

CHAMPIONS MAKE IT TWO

Red Sox Defeat New Yorks in Double-Header.

SECOND CLOSE UP TO EIGHTH

Boston Scores Four Runs and Breaks the Tie, Winning, Six to Four—Result in First, Ten to Three.

BOSTON, June 27.—Boston took both games of a double-header with New York this afternoon by scores of 6 to 3 and 6 to 4. The visitors secured but four hits off Leonard in the first contest, while Keating was batted hard in the fifth inning, during which Boston scored several runs. Leonard did not give a pass.

The second game was close up to the eighth inning, when Boston scored four runs and broke the tie. Fisher being relieved by McConnell when Boston had men on second and third with one out. McConnell passed Gardner, filling the bases, and singles by Engle and Ball followed, which, with a double steal by the two latter players, netted Boston four runs. Three singles off Bedient gave New York two runs in the sixth inning. A base on ball, Peckpaugh's triple and a wild throw by Ball gave the visitors two more tallies in the ninth. Score, first game:

for their runs. Chase drew a pass in the fourth, and Collins and Bodie followed with singles, which ignited one run. Eastery batted for Rath and walked and on Schalk's out Collins scored. Another run came in the fifth when Bodie walked and scored after Lord singled. Chase sacrificed and Collins made a sacrifice fly. Cicotte opened for Chicago and pitched a fine game until the seventh inning, when hits by Jacobson, Carisch and Lajoie, who batted for Falkenberg, and Johnston netted two runs and forced Cicotte's retirement. Russell came to the rescue. He had difficulty holding the visitors safe. The visitors played in improved form owing to the Birmingham-Johnson conference, which resulted in Jackson's reinstatement.

Turner replaced Lajoie at second and played a creditable game. Jackson celebrated his return to the game by making two hits and drawing two bases on balls in four times at bat. Score:

Umpire Segrist Has Bad Day at His Work

The work of Umpire George Segrist in yesterday's game was the worst seen on the home grounds this season and undoubtedly cost Omaha the game. It was one of his concrete decisions in the fourth inning that enabled the Grizzlies to score the first two runs, and which were just enough to win the game.

With a man on first and one down, Fisher came to bat. He had two balls and two strikes when Fugate put one over which cut the plate squarely across the center. Segrist called it a ball. Fugate laid the next one over and Fisher clouted it out for a two-bagger. Wolfgang, the pitcher, was the next man up and was an easy out. If Segrist had been able to discern a ball from a strike not a run would have scored, but as it was two runs came in.

Another decision of his which cut Omaha out of at least one run came in the fourth inning when Omaha had the bases full. Neff had three balls and one strike. Wolfgang heaved one on which Segrist motioned Neff to go down to first and then reversed his decision, sending Neff back to the plate and the little outfielder missed the third strike.

Segrist is also the umpire on whom Lee Quillin worked his trick in the game the day previous when he concealed the ball and pushed Grubb off the sack, blocked him from getting back and then called Segrist's attention to it, at which his ribs called Grubb out.

There Never Was a Time Like Now! They WILL Go! MUST Go! Says Brooks!

BROOKS IS CUTTING CLOTHING PRICES NOW!

Brooks Suits are good beneath the surface, too. They are made up, trimmed and fitted QUITE a little better than seems NECESSARY. Pick up a Brooks Suit and SEE!

SUITS! Men's Suits! Brooks wants to say "Au Revoir" to all the garments he hasn't sold—garments that were left on his hands because of a chilly spring! Admirable suits, mind you, the kind that fits as though a tailor was on the job, the kind that "holds together in any weather"—but they must go—WILL go!

$13.50 Takes Any $20 Suit in the House—Mind You, ANY Suit

$16.50 Takes Suits That Brought $25: Any Suit Marked at $25.00

$19.50 Secures Choice of Any Swagger $30 Suit—No Restrictions

$22.50 Secures $35 or $40 Suits—"The Best in the House"

"Brooks" spent hundreds of dollars to advertise the fact that he WOULDN'T—COULDN'T—wait until after the "Fourth of July" to axe prices. Brooks put the prices DOWN—chopped 'em down with his little axe; sold a LOT of the suits—yet—there are some left—too many for this late in the season—but the rarest of values if you want a SUIT. And EVERY garment is in the selling; NONE hidden; don't wait; you'll do BETTER now.

Lungs Affected By Rheumatism

Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Aneurism Often Directly the Results of Rheumatic Blood.

If you have a persistent, nagging bronchial cough beware of cough remedies. They are merely local in action, and if they do relieve it is the narrowest of relief. What you require is a blood purifier, a searching antiseptic that removes from the circulation the acid poisons that by their reflexes attack all weakened, susceptible spots and thus create local symptoms.

The very best remedy known is Swift's Pure Specific. You will find it on sale in any drug store at $1.00 per bottle. It goes straight into the blood, becomes an internal blood bath, wonderfully stimulates the increased strength of the system, cures all the local fever spots and irritations, increases appetite, you take on flesh and feel a wonderful sense of renewed strength.

Hundreds of people worried beyond control at cough, pains in the chest, sore throat and constant expectoration of thick mucus have experienced the most wonderful change after using S. S. S. All doubt and apprehension is gone, those peculiar pains and aches vanish, there follows a period of most intense refreshing and that worst fear were based entirely upon a mistaken notion that cough and chest pains come from the lungs. These are rheumatic conditions, and you will quickly realize it after using S. S. S. for a few days. Get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day at the drug store and then say good-bye to all those pains that have worried you.

The Puma That Nearly Killed a Woman Trainer. The puma shown in this picture is a part of the menagerie attached to Bostock's outfit now stationed at Liverpool. A few days ago while being put through his paces by Mile. Louise, his trainer, the puma suddenly attacked her. Before attendants could reach the unfortunate young woman the animal had torn her arms and body, creating wounds that will disfigure her for life. The woman trainer managed to protect her face. At first it was thought she would die, but she is slowly recovering.
