Mrs. Hengen, Mother of Seventeen, Dead at the Age of 77

Mrs. Elina Hengen, widow of Joseph H. Hengen, one of the earliest of the Omaha pioneers, died Wednesday afternoon at the residence of her son-in-law, Charles Hannan, 323 South Twenty-seventh street, aged 77 years. Her death was due to the infirmities of old age. Arrangements for the funeral await word from relatives who are absent from the city.

Mrs. Hengen was born in Prunettes, Germany, and came to the United States when 19 years of age, coming with her parents to St. Joseph. There she married Mr. Hengen, and the young people in 1836 came to Omaha making the trip on a steamboat. Shortly after coming here Mr. Hengen bought the lot at Thirteenth and Howard streets, where the Melchior machine shop now stands. On this property he built a cottage and started in the business of making boots, they then being worn instead of shoes. Later Mr. Hengen bought and lived on the lots at Eleventh and Douglas streets, now occupied by the Evans laundry building.

Goes to Bed in Bathtub After Being Ejected

Three times did Rollo Rous, under the influence of liquor, enter the apartment at 1222 South Thirtieth street, Wednesday night, and twice was he ejected by members of the family. The third time he returned, however, and went to bed in the bath tub, and the family in desperation telephoned the police, who placed Rollo where there was no possibility of his returning to disturb them.

Run Over by Auto, but Gets Up and Walks Away Alone

W. E. Rasse, cook at the Millard hotel, while crossing the street at Sixteenth and Capitol avenue slipped and fell in the snow directly beneath the wheels of an automobile. The car passed over the man's legs, but he got up immediately after the accident and started to walk away. He was stopped and taken to the police station, where an examination by the surgeons revealed no mark of the accident aside from some mud on the man's trousers.

MRS. K. C. BARTON WILL MOVE INTO BAUM HOUSE

The old Barton home on Farnam street and Thirty-fifth is to be vacated by Mrs. K. C. Barton and her family, who have been occupying it since the death of Guy C. Barton, and who have taken the Baum house at Thirty-sixth and Harney. With the division of the Barton estate the Farnam street property passed to a daughter, Mrs. Christianity, who has been residing in New York. It is not certain whether Mrs. Christianity will occupy the Omaha house herself or dispose of it.

McKEEN MOTOR PLANT IS NOW REPAIRING AUTOS

The McKeen Motor company plant has added a new department and has now taken over the repairing of automobiles. The big trucks used in the city are now going to be repaired and the owners of high class automobiles are sending their machines to the McKeen shops. It is contended that at the McKeen shops high class mechanics and machinists are employed and that they are familiar with all classes of machinery.

If Back Hurts Begin on Salts

Flush your Kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delicious beverage; little water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications. Advertisement.

"Tiz" For Tired and Sore Feet

"TIZ" for puffed-up, burning, sweaty, calloused feet and corns.

Get instant relief. "TIZ" puts peace in tired aching, painful feet. Ah! how comfortable your shoes feel. Walk five miles, feet won't hurt you, won't swell after using "TIZ."

School Board Wants More Money for the Running of Schools

Hard times being the mother of invention and the Board of Education being hard put for coin, arrangements are being made to ask permission from the legislature to increase the levy from 20 to at least 25 mills, for the full legal limit of 20 mills will be used next year.

"Even at that we will not have sufficient money," said Chairman James Richardson of the finance committee of the board. "We ought to be allowed to raise 25 mills or more if necessary, and it will in time be necessary."

"We have gone along here for several years with only a slight increase in receipts. About $1,000,000 will be available next year. It will not be enough and we have arranged to ask the legislature for help."

Will Investigate Very Unusual Fire

A peculiar fire in the grocery of Sebastian Torco, 1367 South Thirtieth street, created considerable excitement when the windows of the store appeared to the firemen to have been blown out by some sort of an explosion although the cause was not discovered. A negro boarding house near the grocery was filled with smoke, the colored folk making for the sidewalk in various stages of dishevelment.

POISONOUS FIERY RED PIMPLES

For Three Years. Itched and Burned Intensely. Spread Across Forehead. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Ended Trouble.

