GRAND JURY IS INVESTIGATING

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, March 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Police officials believe they have uncovered a system for the conduct of private maternity hospitals in Des Moines and the grand jury is making a thorough investigation. It is alleged that business has been secured through advertisements in country papers. They are conducted contrary to law. Secretary Young of the Iowa Humane society has secured some information on the subject, indicating that big business is being done here.

BLAME FOR FIRE IN CLUB HOUSE IS NOT FIXED

ST. LOUIS, March 23.—The coroner's jury that investigated the death of thirty persons in the Missouri Athletic club fire two weeks ago, could not fix the blame for the disaster, it reported today. The responsibility cannot be fixed, the jury reported, because the city ordinances do not provide for the regulation of buildings used for club purposes.

The jury recommended that satisfactory building laws be passed.

Whether the fire started from a cigarette thrown among the draperies from the dining room, or from defective electric wiring the jury could not determine. The jury reported that the following conditions prevailed at the building:

The fire escapes were inadequate. Wooden doors led to the enclosed fire escape from various floors. Doors at the entrances of elevators had been removed, reducing the efficiency of the elevators in case of fire. The only stairway in the building was of wood.

The building was of improper construction for sleeping purposes.

DEATH RECORD.

Three Pawnee Pioneers Are Dead. TABLE ROCK, Neb., March 23.—(Special.)—Word has reached here of the death of E. F. Decker, who settled here in 1861 on a homestead some four or five miles southeast of here, where he lived many years, moved to Table Rock a quarter of a century or more ago, where he lived until a couple of years ago, when, owing to advanced age, he went to live with relatives in Rooks county, Kansas, where he died. He was a bachelor and was 84 years old. He came here from Soranton, Pa.

Another early Pawnee county pioneer passed away recently at Los Angeles, Cal.—John C. Smith, who homesteaded four miles south of Table Rock in 1865, moving later to this place. He went to the Pacific coast some twenty-five years since, and was 82 years old at the time of his death. He was a son-in-law of Dr. J. W. Lindsay, at one time a prominent physician of Table Rock.

A third Pawnee county pioneer, John Fettingler, who died recently at his home in Morris, Ill., is said to have taken the ninth homestead filed on in this county near Steinaker. He was 84 years of age and was born in Belgium, coming to America when 24 years of age. He settled in this county in 1866. The family moved to Oklahoma in 1906.

He came to Tecumseh in an early day. Mr. Vile is survived by his wife and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Jesse Heilig of this city. His parents are buried here.

Habeas Corpus Case Opened.

PECOS, Tex., March 23.—Judge Edward Week, of the United States district court for Northern Texas, today opened the habeas corpus hearing here for the release of 5,000 Mexican Federal prisoners held at Fort Bliss, Tex., by the United States military.

The judge granted the writ last week at Dallas and set this place for the hearing today.

The contention of the prisoners is that the United States has no right to hold them under any international agreement or law. Under the Hague treaty, they assert, a country has a right to hold military men fleeing from another country if they are engaged in an international war, but they assert that where the troops are only engaged in an internecine strife to put down a rebellion at home, there is no warrant for holding them.

The prisoners constituted the former Huerta garrison at Ojinaga, Mexico, and fled to Texas, after a week's battle against Villa's rebels. They were made prisoners by United States troops and interned at Fort Bliss to await the close of the war in Mexico. Provisional president Huerta of Mexico refused to pay for their subsistence as the first step of his charge that they are illegally held. He followed it by engaging American attorneys in behalf of Huerta troops, who fled from Naco, Sonora, and are now interned at Fort Rasecrans, Cal. The federal judge in California decided against the prisoners and the case is on appeal to the United States supreme court.

MOTHER JONES REARRESTED

Aged Strike Leader Taken from Train at Walsenburg.

MINERS CALL IT KIDNAPING

Attorney for Organization Will File Suit for Writ of Habeas Corpus with the Supreme Court.

WALSENBURG, Colo., March 23.—After a week's freedom "Mother" Mary Jones is again a military prisoner in the strike zone. The aged strike leader was taken from a southbound Colorado & Southern train here at 5:30 this morning by Captain H. C. Nickerson, acting under orders of Adjutant General John Chase and lodged in the county jail under military guard. Mother Jones left Denver last night for Trinidad. She is being held incommunicado.

Captain Nickerson left Trinidad last night under orders to arrest Mother Jones at Walsenburg, when the announcement was made that she was leaving for Trinidad. The militia officer boarded the train at Pueblo and as it neared Walsenburg ordered Mother Jones to alight with him at that point.

"I protest against such treatment," declared the strike leader, "but I am not surprised."

"I am acting under orders," replied the officer.

"Well, I'll get off," she retorted. John Brown, an organizer of the United Mine Workers of America and known as Mother Jones' bodyguard, who accompanied the aged strike leader, also left the train but was not placed under arrest. "Mother" Jones is being detained in the hospital ward of the county jail, said Colonel Edward Verdeckberg, in whose charge the strike leader was left by Captain Nickerson. "She is held in clean, comfortable quarters."

