ANCIENT LAW REVIVED BY TWO ANTI-SALOONISTS

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN. Neb., April 16.-(Special relegram.)-Alleging that the act of the legislature approved by the governor of the state, March 16, 1855, had never been repealed and that there could be no legal issue of licenses for the sale of liquor in the state, H. A. and A. M. Bitten-bender, attorneys, today filed a petition with the excise board of Lincoln, setting out that it would be a violation of law for the board to grant licenses petitioned for by saloonkeepers in Lincoln. The first constitution of the state declared that, "all laws now in force shall remain in force until altered, amended or repeated by the legislature." And "whenever the word territory shall oc-

our it shall mean state." According to the communication sent the board the present constitution deSwappers' Column

A mistake that has been practiced for many years in South Qmaha was called to the attention of the mayor and councll in the matter of paying newer district onds and coupons out of the interest and sinking fund. The auditor said there was no reason to take money from the interest and sinking fund to pay sewer inprovements where the city has no interest. He advised that the money be transferred back from the special sewer improvement fund to the interest and sinking fund. This recommendation is in line with the contention of City Treasurer Martin, who wants to build up the interest and sinking fund in order to retire terest and sinking fund in order to retire bligations of the city.
