N BNGLAND everyone has afternoon tea; in Russia the samovar is kept burning all day long; in Germany they have afternoon coffee, and the tea habit is gradually getting the Americans. The more we travel, the more comfortable and hospitable customs we adopt. The first day out at sea on the ocean greyhounds it is quite noticeable that the American men are decidedly shy at tea time; the second day a few more follow the lead of the English, French and German men who charge of conspiracy to detraud, and his happen to be on board, and the last day before landing abroad all of the hearing will be before Commissioner men are drinking ten in the afternoon, and thoroughly enjoying it.

Monday afternoon the Hotel Loyal inaugurated the afternoon teas in Omaha in its new Grill room. It has not been definitely decided whether there will be one or two afternoons set aside for tea dansants or whether Arizona, when, as a matter of fact, Smith there will be just afternoon tea, with music, each day from 4 to 6 o'clock. Four men ventured out yesterday, and doubtless they will come out in numbers shortly. Among the women having tea yesterday were Mrs. sold. Francis Gaines, Miss Louise Dinning, Miss Marion Macrae of Council Bluffs, Miss Claire Helene Woodard, Mrs. Mark Coad, Mrs. W. J. Coad, Mrs. Charles Beaton, Mrs. Francis Gaines, Mrs. William Holzman, Mrs. H. C. Sumney and many others, about thirty attending.

In New York every hotel has a special afternoon tea. The "400" seem to favor the Castle House Friday afternoons, when $3 is charged in- is said to have issued these contracts or stead of $2. Saturday afternoon the Plaza (without the dancing) is pre-

There are special orchestras at all of the hotels, but they are divided concerning the "dansant." Just orchestral music is the order at the Vanderbilt, the Manhattan, the Knickerbocker, the Gotham and the St. Regis, but tea dansants are favored at the Wolcott, the Waldorf, the McAlpin, the Biltmore and at several of the cafes.

Ladies! Secret to Darken Gray Hair

Bring back color, gloss and thickness with Grandma's recipe of Sage and Sulphur.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp liching and falling bair. Mixing the Sage Ten and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is of it. He stated that if Mr. Yeiser had to get the ready-to-use tonic, at drag asked him for the letter he would willstores, known as "Wysth's Sage and Ingly have handed it to him, but that he Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a did not propose to have it taken by force lot of muss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, tuking one small strand at a time; by orning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.-Advertisement.

Authorities Arrest Man Who Sells Thousands of Wild Horses.

CANNOT CATCH THE ANIMALS

Purchasers Go to Arisons, but the Brutes Are So Wary that They Slip Through Roundup Circles.

In the arrest of J. S. Smith by United States Marshal W. P. Warner, federal authorities believe that they will bring before the courts one of the most extensive and daring frauds ever discovered in this section of the country. Smith is held upder bond of $1,000 to face the Daniel Friday morning.

According to government officials, Smith sold bills of sale for horses alleged to be on the range in Coconeno county, did not own the number of horses sold, and, furthermore, that the horses owned did not tally with the description of those

Secure Pardon for Frank E. Painter

While Frank E. Painter, local iron worker, convicted with twenty-five other members of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers on charges of complicity in dynamiting cases, offers to surrender and serve his two-year prison sentence, now that the United States supreme court has affirmed the decision of the lower court, many of his local friends are said to be circulating petitions to President Wilson asking that Painter be pardoned. He is now in

"I am ready and willing to surrender and go to Leavenworth," Painter said to Secretary C. W. Shaffer of the Lion Bonding and Surety company. "But petitions for my pardon are being circulated however, so there may yet be no need of my going to prison.

As there is yet no official order for his arrest or detention, the bonding company has not taken him into custody to turn over to United States Marshal Warner who would accompany Painter to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., should no pardon be granted. It is understood that in the face of the supreme court's action Monday, nothing but a pardon by the president can now save Painter and the other convicted iron workers from going to prison. THE wish to be stylish is a worthy feminine trait. No doubt most women would like to have the so-called "corsetless" figure. Many have tried to attain it, and given it up in pain and disgust. Why?

Because, until now, all corsets intended to give the "natural figure" bave been mere makesbifts—uncomfortable, physically dangerous; and, if worn for some time, sure to distort the figure permanently.

Nemo Kopservice Corsets Have Solved the Problem

Their newly-invented and novel construction, with double-front device (see diagram below) and the liberal use of the durable Nemo semielastic fabrics, produces a perfect "corsetless" effect, while retaining all the hygienic support that has made the Nemo world-famous.