The county jail is in the basement of the Huertano county court house. The announcement of the arrest of "Mother" Jones was received quietly in union circles in the strike zone.

"Plain Case of Kidnaping."

TRINIDAD, Colo., March 23.—"It's a plain case of kidnaping, nothing else," declared John R. Lawson, international board member of the United Mine Workers, when advised that "Mother" Jones had been taken from a train at Walsenburg by the military authorities while on her way to Trinidad.

"Mother" Jones was going through the place and as far as I know there is absolutely no charge against her. I hope the supreme court will act in the matter at once."

Mr. Lawson and John McLennan, president of District 15, United Mine Workers of America, left this morning for Walsenburg.

Will Appeal to Supreme Court.

DENVER, Colo., March 23.—"I shall make application to the Colorado supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Mother Jones," said Horace N. Hawkins, attorney for the 32-year-old strike leader, when informed today that she had been arrested by the military authorities at Walsenburg.

Mr. Hawkins added that the supreme court would be asked to take original action. A former application for original jurisdiction in the Jones case was denied. "In that case, however," explained Mr. Hawkins, "the court ruled that the district could should be given an opportunity to pass upon the question first. Since then we have taken the case to the district court of Last Animas county where the writ was denied. We were on the point of taking an appeal to the supreme court, from that decision when Mother Jones was brought to Denver and released. As the legal questions involved in this imprisonment are identical with those involved in her former confinement, there is no occasion for going through the district court again, therefore we will ask the supreme court to take original jurisdiction."

Church of England Clergyman Presides at Suffrage Meeting

LONDON, March 23.—Sylvia Pankhurst carried on a stretcher and surrounded by about 1,000 members of her East End People's army, attempted to attend this evening's service in Westminster abbey.

She was unable to gain admission, however, as every seat had been taken in view of the fact that she had announced her intention last Sunday to be present in the abbey tonight.

The militant suffragette and her followers, however, held an open air meeting in the street in the rear of the abbey. The vanguard of the East End contingent was led by a Church of England clergyman, Rev. Edmund Willis, rector of a church in the Shadwell district. Clothed in full vestments, he opened the street meeting with prayer and preached a short sermon.

WELLESLEY PROFESSORS LOSE RESULT OF LABORS

WELLESLEY, Mass., March 23.—Some tragic features of the fire that consumed College hall Tuesday became known only today, when it was announced that the fruits of years of special research work for the advancement of science which had attracted international attention had been utterly destroyed. All notes and apparatus used in original investigations in the field of eugenics, zoology, histology and embryology were lost, and college officials say it is probable that some of the experiments can never be repeated.

For six years Prof. Marion E. Hubbard had devoted her energies to research in variation and heredity in beetles. The work meant the building up of a new strain of a certain species of beetle by breeding through a long series of generations. In view of the increasing interest in eugenics, scientists awaited the results with keen anticipation, but all of the notes and apparatus were swept away in a few moments.

The fruits of three years' experiments with the brains of ants by Prof. Carolyn B. Thompson of the zoology department and 4,000 slides in use in her course in histology and embryology, which she had been eight years collecting, were lost together with a mass of notes soon to have been published in connection with her work with certain deep sea forms by the bureau officers and the University of California.

ULSTER GOES AHEAD WITH PREPARATIONS TO FIGHT HOME RULE

which General Sir Arthur Paget had stated to the commanding officers of regiments that active operations were to begin against Ulster, and that it was expected the country would be in a blaze by Saturday. The Irish commander-in-chief wrote that he was in close communication with the War office and had received instructions from headquarters. Mr. Law asserted:

"It will be difficult for the prime minister to convince the house that with or without his knowledge some of his colleagues did not make these movements of troops as part of a concerted plan to provoke or intimidate Ulster."

Unionists Continue Preparations.

BELFAST, Ireland, March 23.—The capital of Ulster, in which are the headquarters of the provisional government of the province, is today perhaps the least excited city outwardly in the United Kingdom. No more troops have arrived here, and none are expected. The residents look to London and the Curragh camp for their news. The statement issued by Premier Asquith last night declaring that the movements of troops were of a purely precautionary character has not weakened the determination of the unionists to be prepared for all eventualities. When Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the Ulster men read it today he remarked:

"The statement simply represents the position the prime minister has been driven to take. The government has put itself in a ludicrous position, but its action makes no difference to us. We are proceeding steadily with our preparations and organization. We are not in the least affected by anything the government may do or pretend to do. We shall keep steadily in view our main object, which is to prevent ourselves being put by force under a government we detest."

Woman Gets $12,000 for Injury to Her Son by Northern Pacific

SEATTLE, Wash., March 23.—A jury in the United States district court returned today a verdict against the Southern Pacific Railroad company for $12,000 damages in the case of a youth thrown off a passenger train while stealing a ride. The plaintiff in the suit was Mrs. Elizabeth Gobel, who alleged that her son, Harry C. Gobel, had been permanently incapacitated.

Young Gobel and a companion, George Vallier, were thrown from the roof of a Southern Pacific train at Redding, Cal., in August, 1910. Vallier died of his injuries. Months afterward Vallier's mother, who spent a fortune in the search for evidence, caused the arrest of Daniel Fleming, a railroad policeman, who after a bitterly contested trial, was convicted of manslaughter. Recently the California supreme court granted Fleming a new trial, and the prosecuting attorney then moved the dismissal of all charges against him.

