

MOYER TELLS HIS STORY

Western Federation Chief Gives Account of Deportation.

HEARING IS HELD AT CHICAGO

Mob Fills Hancock Hotel Room After Withdrawal of Deputation

CHICAGO, March 11.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, tonight told the congressional committee investigating the Michigan copper miners' strike of his deportation from the mining district last December.

Three men, Moyer said, came to his hotel room in Hancock on the night of his deportation. They asked him if he would receive a larger committee of citizens, and on agreeing, Moyer said, fifteen or eighteen more men entered the room.

They asked him if he would permit the citizens to contribute to the relief of the survivors of the Christmas eve disaster at Italian hall.

Moyer said he had not told the members of the federation they should not accept outside help in caring for their dead, but said the families felt they ought not to and that he would not advise them to accept relief contributed by those outside the federation.

Continuing his story, Moyer said that A. E. Petermann, attorney for the mining companies, who acted as spokesman for the committee, insisted that Moyer was responsible for the attitude of the bereaved families and but for his advising them they would have accepted the assistance offered.

Moyer's Promise. "I promised them," Moyer said, "that I would do everything I could to bring about normal conditions and would endeavor to stop all talk of the panic having been caused by a man wearing a Citizens' Alliance button at least until after the funeral."

The witness said everybody left the room except Sheriff Cruse and John Black, a deputy, who told him that they appreciated his promise and assured him that while feeling was tense no harm would come to him or those with him.

Before the committee had left the room, Moyer continued, "Petermann said to me: 'After having assumed the position you have we will not be responsible for anything that may happen after this.'"

Moyer said he then put in a call for the secretary of the Calumet union in accordance with his promise.

"The telephone was beside the door," he said, "while I was holding the receiver to my ear the door opened and my room was filled with men. Tanner was the only person in the room with me. The crowd demanded, 'Where is Moyer?'

that his bill would be paid by the sheriff."

Query of Petermann. "Isn't it true that I said to you in the Hancock hotel?" Moyer was asked by Attorney Petermann, "that in view of the intense feeling we felt that you would be responsible for whatever might happen if you did not issue the statement we asked?"

"I don't think I don't remember it that way," Moyer replied. "What did you do before you became president of the Western Federation of Miners?"

"I have been a laborer all my life. I have done railroad work and have carried the hod."

"You believe, do you not, in the doctrine approved by your union that the laborer should be the master of his product?"

"I think the laborer should have the full product of his toil."

"What is your policy toward nonunion men who want to go to work while your men are on strike?"

Every effort is made to dissuade them not to do so by peaceful means. I am opposed to violating the law.

When Moyer said that the Western Federation was on record against sabotage, Petermann asked him what difference he thought there was between allowing mines to become filled with water and throwing a wrench into the machinery.

"You are not in sympathy with the principles of the Industrial Workers of the World are you?" asked Petermann.

"I myself suggested the referendum to sever connection with the Industrial Workers," replied the witness.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Hearings on the pending stock exchange regulation bill were concluded today by the senate bank and currency committee with Samuel Untermyer, who drew the measure at the conclusion of the recent "money trust" investigation hearings, as the only witness.

Mr. Untermyer appeared, armed with a formal brief in support of the bill, but got little chance to read from it. Senator Hitchcock insisted, over the protests of Chairman Owen on probing into the past activities of the witness as an organizer of corporations.

Nothing Illegal or Improper. Mr. Untermyer denied there was anything illegal or improper in the transactions cited, so far as he was concerned. These cases, he said, had been used to attack him when the life insurance investigation was in progress in New York and, more recently had been exploited in congress for the same purpose.
