By MELLIFLOIA. Wednesday, March 18, 1914.

FRIDAY, the thirteenth, supposed to be the greatest jinx, has nothing to do with the dancing party which was planned, and which will be given at Dundee Hall this evening in honor of Mrs. Ha Mulcahy of Colfax Springs, Ia.

There were to have been four hosts and four hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Silver, Mr. and Mrs. John Hecox, Mr. and Mrs. Tom S. Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Zachary, but one by one the hosts have dropped out, until this evening the guests will be received only by the hostesses and the honor guest.

Just what has caused the hoodoo to the hosts no one can discover. Mr. Zachary, who is in Denver on business, will not be able to reach here in time for the dance this evening; Mr. Walter Silver was unexpectedly called to Wyoming on business; Mr. Tom S. Kelly takes part in the Scottish Rite services this evening at the Masonic temple, and Mr. John Hecox, the last to fall out, is quite ill at his home with fever and grip.

In desperation the hostesses wired Mr. Mulcahy of Colfax, husband of the honor guest, but the jinx arrived first and he is detained on account of business, but the dance will go merrily on sans hosts.

To Reside in Buenos Ayres.

Miss Margaret Vivian Hampton daughter of John Nathan Hampton of New York, and who has been making her home for the last two years while attending the state university with her aunt Mrs. Richard P. Campbell, of the Hamilton apartments of this city, will leave Sunday evening for New York and Chicago to visit with friends and relatives until her marriage to Mr. Harold Lowe De Lorraine of Buenos Ayres, Argentine, formerly of New York. Miss Hampton's engagement was recently announced in New York at her father's apartments in the Hotel McAlpin, and her marriage will take place on Wednesday, April 15, at 4 o'clock p. m. in the presence of only immediate friends and relatives at the Hotel McAlpin. After the ceremony the young couple will leave for an extended wedding trip to the Philippines, including Manila, Havana and Honolulu, and will return by way of the Panama canal to New York, where they will visit with Mr. Hampton for several days, when they will sail for Buenos Ayres, Argentine, to make their home on the beautiful estate, "Alresford," formerly owned by the groom's uncle, but who has now given it to the young couple as a wedding gift. Mrs. De Lorraine has many friends among the younger set here, and also in Lincoln, who regret that her marriage will make it necessary for her removal to such a distance.

Newman-Bergquist Wedding.

One of the early spring weddings was that of Mr. Edward Newman, son of Mrs. Andrew Newman, and Miss Louise Bergquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bergquist, which took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. C. J. Ringer of the English Lutheran church of Benson officiated.

The ceremony was performed at an improvised altar in the living room, the bride party entering to the strains of the Lohengrin bridal chorus, played by Mrs. Gordon Stevens.

The bride was gowned in white brocade charmeuse embroidered in seed pearls. The skirt was draped to one side with an overdrap of silk shadow lace and was made with the fishtail train. The bodice was of shadow lace with angel sleeves of silk Chantilly. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas.

Miss Mae Kenworthy, the bridesmaid, was gowned in lavender chiffon draped over yellow satin, with wired tulle of gold lace. She carried Mrs. Ward roses and lavender sweet peas.

Mrs. Ray Dunahy, matron of honor, wore pink brocade charmeuse, with tulle effect of shadow lace. She carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

Mr. Williams Johnson was best man and little Arden Leon Bergquist, nephew of the bride, carried the ring in the center of a calla lily.

The house was decorated in palms and ferns and the chandeliers with smilax. The young couple left for Vermillion, S. D., after the ceremony, but will be at home in Omaha later in the season.

Wisteria Club.

Mrs. W. Johnston entertained the members of the Wisteria Club at her home Tuesday. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and the afternoon spent at cards. Prizes were won by Mrs. C. P. Haskin, Miss Nell Barzom, Mrs. L. J. Platt, Mrs. J. Noyak, Mrs. Neal Hase and Mrs. J. H. Brown.

MANY CLUBS BOOSTING SHOW

Omaha Woman's Club Day at Low Cost of Living Show.