R. J. Root, Pioneer of Auburn, Is Dead

AUBURN, Neb., March 23.—(Special Telegram.)—R. J. Root, better known as "Uncle Joe," aged 75 years, died at his home here this morning of stomach troubles, having been ill two weeks. He is survived by Mrs. Root, who has been an invalid for years.

R. J. Root was one of the pioneers not only of Nemaha county, but of Nebraska, coming here fifty-five years ago and remaining ever since. When he came to Nebraska he filed on a homestead just outside the town limits and there built a sod house, in which he lived for many years and which is still standing, having been carefully preserved. At the time of his death he was one of the directors of the First National bank of Auburn. He never moved off the farm, having constantly resided there since he made his homestead filing.

JOHN MITCHELL TESTIFIES

Says Conditions in Butte District Better Than in Michigan.

MOYER INDICTMENT STANDS

Judge O'Brien Refuses to Quash Conspiracy Charges Against Official of Western Federation of Miners.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 23.—John Mitchell, the labor leader, testified today before the house committee investigating the Calumet strike. In comparing conditions in the Michigan field and at Butte, Mont., Mr. Mitchell declared "life and labor conditions in Butte are much superior to life and labor conditions in the Michigan copper field." He said the Butte miners were paid on the basis of the selling price of copper, with a minimum of $3.50 a day, had an eight-hour day and were not forced to trade in company stores or live in company houses.

Chairman Taylor pointed out the contention of the Michigan operators that the Western Federation of Miners was founded on "red socialism." Mr. Mitchell said that the socialist party was organized and circulated a newspaper in the copper country before any attempt was made to unionize the laborers.

"It would seem," he said, "that the opposition of the mine operators is not against the political socialist, but against organized employees; the opposition is to paying a fair wage to workmen rather than to any political party or propaganda." He added that any effort to organize a union independent of the present international unions would be futile and would leave the workmen "just as helpless as they are now."

James A. Emery appeared as counsel for the Michigan mine operators. The miners were unrepresented by counsel.

Mayor Indictment Stands.

BOUGHTON, Mich., March 23.—A motion to quash the indictment for conspiracy against President Charles H. Moyer and thirty-seven other officers and members of the Western Federation of Miners was denied today by Circuit Judge O'Brien.

The motion to quash having failed, attorneys for the Western Federation of Miners today filed pleas in abatement which will further delay the prosecution of the conspiracy cases against President Moyer and others. No effort to bring Houghton will be made until all the preliminaries have been disposed of, it was announced by Special Prosecutor Nichols. Nichols said that he was confident the cases would be ready for trial at the September term.

Dissolution Policy Raising Prices, Says One University Head

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 23.—The government's trust dissolution program is raising instead of lowering the prices of commodities affected, according to a statement last night by Dr. Charles R. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin, in an address to the St. Paul Association of Commerce.

He said the operation of the Sherman law was resulting in a policy of enforced competition wholly opposed to conservation and destructive of natural resources and was producing a profoundly immoral situation.

Three Railroads Fall Short in Earnings

LINCOLN, Neb., March 23.—(Special Telegram.)—According to reports filed with the State Board of Assessment, three railroads failed to earn as much money in 1913 as they did in 1912, the Burlington falling short $80,870, the Minneapolis & Omaha, $14,887, and the Missouri Pacific, $82,572. SEVERAL BUILDINGS BURN IN UNIONTOWN, PA.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., March 23.—Fire which broke out in the Scott Five and Ten Cent store here today destroyed that building and spread to the building occupied by the First National bank of Uniontown and the McClelland hotel. It appeared as though the entire square, which is in the center of the business district, would be destroyed. C. O. Laclair, a fireman, fell through a skylight into the burning Scott store and is believed to have been burned to death.

ITCHING ERUPTION ON ARMS AND LIMBS

Became Red and Pimples Formed. Could Not Keep from Scratching. Clothing Irritated It. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Casey, Kansas.—"Some two or three years ago the trouble began with irritation and itching on my arms and lower limbs. The affected parts became red and pimples or eruption formed. The itching was so severe that I could not keep from scratching and some sores formed on my face and limbs. The clothing irritated at times and made the itching worse."

"I tried various remedies relieving to some extent the trouble but I continued to suffer and finally the malady spread over my body but was very bad on my head and face and around my waist. The skin became rough and thick and sores formed on my face. The itching and burning often kept me awake at night. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment last winter. I bathed with the Cuticura Soap and hot water at least once a day—3 or 4 times a day. In five months I was cured." (Signed) E. Cameron, Sept. 17, 1913.

The regular use of Cuticura Soap for toilet and bath not only tends to preserve, purify and beautify the skin, scalp, hair and hands, but assists in preventing inflammation, irritation and clogging of the pores, the common cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, yellow, oily, mothy and other unwholesome conditions of the skin. Cuticura Soap (50c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free with 3c. Skin Book. Address: "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."
