Seeking Divorce

Love letters in which Joseph Pick, manager of the York Engine and Foundry company and the American Supply company of this city, refers to another woman as his "beautiful, sweet, clever girl," and speaks of a kiss from her as being the greatest pleasure he ever experienced, figured in the divorce suit brought by Mrs. Emma L. Pick in Judge Sears' district court.

Mrs. Pick, who alleges that her husband is wealthy, is asking a divorce on grounds of misconduct, cruelty and drunkenness. She accused him in her petition of too intimate acquaintance with her 16-year-old niece, who came from Ireland to live with them at York, and with a milliner who formerly lived in the same town.

Mrs. Pick spent the entire morning on the witness stand detailing instances of ber husband's alleged cruelty and improper conduct and giving evidence in support of her claim that he is wealthy;

WOMEN WOULD ENCOURAGE AMERICAN DRESS DESIGNERS

NORTHWESTERN FINDS CROP CONDITIONS GOOD

The Northwestern Railroad company is out with its first crop report of the season, covering Nebraska territory. It takes into consideration conditions up to and including last week. Of twenty-five stations reporting, only Gregory shows anything except the best, so far as prospects

The rallroad agent at Gregory, in sumnarising, states that the condition of the winter wheat is poor, owing to a lack of moisture during the last winter. There dry weather is holding back spring rork, but elsewhere along the company lines it is progressing rapidly, with plenty of moisture in the soil.
