in the ninth, the New York Americans lost to Depoit in the tenth inning today when Moriarty's single followed Gainer's triple. The score was 6 to 5.

The game abounded in spectacular plays interspersed with much ragged fielding. McConnell was taken from the box in the seventh. The locals fell on Willett for four consecutive singles in the following inning, scoring three runs. In the ninth New York fied it up on Wolter's single, an infield out, a passed ball and a wild pitch. When McConnell was taken out in the seventh the bases were full, with Cobb up. Clark, a green left-hander, made Cobb fly to Hartsell for the third out.
