Trying to Locate Brother—A letter has been received by the police department from Leslie Gordon of Chicago, asking them to try and find his brother, Sidney Gordon, aged 20 years.

Auto Not Safe Place—J. S. Rough of Nebraska, Neb., left his automobile at Thirteenth and Douglas streets yesterday afternoon while he transacted some business near by and when he returned $30 worth of clothing, which he had left in the car, was missing.

Messenger Boys on Strike—Half a dozen boys employed as messengers by the Postal Telegraph company, who went on strike Friday, asking a raise in wages, were discharged by the company yesterday and new boys were hired. The average pay of the boys is $30.

Damaged Tires to Be Sold—The Giant Tire company is offering for sale fifteen pairs of tires which were slightly damaged in the recent fire which destroyed the barns of the Twin City Express company. Manager Morrison says this is the first fire he has had in the five years he has been in business.

Bluffs Team Defeated—The Council Bluffs Young Men's Christian association base ball team was defeated yesterday afternoon by the Omaha Gas company team by the score of 14 to 7. Groh and Underwood operated for the Bluffs squad, while Hull and Shields worked for the Gas company team.

Ankle Broken in Fall—Walter Wheelock, a billposter connected with the Barnum & Bailey circus, fell from a ladder last night and landed squarely on his feet. Both ankles snapped under the sudden strain. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital. Wheelock's home is in Moline, Ill.

Teacher Kicks Her Head—Miss Elizabeth C. Yeats, fourth and fifth grade teacher at Druid Hill school, ripped her hand open with a penknife while attempting to remove a rusty pen from the holder. For half an hour fellow teachers tried to reach a physician and failed. A call for the police surgeon was sent in from a fire house and the police patrol with two officers went out, and Police Surgeon T. T. Harris took six stitches in the hand.

Keat Victim Quickly Mends—At Thirty-fifth avenue and Jackson street yesterday afternoon, a well dressed young man suddenly toppled over. Dr. R. W. Connell answered the call of neighbors and assisted in reviving him. "I won't tell you my name," said he, "because I don't want my mother to know. We had a death in our family recently and she worries enough." After a few moments the young man was able to go his way home. Dr. Connell said that the man suffered only a slight touch of the heat.

Apprehended of a Tracking Woman—Thomas Clarke, a sewing machine salesman, living at 2206 North Twentieth street, was arrested yesterday afternoon and is being detained at police headquarters for investigation. He is said to have entered the home of Mrs. Anna Stewart, 2205 North Twenty-first street, and, while she lay ill in bed, choked and beat her. Detectives Dunn and Kennelly made the arrest, and the case will be turned over to the county attorney's office Monday for further investigation. No explanation is advanced for Clarke's alleged act.

Camp Proves Good Discipline to the High School Lads

The high school cadets have proved that an encampment can be run in an orderly fashion, without all the attending scrapes and rough houses which some encampments have had.

Rigid discipline and hard conscientious work has been the rule in all cases. As a result, this year's camp has finished and developed the finest drilled companies and battalions that have ever been turned out by the school. Along with the companies is a second organization, the band. The band, instructed by George Green, has been splendidly supported by the Board of Education who have purchased more than $1,200 worth of instruments for them.

Men in the ranks have drilled eighteen hours altogether in company formation during the entire encampment. On Monday and Saturday no drills were held. These long drills were necessary because of the short hours at school during the year. Then too, the streets did not permit large formations or extended order drills. Each day there were two company drills, one battalion, one troop parade and one regimental parade or review.

Between each of these drill were rests of not less than thirty minutes. Beside regular drills other kinds of work was necessary to keep the camp polished and free from scrap papers. In the mornings eight at meal, each company cleaned its street, made the beds and arranged the tents in an orderly fashion preparatory for the morning inspection by the commandant during the morning drills when all the men are out of the camp. Captain Stritzinger prohibited the cadets eating in their tents because of the unsanitary condition of having tables in the sleeping quarters. When camp was broken Saturday morning, the entire encampment had to be polished, and all the rubbish collected and burned. With the entire regiment working it took two hours to completely police the grounds.