SPECIAL NIGHT FOR TRAVELERS

No Entries for Baby Health Contest Will Be Accepted After Number Reaches 250—Fifty Will Be Judged Each Day.

The managers of the Retail Grocers' Low Cost of Living show, which is to be held at the Auditorium from April 18 to 25 have opened negotiations with the United Commercial Travelers' and the Travelers' Protective association for a traveling men's night, to be held the first Saturday of the show, April 18. The Lincoln Commercial club has written to the retail grocers that they have appointed a committee to boost for the first night, which will be known as "Omaha Commercial Club Night."

Omaha Woman's club day will be held on April 24, and members of the club will be guests of the retail grocers. The oratory department of the Woman's club will stage a suffrage play in the lecture room of the Auditorium, and it is expected that the club women of Council Bluffs and South Omaha will attend in a body. The University club has assured the Retail Grocers that they will cooperate in making the show a success and at their next meeting will make arrangements for a University club night. During the last week fifteen firms have asked for space for demonstrations at the show.

F. W. Floodman, chairman of the ticket committee and also in charge of the model grocery store, has secured most of the exhibits which will make up this feature of the show.

Mrs. F. J. Biss has received about 20 entries for the baby health contest. When the number reaches 25, the list will be closed, as only fifty babies will be examined each day for five days.

The suffragists of Omaha have asked E. E. Wise, president of the Low Cost of Living show, for a space in which they can sell their buttons, the money to go to the general fund of the suffragists and Mr. Wise has granted this request.

No Investigation of Howell's Action

The water committee of the Real Estate exchange reported that it decided that it was not within the province of its authority to investigate the recent action of R. B. Howell of the Water board, in using the mailing list and addressing machine of the Water board for the purpose of mailing out his campaign literature against the Auditorium bond proposition.

Woman Clad in a Nightgown Races Down 16th Street

With flying hair, clad only in her nightgown, Susie Keck ran out of her rooming place at 405 North Sixteenth street about 7 yesterday morning and started down the street, screaming at intervals until she was stopped after a two blocks' chase by policemen and pedestrians who had joined in the pursuit.

Sixteenth street was well filled with pedestrians on their way to work, when the chase started. Old men, young men and boys followed the half-dressed woman, while a few started back to find the cause of her flight.

The woman was arrested by Officers Unger and Aughe and is held at police headquarters for investigation. She was delirious when arrested and talked incoherently, at times shouting that she was being pursued by men.

TO START INTERURBAN SOON

Grading on Sioux City-Niobrara and Omaha Lines This Spring.

MAY ISSUE $13,000,000 IN BONDS

Main Power Plant Will Be Near Niobrara and Will Develop 70,000-Horse Power, According to Statement.

The Baker Construction company is nearly ready to give out figures relative to its project for constructing a system of interurban roads through northern and northeastern Nebraska with Omaha as one of the important terminals.

The Baker company has satisfied the Nebraska State Railway commission and has secured permission to issue and sell bonds to the amount of $13,000,000. Members of the commission were in Omaha this week and spent two days going over the company's books and accounts. They are said to have found them in excellent condition and the request for permission to sell bonds was granted.

To Cover Big Territory.

The plans of the Baker company contemplate the building of a line from Sioux City through the northern counties of Nebraska to Niobrara, with a branch to Yantron and another to O'Neill. This portion of the road from Sioux City to Niobrara is to be one of the main lines. Another main line is to be built from Omaha to Sioux City, with branches to Decatur and West Point. The plans contemplate another line from Fremont to Norfolk, connecting with the Omaha-Sioux-City line.

The main power plant for the system is to be located near Niobrara. It is estimated that 70,000-horsepower can be developed. It is the intention to build transmission lines out from this plant and into cities as far away as Omaha. These lines will carry power that will be sold.

It is said that 1,300 tons of steel have been bought to be delivered in Sioux City not later than July 1. The assertion is made that grading on the Omaha-Sioux City and the Sioux-City-Niobrara lines will start early this spring, and that considerable of the grade will be ready for the steel by July 1.
