GIANTS IN THE FIRST PLACE

Defeat of Phillies in Ten-Inning Game Gives Them Lead.

CONTEST IS ECITING ONE

Marked by Numerous Bits of Bad Playing and by Many Brilliant Catches and Stops; Shafer is Benched.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—New York won the opening game of the series here today in ten innings by 11 to 10 and thereby captured first place in the National league race. The contest was filled with exciting incidents, being marked by numerous bits of bad playing and a number of brilliant catches and stops.

The errors of the home players were more costly than those of the visitors. A muff by Magee and a fumble by Paskert in the fourth inning contributed three runs to New York, and Doolan made three of his four errors in the fifth and seventh sessions, which assisted the visitors to some of their seven runs in these periods. Four of Philadelphia's runs were largely the result of misplays on the part of the visiting fielders.

Phillies Take Lead.
Philadelphia took a lead of 5 to 0 in the first three innings by piling up six hits with a fumble by Snodgrass. The home players made two errors in the first, but Seaton got out of trouble by striking out Doyle and Merkle. In the fourth, Magee's muff, three hits and Paskert's fumble gave the visitors three runs. McCormick, acting as a pinch hitter, drove in two of the tallies. Wilts went to the rubber in the fourth. New York took the lead in the fifth on two passes, a single by Fletcher, Murray's sacrifice fly, Meyer's double and an error by Doolan. The home team tied the score in this inning on Lohert's infield single, Wilts's wild throw and Lohert's steal home. Runners by Meyer and Snodgrass, a pair of passes and two errors by Doolan gave New York four more runs in the seventh. The home team scored two runs in the same session on a fumble by Doyle, Magee's single and Cravath's double. Mathewson then took Wilts's place. Cravath scored from second base when the plate was left unguarded after Doyle got Doolan's grounder and beat him runner to first base.

Shafer Benched.
Shafer was benched in the eighth inning, which was pitched by Chalmers, for disputing a decision. St. second base place was taken by Herzog. Alexander pitched the last two innings. In the tenth Snodgrass beat out an infield grounder, took second on Burns' out-and scored the winning run on Herzog's single to left field. Score:

Bruker Batted Out of Box.
BROOKLYN, June 30.—The return of the Brooklyn after a month's absence drew out a big crowd, but was otherwise disappointing. The Bostonians knocked Bruker out of the box in the fourth inning and was getting to Wagner when Callahan was sent in to bat for him. Allen was hit hard in the eighth, when two doubles, two singles, a base and a wild pitch sent over three runs. Six hits sent Bruker to the club house in the fourth, the visitors piling up five runs. Perdus was effective. Score:

Reds Lose to Cards.
CINCINNATI, June 30.—St. Louis knocked Packard out of the box in the second inning and scored enough runs off him to win the first game of the series from Cincinnati today. The Cards, who succeeded Packard, pitched fair ball, but was taken out to allow Devore to run for him in the seventh. Inning Harter yielded only one hit in the two innings he was in the box. Salee pitched left-handed ball in all but one inning. This was in the seventh, when Cincinnati made four hits, two of them for three bases, and scored three runs. Cincinnati made twenty-one assists.

Magee was ordered out of the game by Umpire Brennan in the fourth inning, for disputing a decision. With two men out and Huggins on first base, Magee hit to center for what appeared to be a certain triple. Huggins came all the way home, but in rounding second Magee cut short the bag. He was tagged out after he reached third and Brennan refused to allow Huggins' run to count. Magee excommunicated so violently that Brennan ordered him to the club house. Score:

Quickly Rids Face of Tired, Careworn Look

(From The Home Doctor.)
Fear, worry, anger, pain, pleasure, all emotions, mean work for the facial muscles and the myriad of sensitive nerves about them. These muscles and nerves are never at rest even during sleep. Many faces as a consequence are constantly tired—and look it. Yet few take proper care of this condition, so important to one's appearance and comfort. It's easy to put a tired face to rest, and remarkable benefits result. Good paraffin plastid jelly, found in any drug store, works real wonders when spread over the face and allowed to dry. It holds the muscles immovable, at the same time stimulating circulation in the tired tissue. Flabby muscles while resting are being strengthened. A natural pink glow, more youthful expression, improved facial contour, are immediately observed. The rejuvenating appearance lasts for many hours. Really, the results are permanent to an extent, and are added to with each successive treatment. Paraffin plastid jelly is perfectly harmless and may therefore be used as often as desired. It should be kept on about 15 minutes to an hour, then removed with cold water. The resultant feeling of rest and relief is truly wonderful.—Adv.
