GERTIE VET LAW Closman and Alexander Carry Off the Only Honors Found in the TWO EGGS SHE'S ONLY A YOUNG PULLET YET. HER ? SHE .DID. Pitchers' Box in Tuesday's Swattest. HERE THEY NAME IS GERTIE ARE The Regulars and the Yanigans held a very nice little swatfeat before two score of bugs who attended the combat for various reason-some because they wanted to see the rookies play, some because there was no admission and some secause Art Thomason promised to make a hit every time he faced the pitcher. The Regulars swamped Cap Schipke's Yans, 12 to 6. The Yans presented an assorted line up Texas Crosby, who says he is a catcher hopped around shortstop and rivaled efforts of King Brady on first Monday. Crosby "snagged two hits, a feat Brady could not parallel, but he allowed just as many runs as Brady did. But Crosby was more judicious; instead of making errors he let the ball whiss by unmolested.

THE BEE: OMAHA, WEDNESDAY, AFRIL 15, 1914.

Dec Payne, shortstop hertofore, occu pled first and did very nicely. Shannon, who was not in uniform Monday did the catching and performed pretty well. His regular position is in the outfield. Fugate played in right. Busy with Their Bats.

10

Hinky Hicks opened the conflict for the Tens and was unmercifully pounded by the Regulars who remembered his performance Monday as umpire. Twelve hits four innings was what they did to Hinky. Alexander took Hicks' job in the fifth and the Regulars could do nothing with his curves and slow ball.

Art Clósman pitched nice ball for th Regulars, but King Brady was accorded a warm reception. King was a Yan Monday and it preved very much the rest of the Yans because he deserted to the hated Rega.

The Regs and Tana will battle again this afternoon and Cap Schipke threatens to lick the Yan who fails to play a perfect fielding game and make four hits. Thus the Yans are confident of victory. Score: REGULARS.
