FINANCIAL FLURRY IN PITTSBURGH ENDS WITHIN SINGLE DAY

Run on Savings Bank Abates After Kuhn Brothers Resign from the Directorate.

ALL QUIET AT OTHER BANKS Proposed Meeting of Clearing House is Found Unnecessary.

CLOSED BANK WAS MISMANAGED Department of Justice Will Look Into Methods of Kuhn Bros.

DEPOSITORS WILL BE PAID Bank's Capital Stock and Surplus Amounting to More Than Five Million Dollars Entirely Wiped Out.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 8.—Pittsburgh's one-day flurry in financial circles caused by the bank failure of yesterday apparently was a matter of history as soon today. The failure of the First-Second National bank of Pittsburgh and the First National bank of McKeesport with the subsequent receivership for the American Water Works and Guarantee company and the banking firm of J. S. and W. R. Kuhn company, who were dominant factors in the former institutions, it was established by noon today would have no deleterious effect upon other financial institutions.

The run on the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, a Kuhn institution, which started yesterday, seemed to abate shortly after the announcement that J. S. and W. R. Kuhn had resigned from the presidency of the bank.

Kuhns Resign from Directorate. J. S. and W. R. Kuhn today resigned as president and vice president of the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, at which a run is being directed.

The following officers were elected: W. J. Jones, president; L. M. Ostermer, vice president; A. N. Vestley, secretary and treasurer.

McKEESPORT BANK FORMALLY CLOSED. PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 8.—The First National bank of McKeesport, controlled by J. S. and W. R. Kuhn, which was closed by the directors yesterday, today was formally closed by order of the comptroller of the currency at Washington.

Prosecutions Will Follow. WASHINGTON, July 8.—John Skilton Williams, assistant secretary of the treasury, who represented Secretary McAdoo at the closing of the Pittsburgh First-Second National bank today, declared that the institution had been "seriously mismanaged and the extent of the mismanagement would be determined by the Department of Justice."

Published Report Wrong. Officials now are giving particular attention to the discrepancy between the sworn report of the bank to the comptroller of the currency on June 4, and the financial statements published in the Pittsburgh newspapers. The report to the comptroller showed nearly $5,000,000 in discounts or borrowed money, but that item was omitted from the published statement. The National Bank act requires that such items be included.
