

CLOSMAN PUZZLES LINCOLN

Southpaw Defeats Knapp by Score of Two to One.

ROURKES ALL IN FINE FORM

Pitcher Allows But Five Hits, Four of Which Come in First Three Innings, and Fans Six Men.

Epsom Closman, Pa Rourke's southpaw, completely mystifted Hughle Jones' Antelopes in the second game of the series yesterday and won a tight pitchers' battle from "Levy" Knapp by a 2 to I

Clossman was in fine fettle, appearing to better advantage than at any other time this season. His cross-fire was a pussie to the straggling Salt Creekers. and his curves were breaking in any direction desired. He allowed but five hits, GRIZZLIES GO THE TWELFTH four of which came in the first three innings. He fanned six men and was going stronger than ever when the game

Rightfully the 'Lopes should not have had a single run. The sun got in Kane's eyes in the opening inning when he was trying to sight Cobb's popup and when he picked the ball of the ground the Georgian was on the keystone sack and Lloyd, who had been loafing at second, had crossed the rubber.

Rourkes Show No Weak Spots.

Omaha played brilliant ball in the field and ran bases well. Shestak, the second string catcher, was pressed into service in the left garden, Coyle being out of the game. Neff again filled "Skipper" Bill's shoes at second and he handled nine chances without a semblance of an error and at the bat slammed out two hits in two times up.

In the sixth inning the visitors tried hard to tle Omaha's score when Lloyd opened with a stinging double to right. The next man up sacrificed and Lloyd rested on the corner. Cobb sent an easy one to Neff, who, instead of going after Cobb, slipped the ball to Johnson, who

In the third inning brilliant playing by the Omaha infield staved off a run. Knapp opened with a single and Lloyd sacrificed, Kane running almost to the plate to get the bunt, while Neff covered first, and by a good stop of Kane's throw got the runner.

Omaha got its first run in the fourth inning, and it was the tally which deadout and Kane lifted a high one to Cole while Closman scored on the sacrifice.

Omaha had a good chance to register in the seventh inning but a squeeze play failed. Closman opened with a double to the right field boards, it being his second hit of the game. Thomason sacrificed. The squeeze play was then attempted, but Knapp threw a high ball and Justice could not touch it, although he reached far enough for it. Baker caught Closman sliding into the bag. The score: OMAHA.

Gianta Defeat Reds. CINCINNATI, June 19.-New York won CINCINNATI, June 19.—New York won an exciting game from Cincinnati here today, 3 to 7, and thereby made a clean sweep of the series of four games. New York managed to bunch hits and took advantage of the opposing pitcher's wildness and strors by Cincinnati in two innings and tallied four runs in each. Snodgrass' triple with three men on bases in the second was easily the batting feature of the contest, although Shafer, Bescher, Tinker, Marsans and Groh also did fine work at bat. Mathewson appeared to be at his best up to the eighth inning when he weakened but had enough left to stave off defeat.
