By MELLIFICIA. Monday, April 13, 1914.

THE date book of many prominent Omaha society women reads: "Sunday, reception to meet Flonzaley quartet; Monday afternoon, Flonzaley concert; Monday evening, Bessie Abbott in 'Robin Hood'; Tuesday evening, Mary Garden in 'Thais.'" And, they say, Omaha is not a musical city.

The reception given by the Ciel club Sunday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the Hotel Royal in honor of the Flonzaley quartet was decidedly attractive and interesting. The tea room was bright with spring flowers, white lilacs and pink roses being used in profusion. The Omaha guests enjoyed chatting with the great musicians and came away inspired to do greater things themselves.

Monday evening the largest theater party to hear Miss Abbott in "Robin Hood" will be given by Miss Katherine Thummell and Miss Mary Burkley for Miss Bertha Dickey and Mr. Harold Bromfield-Brown and the members of their wedding party, including Miss Helen Scoble, Miss Daphne Peters, Miss Thummell, Miss Burkley, Mr. George Thummell, Mr. Ben Gallagher, Mr. John Caldwell and Mr. Sanford Gifford. After the theater they will have supper at the Omaha club.

Judge and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith will have box parties this evening to hear "Robin Hood."

Nearly a score of box parties will be given Tuesday evening to hear Mary Garden in "Thais," many being preceded by dinner parties and others followed by supper parties.

Tuesday an interesting program has been arranged for the last meeting of the Tuesday Morning Musical club at the home of Mrs. F. A. Nash. Rarely, if ever, have so many musical affairs been crowded into two days.

Auction Bridge. Mrs. Arthur E. Rogers entertained at auction-bridge Saturday afternoon for Mrs. William Unsticker, who will leave soon for Florida to make her home. The decorations were pink tree roses. Those present were:

Birthday Surprise. On the occasion of his birthday Saturday evening, Mr. T. J. LaVelle was given a very pleasant surprise at his home, 133 Laird street. Unannounced and unexpectedly twenty friends dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. LaVelle, bringing a supply of refreshments and numerous appropriate birthday presents. The evening was spent at cards, interspersed with music, both vocal and instrumental.

PAINFUL ERUPTION ON ARM AND HANDS
Could Not Stand Any Clothing on Arm, Itching Intense, Scratching Made Spots Larger. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Box 85, Fulton, Ill.—"My trouble began with just a little red spot on my arm and they gradually increased until they had formed a ring about three inches in diameter. Then they spread to different parts of my arm and hands. I could not stand any clothing whatever on the arm. It seemed to irritate it so. The itching was so intense that I scratched and made the spots large and more sore. I could not stand to put my hands in water very much. It gradually grew worse. It was very painful and the itching was terrible. It also disfigured the arm for the time being.

"Then I began using different remedies without getting any relief. Seeing the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper I thought I would try them. After using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for two weeks I noticed a slight improvement. I used one box of Cuticura Ointment and three cakes of Cuticura Soap and in three months I was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. M. Hanson, Sept. 19, 1913.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczema and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but they are also most effective in the treatment of pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scales, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapely nails. Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal samples of each mailed free, with 52-page Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

ENGAGEMENT OF COLLEGE GIRL IS ANNOUNCED.

MISS HARRIET BLAKE.

The engagement is announced of Miss Harriet Blake, a senior at Wellesley College, to Mr. George Edward Akerson of Minneapolis.

Mr. Akerson is a graduate of Harvard, 1910, and is now one of the assistant editors of the Minneapolis Tribune.

Miss Blake will be in Omaha next winter with her mother, who is spending this winter in California. Miss Blake graduated from the Omaha High School and has many friends here.

The wedding will take place next spring.

Ak-Sar-Ben Pins and Season Tickets Are Being Distributed

The first 500 Ak-Sar-Ben pins for 1914, together with the season tickets, are now being distributed to the members already paid up. The pin this year is a design of the face of a Nebraska corned beef laughing in the exuberance of his joy in boosting for Nebraska.