Friday night again the camp was closed and an entertainment arranged for. Captain Stritzinger gave the cadets the freedom of the camp after the program had been pulled off. He announced that no tape would be sounded until the cadets themselves wanted to go to bed, that they could torment their officers as much as they pleased and that if they found any sport in pulling down tents or throwing water on sleeping occupants to go ahead and do it. And they did. And so with company drills and polishing during the week and the final all night rough house Friday night, the High school cadets have gone through one of the most successful encampments ever held.

KEARNEY STATE NORMAL

Enrollment Promises to Reach Thousand Mark.

The Kearney Normal school opened for the summer quarter on Monday, June 3. Many schools in this section did not close until the first week in June, which made it desirable to open the Normal somewhat later than usual. The first day's registration reached 524; the second day 740, and on Thursday night the enrollment was 817. These figures do not include the pupils of the model schools. It is expected that by Monday evening of next week the 1,000 mark will be reached. The Model Rural schools opened on Wednesday. The Model Graded schools will open Monday of next week.

Mrs. Margaret West of Hayes Center is in charge of the summer department. Superintendent C. P. White of Cambridge is assisting during the session and has four classes. Superintendent Cochran of the Kearney city schools is conducting the work in American history. Miss Ethel Ollis of Ord is assisting Miss Marion Williams in the department of domestic science. Miss Maude Goodwin of Central City is assisting Miss Marion Smith in the art department. Five classes are necessary to accommodate the demand for beginning drawing. Miss Anna Mercer is assisting Mrs. Steadman with the large classes in public school music.

Ward Hardy, chief engineer, has been putting the campus in shape during the last two weeks. The blue grass field has been extended and the boulevard in front of the building has been put in shape for parking.

Miss Cora O'Connell, Miss Agnes Knutzen and Miss Marion Williams will attend the short course in the Columbia Teachers' college the latter part of July and in August.

PERU STATE NORMAL

Summer Activities in Various Departments.

The Glee club begins its summer school work with an unusually large number of good sight readers. Geibel's "March of the Guards" and Wilson's "Pickaninny Lullaby" are being worked up.

Dr. Homer C. Howe acted as toastmaster at the Doane college alumni banquet last Thursday. He rejoices that his name is in the right column of the National Lyceum talent list which recently appeared in The Bee.

Last Saturday the religious organizations of the school gave a reception to the students in the gym. All students wore a slip of paper bearing their names and addresses, and the process of getting acquainted was facilitated thereby. A quartet of Glee club boys sang several numbers. Mrs. Lillian House sang a solo and Harrison Line of Diller gave a short address of welcome to the new students.

The Philomatheans gave a public program last Friday, the big number being a rendition of the farce, "Young Lochinvar," which was given a few weeks ago. Miss Ruby Page Ferguson of the expression department recited a translation from the French drama, "The Violin Maker of Cremona," at chapel on Friday morning.

WAYNE STATE NORMAL

Summer Session Enrollment Steadily Growing.

Twenty-five new registrations were added to the attendance of the school. Charles L. Culler, class of '12, and now director of manual training in the Hartington schools, was a visitor Friday.

John Rockwell is representing the Young Men's Christian association as delegate to the national convention now in session at Estes Park, Colo.

The next number on the lecture course will be a musical by the College Singing girls, assisted by Walter C. Eccles, impersonator. A. E. Winship of Boston will appear on the evening of July 9.

Knox county teachers enrolled in the summer session of the normal, numbering more than fifty, met and elected a full set of officers. They will give a special chapel program in the near future.

As is customary at the opening of the term, a reception was tendered the students by the faculty of the school. The program consisted of an address of welcome by President Conn; piano solo, Mrs. J. T. House; vocal solo, Miss Lulu Wil-

Business Men to Meet With Leaders in Railroad World

An informal luncheon followed by a discussion on how to interest outside industries in Omaha will be held by the industrial committee of the Commercial club, June 20 at which representatives of the various railroad lines have been invited to participate. Such a meeting was planned for March 28 but was indefinitely postponed because of the tornado. These railroad men will attend:

AK-SAR-BEN SHOW CHANGED

Gus Renze Makes Over the Old and Adds New Features.

LAWYERS AND BENSON MONDAY

Hustling Committee is Appointed—Teams Are Out Working for New Members to Swell the Ak-Sar-Ben Lists.

