If Hair Is Turning Gray, Use Sage Tea

Don't look old! Try Grandmother's recipe to darken and beautify faded, lifeless hair. That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wysht's" Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Everybody uses "Wysht's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.—Advertisement.

SCHOOL AND COLLEGE WORK

Spring Activities and Spring Vacations of Nearby Institutions. ENTERTAINMENTS ARE GIVEN Interest of Students Kept Up as the Examination Season Approaches—Comings and Goings. The engineering students of the State University of Iowa, held their annual "Mecca" celebration Wednesday, March 18. It was the fifth time such a celebration has been held, and the events have each year attracted wide attention over the state. Harold Swanson of Omaha had a prominent part in the celebration. His particular interests were in the parade. He is just finishing his first year in engineering at the university this spring. He is a son of F. W. Swanson, 2383 Evans street, Omaha. The engineers' "Mecca day" at the university is an outgrowth of the former celebration of St. Patrick's day on March 17 of each year. The celebration is usually more or less farcical in fashion, generally beginning with a long parade, circus day fashion, given during the noon hour, and a sort of musical farce given at the university auditorium in the evening. Preceding to the celebration day a banquet is held, at which the many alumni and former students of the engineering college gather for a reunion. An exhibit of the college's activities in engineering lines is also given for the hundreds of visitors who appear for the celebration. The engineering college has grown greatly the last year, there being over 100 students in the freshman class alone. This made the annual celebration this year one of unusual size and significance. There were over thirty "stunts" and floats in the parade and the crowd which assembled to view the pageant was the largest in the history of the celebration. The play given in the auditorium was given again during the spring vacation at other towns besides Iowa City, Grinnell, Clinton and Des Moines being among the number.

They conducted services at the Presbyterian church in Minden last Sunday and have appointments at other places for at least a month in advance.
