Will Not Say Whether He Has Any Religious Belief, but Simply Refuses to March with the Rest of the Prisoners when they Line up for Church Services.

Warden Fenton Is of the Opinion that a Prisoner at the Penitentiary Cannot Fall Back on the Constitution to Prevent the Authorities from Enforcing Discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

G. A. St. Clair, a convict sent up from Lancaster county refuses to attend religious exercises either of the Protestant or Catholic faith held at the institution.

Now the warden is up against the proposition whether he shall enforce discipline along the lines of church attendance by the convicts.

St. Clair will not say whether he has any religious belief, but simply refuses to march with the rest of the prisoners when they line up for church services. While Warden Fenton is a Catholic, Deputy Warden Harman is a Christian, and Chaplain Johnson a Methodist, nothing has ever been said regarding church beliefs, but the services at the chapel every Sunday have been of the Protestant nature. To give those of the prisoners who are Catholics an opportunity to attend services of their own church Father Moran of the church holds services there every two weeks.

The refractory prisoner claims to be of the Jewish belief, but when Warden Fenton called up one of the rabbi of that church and asked him if there was anything in the services held at the prison which would be against the attendance of St. Clair, he was informed that there was not and that he should be compelled to attend. St. Clair heads his stand on two things, first that he does not want to attend church with a "bunch of hypocrites," and second, that the constitution of the state and nation declares that no person shall be compelled to take any religious belief or attend any religious gathering against his will.

Warden Fenton is of the opinion that a prisoner at the penitentiary cannot fall back on the constitution to prevent the authorities from enforcing discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

Governor Morehead is of the same opinion and has issued an order that St. Clair be required to obey the rules at the penitentiary requiring attendance at public worship. Should he refuse to obey the order it will be the dark cell for St. Clair.

Culls from the Wire. The Illinois state senate advanced a bill appropriating $500,000 for the Panama-Pacific exposition, from second to third reading yesterday.

Members of the Western and American Associations of General Baggage Agents gathered at Grand Springs, Colo., for their annual convention yesterday.

John E. Wilkie, former chief of the United States secret service in Washington, yesterday was elected vice president of the Chicago Railway company.

Robert J. Rubin, convicted recently as head of the "arson trust" was sentenced by Justice Goff at New York City, yesterday, to serve six to ten years in Sing Sing prison.

Proposed changes in constitution and by-laws of most of the time of yesterday's brief session of the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen at San Francisco last night selected Detroit, Mich., as the convention city for 1916. The vote was second choice and Cleveland, O., third.

President Menocal has signed the act re-establishing the civil service law. This law will take effect on July 1, 1913.

Referendum petitions directed against the selection of the recently enacted penal code of Arizona which would deprive the governor of his power to pardon or re-appoint, were placed in circulation yesterday.

Seven Industrial Workers of the World who went on a "hunger strike" in the city jail at Peoria, Ill., and broke up the dishes which were given them, were fined $300 and costs and sent to the workhouse for six months each.

Dark Cell or Church For Refractory Man in the Penitentiary

St. Clair Will Not Say Whether He Has Any Religious Belief, but Simply Refuses to March with the Rest of the Prisoners when they Line up for Church Services.

Warden Fenton Is of the Opinion that a Prisoner at the Penitentiary Cannot Fall Back on the Constitution to Prevent the Authorities from Enforcing Discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

G. A. St. Clair, a convict sent up from Lancaster county refuses to attend religious exercises either of the Protestant or Catholic faith held at the institution.

Now the warden is up against the proposition whether he shall enforce discipline along the lines of church attendance by the convicts.

St. Clair will not say whether he has any religious belief, but simply refuses to march with the rest of the prisoners when they line up for church services. While Warden Fenton is a Catholic, Deputy Warden Harman is a Christian, and Chaplain Johnson a Methodist, nothing has ever been said regarding church beliefs, but the services at the chapel every Sunday have been of the Protestant nature. To give those of the prisoners who are Catholics an opportunity to attend services of their own church Father Moran of the church holds services there every two weeks.

The refractory prisoner claims to be of the Jewish belief, but when Warden Fenton called up one of the rabbi of that church and asked him if there was anything in the services held at the prison which would be against the attendance of St. Clair, he was informed that there was not and that he should be compelled to attend. St. Clair heads his stand on two things, first that he does not want to attend church with a "bunch of hypocrites," and second, that the constitution of the state and nation declares that no person shall be compelled to take any religious belief or attend any religious gathering against his will.