Ak-Sar-Ben is to have a booth at the Low Cost of Living show. A fair damsel is to have charge of the booth. Her duties will be to make herself pleasant to all the visitors and to grab some names of former Omaha people who visit the show. She will record these to be added to the already large list of former residents who are to be circulated to get them in for the Home-Coming week during Ak-Sar-Ben festivities.

The young woman will also take application for membership, if any candidates should be found running loose who have not already fallen victims to the snares of the hustling teams of the membership committee.

Gus Renz, Samson's artisan at the Don, is about ready to start his initiation team in their course of training. He has begun to select them on his own note pad, although he has not announced any names.

West and Pattenwath, the two critics, who have been calling loudly for more severe punishment for the candidates in the initiation, are at last satisfied. Gus Renz has made his machinery severe enough. They have approved the whole system of Medieval engines of torture, and Gus is happy.

OWNER OF FIRE DAMAGED RESTAURANT BEING HELD

Incendiarism is believed to be the cause of a fire which worked about $400 damages in the "Alto" restaurant at 219 Leavenworth street early this morning.

Bert Kibberts, who operates a barber shop next door, was in the neighborhood and smelled smoke, and at the same time saw L. N. Anderson, the owner of the restaurant running down the street. He stopped him and held him while another man called the police and the fire department. Kibberts says Anderson told him that he "touched off" the restaurant, but this Anderson denied at the police station. Firemen say there was evidence that the fire had been purposely started, even though its origin was in the kitchen. The restaurant is not an all-night place.

WRECKING OF THE BANK BUILDING IS COMPLETED

The old United States National bank building is now only a memory. On the spot at Sixteenth and Farnam streets where a splendid stone building stood up to a few brief weeks ago today stands not so much as a pillar nor a single column of bricks intact. A force of fifty workmen is cleaning up the rubbish, including bricks, crushed plaster and a few steel supports and beams. Only a few weeks ago the wrecking company set to work taking the building down to make ready for the erection of the new and larger four-story building the bank is preparing to build there.

Oriental Hugs. Orchard & Winheim are offering this week several special lots of Belouchiana, Moensia, Genlas, Kazacks, Shirvanas for $12, $15.50, $20, $25 and $32.

KEEPS COW IN THE KITCHEN

Junk Dealers Hereafter to Have a Double Check.

MAKING THE CROSSINGS SAFE

Ordinance Creating Planning Commission is Again Laid Over by the City Dads—Consider Douglas Opening.

Councilman Thomas McGovern, speaking of the junk yard of S. Riecke, 165 North Eighteenth street, said he had investigated the place and found that Riecke kept the cow in the kitchen. Riecke has asked for a permit.

Before permits are issued to junk dealers the dealers must secure the approval of the building inspection department of the city and the police commissioner. City commissioners, discussing the situation at a meeting of the committee of the junk business demanded a double check.

Several junk dealers, it is understood, will be refused permits this year because their places either have become a nuisance or are in residential neighborhoods. Street Commissioner J. J. Ryder is compelling the railroads to make safe several dangerous crossings in the city which have been complained of by citizens.

Planning Ordinance Laid Over.

An ordinance creating a city planning commission was again laid over by the city commission at the request of the heads of civic organizations interested in the ordinance. It will come up for a hearing again at the meeting of the council in committee of the whole in two weeks.

The opening of Douglas street from Twenty-fourth street to Twenty-fifth avenue was discussed by the city commission in committee of the whole, and the plan of assessment to pay for damages incident to the opening was referred to the city engineer, who will fix benefits as well as damages which may accrue.

Several citizens were present to praise the opening or protest, but none of them were heard, the open discussion being postponed until the city engineer can report.

Potter is Chosen

New Secretary at the Country Club

By action of the directors, the Country club has a new secretary in the person of "Club" Potter. The directors also voted to continue the locker system.

"It's going to be a locker system, however, with a horse-high and air-tight fence around it—no alits even to peek through," is the edict. "Any one who wants to drink will have to have a locker of his own, and supply it with his own bottled goods. We are not going to take any chances with the sleuths."

TRIES TO MAKE GET-AWAY FROM THE POLICE COURT

"Have you got the price to get across?" asked Britt.

"No, but I know where I can get a nickel," replied Edward.

"Here's a nickel, now you skeddadle," advised the magistrate. He did.
