ECHOES OF THE ANTE-ROOM

Banner Lodge of Fraternal Union Celebrates Anniversary.

PROMINENT ODD FELLOW DIES

Brotherhood of American Yeomen Holds Enthusiastic Meeting

Banner lodge No. 11, Fraternal Union of America, celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of the lodge Thursday evening at Myrtle hall by producing a one-act drama, "Days of '48."

At about 9:30 a pack train was seen trailing its way over the mountains, and when the rays of the departing sun cast a red halo over the earth, the party halted, pitched their tents, built a campfire and prepared their evening meal.

While they were thus engaged an Indian scout was seen lurking here and there, looking for the palafax. He then departed without his presence being observed. Reporting what he had seen to the chief, impersonated by C. E. Holliday, captain of the drill team of Fontanelle tribe, Redmen lodge, a band of warriors rushed in, surrounded the camp and took the pioneers prisoners.

The chief then summoned his warriors to a war dance around the captives when, from out in the clear night air, there arose a voice of Swift Eagle, impersonated by Miss Daisy A. Higgins, contralto. This did not seem, however, to appease the wrath and vengeance of the Indians, who again took up their war-dances. Swift Eagle again implored for mercy for the whites by rendering a beautiful Indian lullaby. This was sung in such telling effect that the chief called away his warriors and stole back over the mountains in the night, leaving the palafax captives to pursue their journey. Refreshments were then served and tango dancing "without the tang" fringed the evening's entertainment.

This was the first of a series of entertainments to be given by Banner lodge to its members and friends, and was voted by all to be a great success. E.
Frank Wagener was master of ceremonies. The next entertainment will be given on Thursday evening, April 2, the nature of which, as before, will not be made public until the guests arrive.

Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Judge J. E. Morrison, a past grand master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Nebraska, died at his home in Kearney a week ago yesterday from blood poisoning caused by a blister on the bottom of his foot. Judge Morrison was well known throughout Nebraska, where he had practiced law for a number of years. The body was taken to Glenwood, Ia., for interment.

day evening.

open meeting for all third degree Odd Fellows last Thursday evening. E. A.
Benson, George A. Hagney and S. K.
Greenleaf appeared as the program, which was interspersed with several musical numbers. The evening's entertainment was closed with a supper in the banquet room.

Thursday while cranking his automobile.

last Tuesday night, will be held from Brotherhood, of which the deceased was a charter member. All Odd Fellows are invited to attend the funeral.

has sent out a proclamation calling upon all lodges to fittingly celebrate the ninety-fifth anniversary of the institution of the order on April 23 of this year.

Benson lodge, No. 211, will have work in the first degree tomorrow night.

Brotherhood of American Yeomen.
One of the most enthusiastic meetings of the year was held at the Yeomen lodge No. 104, at Baright hall, Wednesday evening, when a class of nineteen candidates were taken in. Next Wednesday No. 104 will give another dance, to which the public is cordially invited.
Priestman's orchestra will furnish the music.

Henderson homestead No. 152, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, has changed the meeting nights from Friday to Tuesday evening. This homestead will not meet once a week, instead of twice a month and is located in their new quarters at Mueller's hall, Seventeenth and Victory streets. State Manager C. Knox, who was in Omaha recently, has appointed several new deputies to build up this homestead. Indications point to a lively increase in membership, as a most novel plan has been introduced. An automobile contest has been started, and those members who present the name of a new candidate will be given a chance to win the prize. District Manager R.
L. Roberson has been appointed to look after the work in this homestead. He will be ably assisted by local deputies, R. L.
Kenny, F. M. Henderson and C. H.
Schoessler. On March 11 this homestead will have an open meeting and give a St. Patrick's day event. Past Foreman R. L. Kenny, in whose honor this event will be given, will be the guest of the evening. This being his birthday, the homestead has planned a pretty program in appreciation of his splendid work for this homestead, while serving as its honorable foreman for the last two years.
On the evening of March 30 a hard times' ball will be given. Refreshments will be served and nothing will be left undone to make this a splendid success.

Sure Way to Regain Robust Bloom of Youth

A smooth, velvet-soft skin, with a delicate peach-like bloom, is one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, this beautiful tint and sunny lustre are rarely seen. How to preserve them—that's the question. Famous beauty experts abroad long have known that ordinary mercurized wax works wonders in this direction. It actually gives a new surface to the skin, restoring that marvelous girlish color and softness in a remarkable manner. As a consequence of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will convert a faded, freckled, worn-out or discolored complexion into one of captivating loveliness in less than two weeks. No special skill is necessary in applying the wax.
It being smeared on at night, like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

To remove wrinkles, or delay their formation, a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saccharine in 1/2 pint witch hazel, will be found wonderfully efficacious. This tones up relaxed skin, causing it to remain firm and smooth.—

Will Sell the Colling Stock of Wall Paper on Monday, March 9th Sale Starts Promptly at 8 A. M.

COLLING HAD A FAIRLY LARGE STOCK OF WALL PAPER; SUFFICIENT, INDEED, TO COVER A WALL EXTENDING FROM OMAHA HALF WAY TO LINCOLN—IF THE WALL WAS NOT VERY HIGH.

More Than 5,000 Rolls With About 200 Different Styles and Colorings

THOSE WHO HAVE SEEN THE COLLING WALL PAPER DO NOT NEED TELLING OF ITS ARTISTIC MERITS OR FINE QUALITY. THOSE WHO HAVE NOT SEEN THE STOCK WILL, WE BELIEVE, ACCEPT OUR WORD FOR IT THAT IT IS WORTH SEEING.

Surprise was expressed a few days ago that we should be extolling the good taste of Mr. Colling. It was hinted that he was likely to join the forces of one of the other large stores.

We hope the time will never come when we will be so picaresque as to be warped in our judgment or conclusions and deny the proper meed of praise to a man simply because he happens to be a competitor or be employed by one. The institution referred to has shown wisdom in several directions. We hope they get Colling also. Omaha should keep a man of such excellent taste.

Now about the Sale of Paper. Many styles have been shown in our windows. People have shown much interest. The sale will be active—AND

WHY NOT? The Sale Prices will be 1/2 OF COLLING'S PRICES or Less.

Take the measurement of your rooms—give us the figures roughly—and we will tell you how many rolls you will need. The prices will be so low that it will not seriously deplete your purse if you buy one roll too many.

On the Square

near the elevator we will repeat the sale of Bungalow Aprons. We confes we don't know why Bungalow—except that the bungalow is supposed to be especially convenient—so that mi-lady can do her own work. From this viewpoint the apron is apropos—easy to put on, loose fitting, attractive —but just as useful for the maid as for the mistress—39c each.

NEW SKIRTS hold first place in our display for Monday—Silk Jersey and Crepe de Chine—Jersey, perhaps, most serviceable. A special for Monday, with pleated messaline flounce, at $2.95 each.

Other exceptional values up to $5.00 each.

Elaborate Skirts—street shades and the more fancy kinds, up to $12 each.

The new METROPOLITAN ideas lately introduced are wonderful. The real motive will be discovered later.
Be really Metropolitan, gentlemen, and we will join you.

We may run a serial story later.
