SHEEP—As a result of Thursday a mean close, caused mainly by unfavorable reports concerning the dressed mutton trade in the east, receipts dreoped off considerably this morning, the run being estimated at 2,000 head, only about half of what showed up last Friday, two weeks ago or a year ago. Aside from a dock of medium ewas which sold at $5.25 the supply consisted entirely of lambs, and among them were only two or three loads that could be classed as anything like toppy offerings, the bulk of the lambs being fed westerns, heavy and on the medium order.

A steady to strong market would about cover the situation on both sheep and SHEEP-As a result of Thursday
