TOKIO, June 22.—The late Emperor Meiji, who reigned during the "Era of Enlightenment" was averse to photography and electricity. He never sat for his portrait, and he never allowed an electric light to be installed in the residential part of the palace...

In many other ways the new emperor shows modern tendencies. He was formerly an ardent bicyclist, but since taking on the dignity of monarch he has abandoned the bicycle in favor of high power automobiles. He is a crack billiard player and has had two beautiful billiard rooms installed in the palace...

To Change Residence. The emperor and empress, who have been living in the Aoyama palace, will soon occupy the Chiyoda palace, as their main and permanent residence.

To further the growing industrial activity of the Japanese settlers in the Hawaiian islands, arrangements have been made to found a Japanese bank at Honolulu. The objects is to promote trade relations between Japan and Hawaii...

On the other hand, the attempts of Japanese to develop a fishing industry along the coast of Mexico appear to have been a failure. The Japanese Fishing guild, organized some time ago in Mexico, has decided to abandon its fishery business because of the very meager results.

View of Land Bill. During the negotiations between Japan and the United States over the land bill a majority of the conservative Japanese were not greatly impressed with the argument that the land bill questions were economic rather than racial in their nature.

Editor's Outlook. After arguing that what he terms the "white man's clique" would not be destroyed by the possible conversion to Christianity of the brown men of the world, Mr. Tokutomi goes on to state that the weak attitude of the brown race is accountable for the manner in which they are today regarded by the white, and declares the time has come to put an end to this white arrogance.

IOWA STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION BUSILY AT WORK UPON ROADS. (Continued from Page One.) tract for the steel work of the cell house is soon to be let. The convicts have been doing the stone work for a number of years. The state has not made use of the "solitary" for punishment, as has been the custom in the federal and other prisons, but will have cells where men can be kept entirely away from all others.

Burlington to Make Extension. It is now a foregone conclusion that the Burlington railroad company will extend its Indiana branch in to Des Moines and run through trains from that city to St. Joseph and Kansas City. It is now probable that the gap of nine miles between Indianola and Norwalk, on the Osceola branch, will be built in and enter the capital city from that direction.

WELL KNOWN REPUBLICANS TO BE AT FAIRBANKS DINNER. Among the latest requests received by Amos Thomas for reservations for the dinner to be given at the Paxton hotel Monday evening in honor of former Vice President Fairbanks are those of James D. Gage of Dunning, former attorney general; C. W. Kibler of Kearney, George H. Gaten of New-nah Grove, H. B. Webb of Creston, Orlando Zell of Avoea, John D. Haskell of Wakefield, P. H. Bell of Silver Creek, James N. Clark of Hastings, Addison Watt, secretary of state, Lincoln, and E. R. McFarlin, lieutenant governor, Lincoln. Requests for reservations come in constantly Saturday, both to Mr. Thomas and to Gould Dietz.

to be given food, shelter or entertainment. No veteran should bring to Gettysburg any member of his family or other person for whom he will have to obtain food and quarters outside the camp unless all arrangements therefor have first been made for them before he or they come to Gettysburg.

No veteran will be permitted to bring a trunk into camp, his baggage being restricted to that which he can easily carry himself. The care of it will rest with the individual.

Four Days' Program. The program for the four big days is, briefly, as follows: July 1—Veterans' day. Appropriate exercises, under the joint direction of the Pennsylvania commission and the commanders-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Confederate Veterans.

July 2—Military day. Under the direction of the chief of staff of the United States army. July 3—Civil day. Under the direction of the governor of Pennsylvania, presiding and participated in by the governors and mayors, if they so desire. Addresses and music.

July 4—National day. Patriotic exercises, orations, with fireworks in the evening. The exercises will be held in a great tent, one of the largest in the United States, capable of accommodating about 15,000 persons.

Reports indicate that rain Friday night and this morning covered practically all of Iowa, and following a two weeks' drought it was especially welcome. The crops everywhere had commenced to suffer greatly from the dryness. In this city 1.5 inches of rain fell and the major part of it came slowly so as to do the most good. Lightning did considerable damage in the suburbs of the city.

Iowa Manufacturers to Meet. The annual convention of the Iowa Manufacturers' association will be held in Keokuk for three days commencing August 6. The program has not been announced nor completed, but Governor Clarke has proposed to be present and the members will take a trip over the new Mississippi river dam, guided by Engineer Cooper. An effort is to be made to get all the local associations of manufacturers to become a part of the state association.

New Dental Examiner. Governor Clarke has appointed C. L. Topfiff of Decatur to be a member of the state dental examining board for a five-year period; also has appointed E. C. Wolff of Avoea to be a deputy veterinary surgeon.

Going After Elopement Daughter. Frank Hubbert, business man of Colwell, called on Attorney General Casson yesterday and sought to secure his aid in finding an elopement daughter. Hubbert claims that she ran away with a machinist named Myers, who left a note saying he was going to take her to California and give her a musical education. Myers is 35 and leaves a wife and the woman is 27.

In Favor of a Leprosarium. Secretary G. H. Sumner of the State Board of Health returned today from a week at Minneapolis, where he attended the convention of state and provincial boards of health and other meetings of medical men. It was at this meeting that there was for the first time serious discussion of the need of a place under government control for the care of leprosy patients, and steps were taken that may result in such an institution. Dr. Sumner explained his method of getting rid of a leprosy patient found in Iowa.

Fall of Elevator. The elevator in the Equitable building in Des Moines fell Saturday and the head of a young girl was crushed. The elevator had been condemned and was not to be overloaded, but contained twelve persons at the time. The building is twelve stories high.

Utile Land to State

F. H. Hubbell has closed a contract with the state of Iowa for the sale of all of his property in the capitol extension grounds. The state pays a total of $48,000 for a total of 630 front feet, or about $76 a front foot. This price includes the improvements on the various lots and the state considers that the price is reasonable. It is the largest single purchase to be made in buying the new ground.

Contempt Charge Against Eastwood

O'NEILL, Neb., June 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Contempt and perjury charges have grown out of a damage suit for $47,000 filed in district court here against the Burlington railroad by Walter A. Quimby.

The suit was progressing in court as ordinarily when attorneys for the railroad alleged they had affidavits that would prove one of the leading witnesses of the plaintiff, E. J. Eastwood and his wife of Deadwood, guilty of perjury by his own admission under oath. The case was stopped and dismissed and contempt and perjury proceedings instituted by court order. The contempt case was adjourned until July 7, to permit Judge Dickson to hold court in Brown county, where a murder trial has been set.

Peterson was severely injured, having one leg broken, besides being hurt internally. It is thought that he will recover.

"MOTORWOMEN" AT PHOENIX ACT AS STRIKEBREAKERS

PHOENIX, Ariz., June 22.—Three "motorwomen" operated street cars in the role of strikebreakers here tonight, and for three hours kept at their posts in spite of disorderly conduct on the part of street crowds.

When the motorwomen employed on the street railway system walked out at 6 o'clock the women promptly offered their services as strikebreakers and were accepted. Until 9 o'clock they were at the struggles, but at that time the cars were run to the barn. The strikers protested against a foreman and when the company refused to hear their complaints they struck.
