Because the Regulars welloped the Yanigans, 2 to 2, and the latter lacked neclaid all blame on Charley Rogers. It was asserted that Rogers had lost all his pep players suffered from the same defect.

Bert Brenner worked in the box for a very heat game except for a few intances when he attempted to throw the sall-over the grandeless. the first time this year. Brenner has been was the official ump.

King Brady occupied first base for the Yans and contributed three cerrors, all very opportune and propitious.

Jack Fugate, erstwhile Rourke, played ight field for Cap Schipke's team, Bell. sby, Congaiton and Chase won the hitting honors, while Brady nailed the fielding. Bell hit the ball three times out of four up, while Crosby, Chase and conny got two hits each. The three errors gave King Brady the right to grab the fielding medal. They were great errors and no one but a southpaw pitcher with rament could possibly make such htful muffs. The lineup:

Killifer Expelled by Players' Fraternity

NEW YORK, April 12-William M. Killifer, ir., catcher of the Philadelphia National league club, was expelled from the membershif of the Base Ball Players' fraternity today "for contract jumping." This action the fraternity took in confor mity with a resolution it adopted last October prohibiting breaches of contract. In announcing Killifer's expulsion, David L. Fultz, president of the organination, alluded to "cutthroat tactics" of base hall club owners in inducing players to violate agreements. The magnates, more than Killifer, were blamed for his jumping to the Federals. Kliftfer is with Philadelphia and the United States court has held that he is the property of that
