

YANIGANS MARK UP VICTORY

Secure Revenge Over Regulars in Close Score of Five to Four.

GAME FILLED WITH ERRORS

Victors Make Lots Hits, but Take Advantage of Much Miffing and Bring in More Runs.

Despite the chilling wind which blew fitfully across the diamond and thus making it decidedly uncomfortable for the toiling athletes, and regardless of the fact that they were without the services of their leader, R. Schipke, the yanigans secured a wholesome revenge over the regulars Thursday afternoon by trouncing those gents with a score of 5 to 4. The yanigans only had two hits to the regulars' five, but they fielded admirably and took advantage of the bases on balls and tum heaves of their opponents.

Stevenson and Alexander opened the fray, as they did Tuesday. The yanigans got a one-run lead in that inning per one base on balls presented to Eddie Wallace. Wallace was first up and he worked Alexander for a pass. Then Alexander muffed up an attempted sacrifice by Payne and both Wallace and Payne perched safely on the path to the home plate. Graham's sacrifice moved both up one notch and Wallace romped home when Shestak bobbled.

Two Scores in Sixth. The regulars copped two scores in the sixth, but the yanigans came right back and evened matters up with another marker. Thomas opened the sixth and got a base on balls. He swiped second and went to third on a fielder's choice from the bat of Hicks, who made first as the play was directed toward Thomas. Hicks promptly made a dive for second base and as he did so Thomas hit for the plate, slinging home just ahead of the pill. Hal Chase then tore one off for a single and Hicks came home for the second tally.

Payne opened for the yanigans in the same inning with a single. He was sacrificed to second by Graham and he came home on an error by Joe Ward, who couldn't another a slow roller from Bell.

The score a tie in the seventh. Conzation managed to talk the umpire into giving him a base on balls. Krug sacrificed him to second and Conny pilfered third when the yanigans were looking at a flock of geese. He came home on Ward's sacrifice fly to Bell. But the yanigans earned registers up by a little trick playing on the part of the regulars. Smith walked, stole second, went to third on a fielder's choice and swiped the plate when Shestak dropped the ball.

In the ninth the regulars made another tally, but the yanigans returned with a chip on their shoulders and nailed the contest with two more runs. Chase singled to center, stole the second base, went to third on an infield hit by Thomason and made the play station on a single to center by Conzation.

The last of the ninth was a circus. Mr. Madden, a Creighton lad, who was fired from school, went into the box to accept the job of Mr. E. Clooman, who bled for the club house as soon as he had immediately made Mr. R. Smith a present of a base on balls. Then Madden got mixed up with his feet and threw the ball over the yard a bit, and when Rogers bunted one they threw it around some more. In the meantime Smith and Shannon rambled home, Shannon carrying the winning count. Then the game broke up with the yanigans triumphant.

Mollwitz Has Offer from Brooklyn Feds

CHICAGO, March 25.—Fred Mollwitz, the promising young first base candidate with the Chicago Nationals, has received an offer from the Brooklyn Federal, which, he said, he would accept unless the Chicago club increases his salary. This news reached Chicago today from Louisville, where the Cubs play this afternoon. Mollwitz's offer was made by Mike Malloy, the Federal league scout, who, as a Cub scout last year, recommended the young player, then in the Wisconsin-Illinois league, to President Murphy. The Brooklyn club promised to pay him $2,000 a year, with a three-year contract, while his present contract, in compliance with regulations of organized ball, provides for a salary of only $1,200 until he is accepted as a "regular."

Shortstop Weaver and Pitcher Scott of the Chicago Americans, who said they received Federal league offers, have been ordered to join the section of the team traveling under the direct supervision of Manager Callahan. OAKLAND, Cal., March 25.—Following news that two of his stars were in communication with the Federal, Manager James Callahan of the Chicago Americans ordered Pitcher James Scott, Shortstop Weaver and Catcher Daly to report to him, and the three players left here last night for Los Angeles. In their places, Pitchers Faber and Lathrop and Second Baseman Berger came to Oakland. Ted Gleason also arrived from the south to assume command of the second squad, preparatory to the trip home, which starts next Sunday.

Negley and Van Ness Win Two-Men Prize

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 25.—Negley and Van Ness of Newark, N. J., were today declared winners of the two-man event of the American Bowling congress tournament. He needs 605 in his singles tonight to pass the high score, 1,347, held by William Miller of Detroit.

CHICAGO FANS WIRE FOR SEATS FOR WRESTLING BOUT

Nate Lewis, Chicago boxing promoter and formerly manager for several top-notch fighters, has wired Chicago to Manager Charlie Frank of the Krug theater asking that twelve ringside seats to the big championship match between Stanislaw Zbyzsko and Yousif Hussane Saturday night at the Krug be reserved for himself and party of Chicagoans. Several other delegations of sportsmen from Chicago, Kansas City, Lincoln and other cities are expected to be here for the big match. Zbyzsko, accompanied by his manager, Jack Herrman, arrived in Omaha at noon from Chicago. He will train at the Owl club until the night of the big match. Zbyzsko realizes he is to meet a taster in Hussane, but is confident of victory. For preliminaries to the big match Charlie Lech will meet Joe Hill. Hill has an edge on the weight, but the Omaha boy figures on his speed to overcome the handicap. Charlie Peters, a heavyweight from Papillion, Vern Breedlove, a featherweight from Council Bluffs and perhaps Owen Dally, the lightweight champion of Nebraska will constitute the other preliminaries.

