RULES. RULE 1. This contest is open to organizations (lodges, churches, schools, hospitals, societies, etc.), women (married or single), and children under 15 years of age. RULE 2. The merchants and manufacturers listed in the contest, their relatives and employees, are not permitted to compete for any of the premiums offered in this contest, nor will they be permitted to assist personally any of the contestants. RULE 3. In case of a tie vote the premiums for which the contestants are tied will be sold to the highest bidder and the proceeds divided equally between the contestants so tied. RULE 4. Voting coupons will be issued only to merchants listed in this pamphlet. The Contest Department of The Omaha Bee reserves the right to refuse any coupons that may be irregularly issued or secured. RULE 5. Ballots once issued and votes once counted cannot be transferred from one contestant to another. RULE 6. No statement or promise made by any solicitor, canvasser or agent that varies from the rules herein set forth will be recognized by the Contest Department. RULE 7. All organizations and individuals entering this contest agree to abide by the rules herein set forth. Contestants also agree to abide by any additional rules that may hereafter become necessary. RULE 8. Where disputes arise, if any, the decision of the Contest Manager will be final. RULE 9. In the collection of coupons and labels, contestants are not restricted to their own particular district. They are permitted to secure labels and coupons any place where they are authorized to be issued. RULE 10. Any contestant who casts votes irregularly secured or forged, will be barred from the contest, and all votes so cast will be canceled. RULE 11. Each contestant must be regularly nominated by filling out the nomination blank that appears in the Bee of The Contest Department from day to day. The nomination blank as filled out must be brought or mailed to The Omaha Bee Contest Department, 224 Bee Building. Each nomination blank will count for 1,000 votes, but not more than one blank will be received from each nominee. Voting coupons and labels must be brought to the Contest Department and voted at least once a week. RULE 12. Three disinterested persons will be selected by The Bee to count the votes at the end of the contest and to award the prizes.