Warden Fenton is of the opinion that a prisoner at the penitentiary cannot fall back on the constitution to prevent the authorities from enforcing discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

Governor Morehead is of the same opinion and has issued an order that St. Clair be required to obey the rules at the penitentiary requiring attendance at public worship. Should he refuse to obey the order it will be the dark cell for St. Clair.

Culls from the Wire. The Illinois state senate advanced a bill appropriating $500,000 for the Panama-Pacific exposition, from second to third reading yesterday.

Members of the Western and American Associations of General Baggage Agents gathered at Grand Springs, Colo., for their annual convention yesterday.

John E. Wilkie, former chief of the United States secret service in Washington, yesterday was elected vice president of the Chicago Railway company.

Robert J. Rubin, convicted recently as head of the "arson trust" was sentenced by Justice Goff at New York City, yesterday, to serve six to ten years in Sing Sing prison.

Proposed changes in constitution and by-laws of most of the time of yesterday's brief session of the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen at San Francisco last night selected Detroit, Mich., as the convention city for 1916. The vote was second choice and Cleveland, O., third.

President Menocal has signed the act re-establishing the civil service law. This law will take effect on July 1, 1913.

Referendum petitions directed against the selection of the recently enacted penal code of Arizona which would deprive the governor of his power to pardon or re-appoint, were placed in circulation yesterday.

Seven Industrial Workers of the World who went on a "hunger strike" in the city jail at Peoria, Ill., and broke up the dishes which were given them, were fined $300 and costs and sent to the workhouse for six months each.

Dark Cell or Church For Refractory Man in the Penitentiary

St. Clair Will Not Say Whether He Has Any Religious Belief, but Simply Refuses to March with the Rest of the Prisoners when they Line up for Church Services.

Warden Fenton Is of the Opinion that a Prisoner at the Penitentiary Cannot Fall Back on the Constitution to Prevent the Authorities from Enforcing Discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

G. A. St. Clair, a convict sent up from Lancaster county refuses to attend religious exercises either of the Protestant or Catholic faith held at the institution.

Now the warden is up against the proposition whether he shall enforce discipline along the lines of church attendance by the convicts.

St. Clair will not say whether he has any religious belief, but simply refuses to march with the rest of the prisoners when they line up for church services. While Warden Fenton is a Catholic, Deputy Warden Harman is a Christian, and Chaplain Johnson a Methodist, nothing has ever been said regarding church beliefs, but the services at the chapel every Sunday have been of the Protestant nature. To give those of the prisoners who are Catholics an opportunity to attend services of their own church Father Moran of the church holds services there every two weeks.

The refractory prisoner claims to be of the Jewish belief, but when Warden Fenton called up one of the rabbi of that church and asked him if there was anything in the services held at the prison which would be against the attendance of St. Clair, he was informed that there was not and that he should be compelled to attend. St. Clair heads his stand on two things, first that he does not want to attend church with a "bunch of hypocrites," and second, that the constitution of the state and nation declares that no person shall be compelled to take any religious belief or attend any religious gathering against his will.

Warden Fenton is of the opinion that a prisoner at the penitentiary cannot fall back on the constitution to prevent the authorities from enforcing discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

Governor Morehead is of the same opinion and has issued an order that St. Clair be required to obey the rules at the penitentiary requiring attendance at public worship. Should he refuse to obey the order it will be the dark cell for St. Clair.

Culls from the Wire. The Illinois state senate advanced a bill appropriating $500,000 for the Panama-Pacific exposition, from second to third reading yesterday.

Members of the Western and American Associations of General Baggage Agents gathered at Grand Springs, Colo., for their annual convention yesterday.

John E. Wilkie, former chief of the United States secret service in Washington, yesterday was elected vice president of the Chicago Railway company.

Robert J. Rubin, convicted recently as head of the "arson trust" was sentenced by Justice Goff at New York City, yesterday, to serve six to ten years in Sing Sing prison.

Proposed changes in constitution and by-laws of most of the time of yesterday's brief session of the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen at San Francisco last night selected Detroit, Mich., as the convention city for 1916. The vote was second choice and Cleveland, O., third.

President Menocal has signed the act re-establishing the civil service law. This law will take effect on July 1, 1913.

Referendum petitions directed against the selection of the recently enacted penal code of Arizona which would deprive the governor of his power to pardon or re-appoint, were placed in circulation yesterday.

