Auditor Has Plan For State Building

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 26.-(Special.)-A suggestion made by State Auditor Howard as to the new building to be erected by Nebraska on the exposition grounds of the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco looks good to several members of the committee.

The auditor believes that the frame for the building should be made of steel Ia., as defendants, alleging unfaithfugness shipped from Nebraska structural steel plants and put up on the grounds. The parts could be bolted together and the a year later, walls made of wire screen such a sis used Minnie Weise in Omaha and lived with in plastering. When the exposition is over the building could be taken down, shipped back to Nebraska and erected sent to prison. on the state fair grounds in exact duplidepartment of the state fair.

By bolting the parts together it may easily be taken down with little loss and this is the first action of its kind to be when re-erected could be put together permanently and the whole thing would not be a total loss to the state.

Mr. Nay thought that instead of cutting down the earning ability of the road should be given a raisc. He was not particular whether the reproduction value of the road be used as the basis for rate figuring and interest return or the present worth. In either case the figures would show that the road was making nothoing. Even on the depreciation value used in figuring the net return for 1912 the company actually came out with less eash than it expended on operation. Mr. Nay presented the following figures for the last five years, showing the percentage both on reproduction value and unexpected affair. Daily lives with his present value.

Mr. Nay admitted that the payroll of the road had increased in the last six years more than $2,000,000, an average of something like $475,000 a year. A part of this had to be borne by the earnings of the road in Nebraska.

Mr. Nay then took the original order her up until the time he was arrested and No. 19 and basing his figures on it showed Denzeln informed his afforney that he that in March, 1913, the road lost in revecation of the Nebraska building at the and the Weise girl were infatuated with nue on Nebraska business alone $982, ien and dedicated to some special each other and that they plan on re- which would make for the twelve marrying after he secures his divorce and

Mr. Buckingham, engaged in special rate work for the Union Pacific freight department spent a great deal of the day on the stand and made comparisons of the cost of transportation of freight in Nebraska in comparison with other states, in each instance showing that the proposed scale was much higher than the Interstate Commerce scale. Another way in which he showed that there was not as good a chance for Nebraska roads to make anything as compared with other states was by a division of different states into four zones in which the density of population was given per square mile. The division made in Nebraska as the castern, eastern middle, western middle and western zones and the other states were divided in the same manner

It cost the company $1,000 to put in hog shields; the highway act requiring widen ing of crossings cost $7.600; mowing weed law of 1909 cost the company $13,000; the extra crew bill cost $3,409.30; standard cahooses cost $23,160; the factory the road $1,500.41; the electric headlight bill cost the company $14.630.

Dietetic Value of Beer

From a German Medical Opinion

The intoxicating action of beer is very much less than that of wine and whiskey; and as it gradually tends to suppress the use of the latter, it accomplishes a high mission in the history of civilization. The intoxicating action of the small quantity of alcohol (in beer) is neutralized by the carbonic acid and the malt extract. Hops in small quantities stimulates the appetite and promotes evacuation (or acts as a laxative.) Beer is very nutritious when consumed with meat, cheese and bread and it is greatly undervalued as promoting health and robustness. -DR. KIRBACH

Not "Raised" with Yeast-

You can "raise" a loaf of white flour bread with yeast-but you can't "raise" healthy, robust American youngsters in that way. The best food for growing boys and girls is

Shredded Wheat

It contains no yeast, no fats, no chemicals of any kind-just pure whole wheat, steam-cooked, shredded and baked. The crisp, brown Biscuits are not only deliciously appetizing, but they encourage thorough chewing, which makes them better than porridges for growing youngsters. Ask your grocer.

> Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness. Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with hot milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Deliciously nourishing when eaten in combination with baked apples, stewed prunes, sliced bananas or canned or preserved fruits. Try toasted Triscuit, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon with butter, cheese or marmalade.