1107 N. Winchester Ave., Chicago, Ill.—"I was seriously affected with poisonous fiery red pimples in the middle of my cheeks for three or more years, and I could never get rid of them. At times it seemed as if they had vanished, but later would become large with yellow pus in them. They itched and burned intensely so that I was tempted to scratch and irritate them. Later they spread across my forehead and down toward the chin. The pimples caused disfigurement.

"On reading a few of the wonderful cures of Cuticura Soap and Ointment I thought I had better try them. In the evening before getting and also in the morning when I arose I thoroughly cleaned my face with hot water and Cuticura Soap and after drying I applied the Cuticura Ointment. I only used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment and within six months my trouble was completely ended." (Signed) Miss Clara E. Strelow, Oct. 9, 1913.

BACHELORS GIVEN WARNING

Unmarried Men Receive Letters from Unidentified Woman.

FRIENDS LEARN OF MISSIVES

Speculation is rife as to who has been urging the well known bachelors to take for life a wife.

A number of Omaha's bachelors, whose stubborn determination not to wed has long been the subject of much kidding by their friends are now the recipients of anonymous letters, supposedly from a young matron whom they know well and who urges each of her unmarried friends to get married and "avoid becoming a crabbed old bachelor."

City Attorney John A. Rine, who is already famous as the man who believes in giving votes to women, but refuses personally to give himself to some young woman as husband, admits that he received one of the matrimonial letters. But he fights shy of saying whether or not he is going to take the advice seriously and choose a wife.

Herbert S. Daniel, United States commissioner, also says he was included in the anonymous campaign, also mailing that Alice B. Rutherford, official manager of the Union Pacific railroad, says he has also "seen" one of the "get-married" epistles, but hesitates to admit that such advice was intended for him. Walter P. Thomas, claim agent for the street railway company, is said to be another of the bachelors marked for an early marriage, but he, too, thinks "there must be some mistake."

Over-Ripe Bachelors. Otto J. Bauman, well known clubman and "coupon clipper," also is reported to have been classed with the other so-called overripe bachelors, and the men who admit having received the anonymous letters have tried to get him to admit it. Although refusing to deny the allegation, he avoids admitting that it is true.

Two other eligibles, who have been responsible for many a heartache by anxious "mamas," are Frank H. Woodland and Ed Baird. Each has received one of the enigmatic missives. Neither take the epistles seriously, but admit they received them.

Almost anticipating a query about the letter from every friend whom he meets, City Attorney Rine has become an adept at fighting shy of discussing the subject. "Just a little joke," he says to all, with a guilty smile. "Nothing to it at all; just a joke letter. I get lots of them."

And the other bachelors who have received the letters also hail the whole matter as "just a little joke." But to their friends it is much more than just a little one. Swiftly the news has spread, and now the matter threatens to become the "hot" topic of a large number of prominent young people. Speculation is active as to who wrote the letters, but so far no definite clue has been secured.

Guess as to Author. "Did you get one of them?" is becoming the usual greeting when one bachelor meets another at the club, at lunch, or in a business way. Then follows a whispered inspection of the mysterious letter, a hearty laugh and lively guesses as to whom the author might be.

So far the contents of the letters, which are said to be all alike, have not been divulged, except in a general way. They are known, however, to purport to come from a young married woman, who says she is writing to fifteen of her bachelor acquaintances. Advice is given them to throw off their reserve and court the girl of their ideals, and the writer predicts that if the advice is followed, the bachelors will fall in love and be much happier.

That each bachelor should be making some woman happy, is asserted, and the letter goes on to say that he cannot afford to become a "crabbed old bach." It asks, what is success without some one to share it? Advice is also given as to what kind of a girl to choose. "Think it over and see if it is not possible to marry now," the missive concludes.

Sumner Rates Will Be THE SAME AS LAST YEAR

Railroads are practically through lining up the summer rate schedules and the same will be published within the next few days that they may be in effect prior to the time when the travel starts toward the summer resorts.

All of the passenger associations have given the rate questions thorough consideration from every possible angle, with the result that the rates will be practically the same as last year, with a tendency to be a little lower in some instances.

PROGRESSIVES TO HOLD A MEETING NEXT WEEK

The executive committee of the Douglas county progressives has been called to a meeting to be held Wednesday evening at 641 Paxton block. "We just have a feeling that we ought to meet," said a member of the committee. "It's just a feeling, you know, and so we're rounding up the faithful."