Seven Industrial Workers of the World who went on a "hunger strike" in the city jail at Peoria, Ill., and broke up the dishes which were given them, were fined $300 and costs and sent to the workhouse for six months each.

Dark Cell or Church For Refractory Man in the Penitentiary

St. Clair Will Not Say Whether He Has Any Religious Belief, but Simply Refuses to March with the Rest of the Prisoners when they Line up for Church Services.

Warden Fenton Is of the Opinion that a Prisoner at the Penitentiary Cannot Fall Back on the Constitution to Prevent the Authorities from Enforcing Discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

G. A. St. Clair, a convict sent up from Lancaster county refuses to attend religious exercises either of the Protestant or Catholic faith held at the institution.

Now the warden is up against the proposition whether he shall enforce discipline along the lines of church attendance by the convicts.

St. Clair will not say whether he has any religious belief, but simply refuses to march with the rest of the prisoners when they line up for church services. While Warden Fenton is a Catholic, Deputy Warden Harman is a Christian, and Chaplain Johnson a Methodist, nothing has ever been said regarding church beliefs, but the services at the chapel every Sunday have been of the Protestant nature. To give those of the prisoners who are Catholics an opportunity to attend services of their own church Father Moran of the church holds services there every two weeks.

The refractory prisoner claims to be of the Jewish belief, but when Warden Fenton called up one of the rabbi of that church and asked him if there was anything in the services held at the prison which would be against the attendance of St. Clair, he was informed that there was not and that he should be compelled to attend. St. Clair heads his stand on two things, first that he does not want to attend church with a "bunch of hypocrites," and second, that the constitution of the state and nation declares that no person shall be compelled to take any religious belief or attend any religious gathering against his will.

Warden Fenton is of the opinion that a prisoner at the penitentiary cannot fall back on the constitution to prevent the authorities from enforcing discipline and that he has forfeited his rights to protection under the constitution when it conflicts with the enforcement of rules governing the prison.

Governor Morehead is of the same opinion and has issued an order that St. Clair be required to obey the rules at the penitentiary requiring attendance at public worship. Should he refuse to obey the order it will be the dark cell for St. Clair.

Culls from the Wire. The Illinois state senate advanced a bill appropriating $500,000 for the Panama-Pacific exposition, from second to third reading yesterday.

Members of the Western and American Associations of General Baggage Agents gathered at Grand Springs, Colo., for their annual convention yesterday.

John E. Wilkie, former chief of the United States secret service in Washington, yesterday was elected vice president of the Chicago Railway company.

Robert J. Rubin, convicted recently as head of the "arson trust" was sentenced by Justice Goff at New York City, yesterday, to serve six to ten years in Sing Sing prison.

Proposed changes in constitution and by-laws of most of the time of yesterday's brief session of the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen at San Francisco last night selected Detroit, Mich., as the convention city for 1916. The vote was second choice and Cleveland, O., third.

President Menocal has signed the act re-establishing the civil service law. This law will take effect on July 1, 1913.

Referendum petitions directed against the selection of the recently enacted penal code of Arizona which would deprive the governor of his power to pardon or re-appoint, were placed in circulation yesterday.

Seven Industrial Workers of the World who went on a "hunger strike" in the city jail at Peoria, Ill., and broke up the dishes which were given them, were fined $300 and costs and sent to the workhouse for six months each.

Advertisement for Lawrence Barrett cigars. Features a large illustration of a man's face and the text: 'Happy?--Yes! My cigar dealer put me next to a fine mild cigar the other day--and say--he has got the right idea--he says, the tasteless "sumatra" wrapper used on Lawrence Barrett does not interfere with the fine old Santa Clara Cuban tobacco used in the filler. The O. K. Perfecto shape at 10c straight, hits me for--taste--size and style. Distributed to the retail trade by The Perego & Moore Co. DISTRIBUTORS Council Bluffs and Omaha'

Advertisement for GUND'S Peerless BEER. Features an illustration of a beer bottle and the text: 'Keep it in the Cellar--'Twill Be Ready When You Want It. GUND'S Peerless BEER. J. GUND BREWING CO. LA CROSSE WIS. Good Since 1854. W. C. HEYDEN, Mgr. Phone 1 Bell Douglas 621; Automatic A-234. CARL FURTH, Distributor. 718 S. 16th Street, Omaha, Neb. Phone Bell Douglas 624; Automatic A-233'