BOOSTERS TAKE ALL THREE

Musser Holds the Rourkes to Three Hits Before Sunday Crowd.

OMAHA USES THREE PITCHERS

Rourkes Continuously Get Men on Bases, but Are Unable to Boost Them Around to the Home Plate.

Musser mussed up Omaha's chances of taking one game of the series from Frank labell's Hoosters when he pitched a three-hit game yesterday, holding the Rourkes to one lone count while Des Moines registered eight runs, making a rlean sweep of the three games.

Musser did not pitch such a wonderful game as one would judge by a casual glance at the base hit column. The new Isbell hurler passed nine Rourke batters and "beaned" three of them, but even with this handleap the Omaha bunch could get but one man over.

When Omaha would get men on bases as they did in every inning, they could not get the necessary hit to slip some counters over. In the seventh frame the Rourkes got the bases full, but a neat double play put the scoring machine on Good fielding on Omaha's part kept the score down as low as it was. In the second inning a double play shut off a run, and in the third "Bunk" Congalton made a pretty peg to the plate after catching Jones' high fly and threw Breen out as he was sliding into the rubber.

Each Score in First. The game started out with each team making a run in the opening round. With one down Hahn poled a double to center. Hunter sent one back of first and Glavenich covered the bag, but Congalton held the ball long enough to allow Breen to score from second. Omaha got one when Coyle walked and took second when Musser threw wild to first to catch him napping. Kane fol lowed with a double and Coyle registered. The Boosters took the lead in the third Hahn singled after one was gone. Breen and Hunter were walked, filling the bases. Applegate was sent in to relieve Glavenich and walked Leonard, forcing Hahn home. Jones then retired the side by batting into a double.

Breen was bit by a pitched ball in the fifth and took second on Hunter's sacrifice. Leonard singled, scoring Breen.

when Congalton let the ball go between his legs, Andreas halting at third. Hal made his third single and Andreas score the last run of the game. Score:

White started to pitch for the locals and was ineffective in the pinches. The fielding behind him was so ragged that the visitors managed to get men on bases each inning he was on the slab. Smith replaced White and pitched a fine game, not allowing a hit. Chicago's lone run was made by bunching hits. Moeller's home run in the fourth was a feature.
