Democracy Triumphant

"The operation of these principles will give more dignity and consideration to the best people, who make the world go round, and furnish the material force of our country. The barrier of caste is down, so that more and more a man's social standing depends upon himself. The list of life are open to all, and the passion to succeed comes with the value of the prizes to be won. Never before did so many common people strain to reach a higher rung in the ladder."

Mr. Bryan's Letter

In his message to the club Mr. Bryan said: "I regret exceedingly that official duties prevent my attendance March 19 upon a dinner with which my Nebraska friends are accustomed to celebrate the anniversary of my birth. These dinners have always been very happy occasions to me, and the opportunity which they afford for renewing acquaintance with a multitude of loyal co-laborers is increasingly appreciated."

BRYAN MEN LAUD HIM AS GREAT LEADER AT BIRTHDAY BANQUET

The electorate is no longer subjected to the corrupting influence of the interests which so successfully operated for years along purely selfish lines. There may be those who even to this day question the position taken by Mr. Bryan on the money question in 1896, but it is unprejudiced mind realizes that the Almighty solved the money question in opening up the great storehouses of gold in Alaska and South Africa.

"That he has been entirely unselfish in his devotion to the right is manifested by the rare loyalty and co-operation which he is giving to our president—the greatest since Lincoln—the man whose singleness of purpose, whose unflinching courage and whose lofty devotion to duty grow out of the same circumstances that he is a free man, and believes in the progressive principles of democracy, revived and restored by Bryan."

MILBANK WILL VOTE ON MUNICIPAL SALOON

MILBANK, S. D., March 19.—(Special.)—A pronounced sentiment exists here in favor of establishing a municipal saloon, and it is expected that at the annual city election in April the proposition of installing such a saloon will be submitted to the voters. It is estimated that such a saloon would pay the city a revenue of not less than $200 per year and that it might exceed this figure. The temperance people of Milbank are as bitterly opposed to a municipal saloon as to the regulation retail liquor establishment, but if license carries at the annual election it is believed the voters also will sanction the city engaging in the saloon business.

POWDER PLANT DESTROYED

Cities in Illinois Shaken When Explosion Occurs at Alton.

HEARD FOR A HUNDRED MILES

Night Watchman is Missing and is Believed to Be Dead—Smoke Cloud Crosses Over St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, March 19.—An explosion at the Equitable Powder company's plant at Alton, Ill., near here tonight shook territory in Illinois within a distance of 100 miles. The effects of the explosion, however, did not cross the Mississippi river into Missouri.

Two Shocks in Places

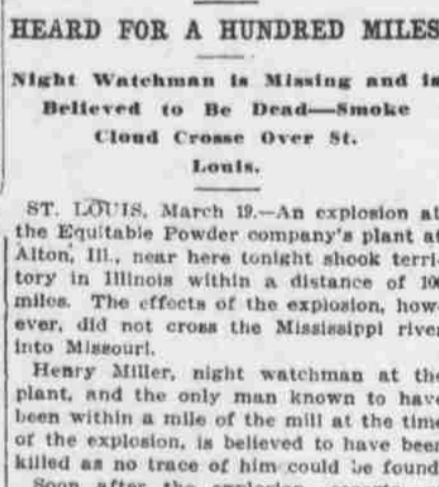

At Centra, more than fifty miles from the scene of the explosion doors and windows rattled for five seconds and in some instances were broken. At 9:30 o'clock tonight a dense smoke carrying a strong odor of burning gunpowder settled over this city, thirty miles from the scene of the explosion. It had taken the black cloud three hours to travel diagonally across the river from Alton to St. Louis.

Nine Tons Explode

The explosion left only a deep hole in the ground on the spot where the building stood. Nine tons of black powder exploded in one blast at a cost to the company of more than $25,000, including the loss of the building.