CREIGHTON TEAMS PLAY FIRST BALL OF SEASON

Creighton students took part in their first baseball game of the season Wednesday afternoon on Creighton campus, when the pharmacy department walloped the freshmen medics to the tune of 10 to 5. Pitts, varsity tackle on the football team, pitched for the freshmen and was in mid-season form, but his teammates pulled up a large collection of errors and could not hit the sphere. Madden and Morey-Miller composed the battery for the pharmacists.

EX-PUG GETS PART OF FORTUNE

Former Prize Fighter Earns Sums of Jim Pon to School, Earning Gratitude of Father.

CHICAGO, March 25.—Joe Choyanski, former prize fighter, and now director of a Pittsburgh sporting club has been left a legacy of $10,000 in the will of Jim Pon, a Chinese, whom the boxer befriended years ago. Jim Pon died a few days ago and his son, Ned Ying and Bert Ying, unable to open the safe in their father's Twenty-second street restaurant, "The Garden of the Seven Lilies," wired to their old friend, Choyanski. The boxer reached Chicago today, and with him brought a safe except. In a few minutes the big steel doors swung open and on top of a pile of papers was found Pon's will. It named Choyanski as executor and guardian of Jim Pon's sons and awarded him a substantial part of a good sized fortune. Choyanski's first act of kindness toward Pon was in sending his boys to school. Later when Jim Pon became wealthy, he sent Ned Ying to China, where the boy married. When Ned returned to America, leaving his wife and their little child in China, he was halted by the immigration officials at Seattle, but Choyanski again came to his aid. He explained Ned Ying's American birth, and had him re-admitted. Choyanski has arranged to have Jim Pon's little grandson join his father here and also arranged, in accordance with Jim Pon's will, to have both Ned Ying's wife and mother taken care of in China.

BURDEN HEAVY FOR SENATOR

G. M. Hitchcock Tells of Labors of Legislator in Washington.

LAWYERS ARE THE LISTENERS

Details Some of the Many Duties of a Man Who Has to Look After the Wants and Needs of Constituents.

Great burdens borne by legislators at Washington formed the substance of Senator Hitchcock's address to the Omaha Bar association at the University club last night, when he reviewed all the important bills before congress and uttered a protest against the tendency to concentrate in the central government powers which should properly be vested in the states. At the conclusion of the address President Blackburn of the association said: "It strikes me that the senator has been emphasizing two things: First, he has encouraged candidates for the house, and second, he has discouraged possible candidates for the senate." Suffrage, the Mexican question, national prohibition, trust legislation, the Monroe doctrine, canal tolls, rural credits, national grain inspection, pensions, good roads, the Philippine policy and the president's unparalleled power were some of the subjects touched lightly in passing by the senator, after he had complimented the Omaha bar as a "choice class" of "high-ranking" lawyers, of which he was one.

A little while afterward one of the trustees checked him in the second attempt on his life. He gave illness as a reason for his act.

VISITING MERCHANTS BUSY

Dinner at Rome, Followed by Theater Party at the Orpheum.

SPEECHES CUT FROM PROGRAM

Men and Women Here on the Spring Buying Trip Are Given Hearty Welcome and Made to Feel at Home.

The program for the visiting retail merchants from Nebraska and the surrounding territory who are in Omaha this week to do their spring buying was devoid of all business association last night. The entire evening was devoted to the entertainment of the visitors. A sumptuous dinner at the Rome hotel inaugurated the program at 6:30, followed by a theater party at the Orpheum. About 400 merchants and their wives attended.

There was no speechmaking or trade talks at the dinner and none of the merchants offered any objections to this negligence. Instead they rather approved of it and enjoyed every minute of the evening of recreation. Jovial laughter was constantly heard on all sides at all times and there can be little doubt but what the merchants in the city this week will sing loud praises of Omaha when they return to their homes. After the dinner at the Rome the merchants lined up in the lobby and prepared to march to the theater in a body. Behind a three-piece band, consisting of a snare drum, a bass drum and a silver cornet manipulated by Al Fairbrother, the crowd marched north on Sixteenth street to Farnam, down Farnam to Fifteenth street and up Fifteenth to the theater. That is some of them followed the three-piece band over that route. A full hundred of the more sophisticated in directions in this city, knowing full well that the theater was on Harney street, calmly proceeded to make the turn at Sixteenth and Harnay streets, thus arriving ahead of their colleagues. Men and women marched in the parade.
