OMAHA MAKES CLEAN SWEEP

Takes All Three Games of Series from Sioux City Team.

WINDS UP SEVEN TO THREE

Six Runs in Eighth Inning Put Game on Ice and Change Outlook for the Indian Players.

SIoux CITY, Ia., July 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Once more the baseball team that sails under the name of Omaha toyed with the Sioux City bunch and in an eighth inning batting beat the Indians, 7 to 3. It was the same old story for the locals. A three-run lead annexed in the first and second rounds and Wheatley's pitching in the best of form and then the eighth-inning blowoff.

For seven innings Omaha got just one look in. This occurred in the fourth, when with one down, Johnson was hit by a pitched ball, Congalton singled and Johnson tallied on Neff's double over left field fence.

In the meantime the locals got their usual fine start. Hits by Craig, who was back on his old job in right field, and Smith gave them a fine chance. Clarke flew out, but Davidson singled. An error in left field permitted Craig to score. Smith was caught at the plate on a close decision and Manager Clarke, in a desperate outburst, told Umpire Anderson that he would throw him in the river if he pulled any more raw stuff.

Two more were added to the local string in the second, when Burns led off with a hot triple over right and scored on a single by Cypert. Vann singled, but was forced by Wheatley on a play which permitted Cypert to score.

Peters then took a brass and the locals could do nothing more than get men on the bases occasionally during the remainder of the game.

In the eighth, Thomason began the trouble by walking. Justice singled and Thomason scored on an error, which kept Kane live at first. Kane had attempted a sacrifice. At this juncture the prize pitcher of the Sioux staff was jerked and Esal, one of the new stories from Pittsburg essayed to save the day.

Johnson, however, drew a walk, Congalton singled, scoring Justice. Neff was slammed by a pitched ball, forcing Cypert, who had been on base, to score. Kane home, Grubb then singled, scoring two more. He stole second to add to the fun and immediately after Wallace fanned Peters singled, scoring Neff. Thomason flew out and Justice forced Peters. Score:

McLoughlin Wins from Doust in Easy Fashion

WIMBLEDON, England, July 2.—Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco, by defeating Stanley N. Doust, the Australian Davis cup captain in the final round of the all-England lawn tennis singles championship today, won the right to challenge A. F. Wilding of New Zealand, the title holder. The match will be played here on Friday. McLoughlin beat Doust three straight sets.

The youthful American had it much his own way throughout the match, which was played before 5,000 spectators this afternoon in brilliant weather. Doust, however, at times by a supreme effort, succeeded in giving a good exhibition. McLoughlin made a good beginning by winning the first game to love with four consecutive services, Doust being unable to make any attempt to return. The Australian then neutralized his service, which the American found to soft for his liking, but coming more up to the net, McLoughlin took the next three games and established a lead of 4 to 1. Doust then managed to bring the score to 4-2 on his service by clever net work but after this the Australian had very little chance against the American's placid and hard hitting.

Doust began the second net well with a love game, and after the American had won the next game with his unbeatable service, the Australian picked up another love game. He was now playing with more confidence, but although he established a lead of three games to two, he could not maintain it against his opponent's service. The American was leading 5-3 when Doust made another recovery and pulled up to 5-4, but it was a hopeless effort, as the American easily took the winning game on his service.

The third set also opened well for the Australian, who, after taking the first game, won on the American's service for the first time after a fiercely contested game, in which Doust was called three times, and then winning the third game to love, giving the Australian a lead of 2-0. Matters now changed, however, and McLoughlin, winning three games in succession by wonderful mid-court kills, drew a level at four all. Doust took the next game, but failed to gain the set, McLoughlin winning two games in succession, Doust double-faulting his own service and the American then winning on his service.

The English team to defend the Dwight F. Davis international lawn tennis trophy is to be composed of J. C. Parks, H. Rohrer Barrett, C. P. Dixon and A. W. Gore. The committee of the lawn tennis association made the selections here this afternoon.
