Council Bluffs Election Case to Have Thorough Probe.

EVIDENCE OF BIG SLUSH FUND Auslatant Afforney General Will Make Report to Cosson on What He Has Discovered During Inquiry.

Assistant Attorney General Rankin of the state of lows, who has been making aquiry into the recent municipal election a Council Bluffs will report to Attorney General Cosson that he has secured enough of evidence to warrant calling a special grand jury to investigate the affairs of the democratic city committee of Council Bluffs.

Chairman Duff still meists that he is not called upon to make a detailed report of the receipts and expenditures of his committee. He relies on a literal construction of the law of Iowa, which does not particularly specify "city committees." The republican chairman made a report of the financial doings of his campaign. Chairman Duff says it will take him several days to arrange the items in his report, if it becomes necessary to file one, and that it will take several hours to read it after it has been compiled. He surmises that his expenses were "about the same as the republicans."

Slush Fund Heavy.

Rumor credits the democratic party with having a slush fund of unusually plethoric dimensions during the late Council Bluffs campaign. The $2 payments made at the Council Bluffs office SECOND-HAND REMINGTON TYPEwriter to swap for good picycle and cash. Address 8 C 518, Bee. of the Omaha World-Herald, on presentation by "workers" of properly punched tickets were only a portion of the "expenses' borne by the committee. Rumors are current that the Omaha brewerles were liberal contributors to this fund and RYDER that all the saloons on the lows side of the boundary line were shaken down for liberal donations. Chairman Duff is a reticent concerning the source of his funds, as he is in regard to their disposition

Assistant Attorney General Rankin who was sent to Council Bluffs at the request of the county attorney of Pottawattamie county, has spent three or four days quietly looking up evidence, of the matter will be up to Attorney General Cosson, but the impression is