"Our Arabian Knights, or Aladdin's Wonderful Lamp," the show at the Ak-Sar-Ben Den, is to be made over. Gus Renze, maker of all the apparatus for initiation and the theatrical production, has started to work on the revision and will have it entirely changed except for the best features of the show a week from tomorrow night. There will be some changes in the entertainment when the lawyers and citizens of Benson go there tomorrow night. The actors, singers and stage hands have been to the Den several times recently for rehearsals on the new lines and new business. There will be additional rehearsals this week so that a new show will be ready for next week.

A special entertainment has been planned for the lawyers tomorrow night. New features have been added to the production all through for the benefit of the members of the bar. There will be a short speaking program at the end of the show in which some prominent members of the Douglas County Bar association will be heard.

Benson, too, will come in for its share of special entertainment. The prominent citizens of the suburban city will take part in the initiation and the speaking program. With the addition of many Benson citizens the roll of the knights will go above the 1,500 mark.

The hustling committee has been fast at work since it organized for its share of special entertainment. The committee has been divided into teams which will work for tickets. The members of the committee are:

H. Mahaffey, H. O. Benford, Ed O'Brien, E. L. Potter, V. D. Dermody, Arthur Lemon, Ben Gallagher, Harry Judson, Paul Beaton, Guy Cramer, Harry S. Byrne, Harry Ryan, E. Kiplinger, Robert Burns, L. H. Boreheim, Dan Whitney, Bert Minor, W. S. Stryker, H. F. Meyers, Walter Sherwood, Carroll Lord, Ronald Patterson, Thomas Davis, H. Ehrenport, Randa Woodbridge, L. B. Bassell, J. J. Pfeiffer, Charles Ward, Walter Rosicky.

The following teams have been made: No. 1—Benford, Miner and Whitney. No. 2—Potter, Meyers and Mahaffey. No. 3—O'Brien, Lord and Pfeiffer. No. 4—Rosicky and Ehrenport.

The guests at the Den a week from Monday night will be Springfield, Louisville, Richfield and Gretna.

MRS. HALSEY DESCRIBES MISSION SUMMER SCHOOL

Mrs. W. N. Halsey, general secretary of the Summer School of Missions, which will convene at the University of Omaha June 22, is most enthusiastic over the outlook for the meeting.

In seeking to bring ex-Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks to Omaha, Mrs. Halsey wrote him as follows:

The Summer School of Missions has become one of the largest municipal organizations in Omaha, having a class enrollment in 1912 of about 500, and an estimated evening attendance of perhaps 500. It is affiliated with six other national schools of missions, Northfield, Boulder, Los Angeles, etc. The school is becoming an influence in civic improvement; in the better understanding of the great questions before the public, and in promoting the solutions of the vital problems of the day. It is practically an annual "Christian citizenship conference."

Cooperating with such civic organizations as the Young Women's Christian association, the Young Men's Christian association, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Omaha Woman's club and the laymen's missionary committee. It represents forty federated churches of the city of Omaha. It is philanthropic, not money-making, in its purpose. The dominant idea is "service" and the women of Omaha who are promoting it are giving liberally of their time and money, not only for the uplift of the city, but for nation-wide, world-wide evangelization.

Charles W. Fairbanks will speak Tuesday evening, June 2, on "A World Journey," a lecture resulting from his observation of nations during a recent tour.

Warning to Beer Drinkers. Read every word in this opinion. Remember it is not our statement, but the deliberate opinion of a great scientist working for perfection in beer. Pure beer is food and tonic. G. Beck (Bierbrauer, 1881, No. 8) finds that "beer in light bottles deteriorates more quickly than beer in dark bottles when exposed to the direct sunlight." His tests were continued for three weeks and proved that beer in light bottles had acquired a very disagreeable, nasty taste and flavor and was unfit for consumption. The Brown Bottle with Schlitz is not a fad. Its use is based on scientific principles. We have adopted every idea, every invention, every innovation that could make for purity. Schlitz is sent to you in Brown Bottles to protect its purity from the brewery to your glass. Why don't you make Schlitz in Brown Bottles your regular beer? Phones, Doug. 1597; Ind.
