AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Attitude of Board on Liquor Licenses is Not Known.

MAY AGREE UPON $1,500

Number of Applications Being Made, but Commissioners Have Not Outlined Their Policy for the Public as Yet.

As the time for granting liquor licenses approaches in South Omaha there is much interest as to the stand of the fire and police commissioners in regard to the reduction of saloons. Some weeks ago the commission stated that the number of saloons was to be reduced and the licenses raised. It is known that there are many men working in saloons in South Omaha as salaried owners who are said to be nothing more nor less than wage earners.

Residents all over the city are beginning to protest the great number of saloons in the city. Already twenty-three have applied for licenses and many more will join the applicants before the time is up. The proposition advanced by the board some weeks ago was to raise the liquor licenses to $2,000 instead of $1,000 as at present. Later it was privately rumored that the board might compromise on $1,500.

Joseph Deml, 57 years of age, a well known employe of the city for many years, died suddenly last evening at 9 o'clock at his residence, 103 North Twenty-second street, of heart failure. Deml had not been in good health for a long time. He was formerly connected with the street department of the city, but for some months had done nothing. He is survived by a widow and several children.

Home Baking to Help Cause. The South Omaha Equal Franchise league will demonstrate Saturday that it possesses many of the housewives' arts by a home-baking sale in a store at Twenty-fourth and E streets. Cakes, pies, bread, candy and preserves, all of the home-grown variety, will be for sale. The proceeds to be used for the cause. Those interested in the sale are: Messrs. George F. Cooper, Dr. Adda Ralston, Walter Wides, M. F. Reynolds and Caroline Brownson, who denies that she is related to Miss Minnie Brownson, the anti-suffragist.

August Miller Files. August Miller, redoubtable German former councilman, who once told the council of South Omaha exactly what he thought of it, is a candidate for county commissioner. He is registered as a republican despite the efforts of a few democrats to exploit him as a bull mooser. He has many friends in South Omaha and his candidacy will have to be reckoned with.

The first debating team of the high school will go to Bellevue this evening to debate with the Bellevue academy debating team for the championship of the eastern debating district. been challenged for a debate on the suffrage question by Frank Broadwell and Clyde Parsley of the Gavel club. The debate will be held Tuesday, April 23, at the South Omaha High school.

Suffragists Plan For the Campaign

Five women and two reporters, all suffragists, responded to the call for a meeting of the central suffrage committee yesterday afternoon in the council chamber of the city hall. "Although the audience consists principally of chairs," said Mrs. Draper Smith, state suffrage president, "we make up for it in enthusiasm." Plans were discussed for plating the city for the summer campaign. Precinct chairmen and block captains will be appointed, their work to consist in distributing suffrage literature and enrolling both men and women by means of pledge cards in a non-union-paying organization. It is also planned to hold precinct parlor meetings which will be addressed by Mrs. M. B. Munson of Kansas, suffrage organizer, on her return to the city next month.

If Coffee Don't Agree

Much of today's nervousness, indigestion, languor, kidney and liver trouble, come from indiscretions in eating and drinking, so commonplace that they are seldom considered till Nature pulls one up with a sharp jerk. More often than is suspected, coffee is the cause of these troubles. A simple, easy way to discover the real cause and relieve one's self of a lot of discomfort is to quit coffee for ten days and try

This beverage contains none of the coffee drugs (caffeine, tannin, etc.) which are responsible for many human ailments, big and little. Postum is a food-drink made from prime wheat and a bit of molasses. It is pure and contains only the wholesome goodness of the grain. Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be boiled. 15c and 25c packages. Instant Postum—a soluble form. A teaspoonful stirred in a cup of hot water dissolves quickly and makes a most delightful beverage, with cream and sugar added to taste. 30c and 50c tins. The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same. Thousands who have changed from coffee to Postum know

Music

Recital at Y. W. C. A. Barbara Wait, contralto, assisted by Mr. Henry Cox, violinist, gave a most enjoyable recital last evening at the Young Women's Christian association auditorium. This was the last number on the entertainment course of the Young Women's Christian association, and, considering the excellence of the talent and the moderate price of admission, a much larger audience should have been present. As it was impossible for Miss Avery or Mrs. Cox to be present, Miss Eloise West played the accompaniments upon a day's notice, and deserves a great deal of praise for the creditable manner in which she filled the breach, as they were highly satisfying at all times. Miss Wait opened with "O Don Patricio," from Don Carlos, by Verdi. Her voice is deep and unusually powerful, while the quality is warm and most agreeable. She has a wide range, which is evenly developed, and her singing is also pleasing for the intelligent manner of her use as well as for the beauty of tone. Miss Wait should improve her enunciation. Many times in the unfamiliar songs it was hard to recognize the English tongue. The program was well made up, but owing to its length, both Mr. Cox and Miss Wait omitted several numbers. Miss Wait was at her best in the "Irish Love the Boat," by Grieg, and in the last two songs, "Margaret Stubbven Lang," by numbers, "One Spring Morning," by Stevin, and "June," by Downing. The last number was especially well suited to her voice, and is a gorgeous warm summer song, with all the atmosphere of a sunny June day. Responding to insistent applause this number was repeated. Miss Wait also sang another encore and throughout the program won enthusiastic applause. The work of Mr. Henry Cox has often received favorable comment in this paper. He played two groups of solos, the first including two most attractive Kreisler numbers and the second made up of "To a Wild Rose," by MacDowell; "Dance of the Sylphs," by Goldblatt; "The Swan," by Saint Saens, and "Masourka," by Zarycki. These were all played by Mr. Cox with his accustomed good taste. The "Masourka" was a most brilliant and attractive number, and brought forth an encore. The program was not a heavy classic one, both the songs and the violin numbers being good, well-written music of a lighter order, of the kind of classical music that everyone likes, and the people who did not attend missed a most pleasurable evening. Canon Doherty, Episcopal Priest, Dies at Son's Home

Rev. Canon Robert Doherty died at the home of his son, Selwyn, 204 Poppleton avenue, last night, after an illness of several weeks. He was 79 years of age and a native of County Cavan, Ireland. Canon Doherty came to Nebraska in 1878, immediately after being ordained a priest of the Episcopal church at Toronto, Ontario. He was priest in charge of the parish at Grand Island for one year and then came to Omaha to become rector for Brownell hall, which post he filled for twenty-two years. In 1890 he went to Yankton, S. D., where he was rector of a large parish for ten years, and then he went to Flandreau, serving for nearly five years. Age and failing health called on him to resign and he returned to Omaha a few months ago. His wife, a daughter, Mrs. Llewellyn Jones of Tacoma, Wash.; Windsor Doherty of Winnetka, S. D., and Messrs. Selwyn, Robert and Harold of Omaha, his sons, survive him. The funeral will be held at Trinity cathedral Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Dean James A. Tanocok and Rev. T. J. Mackay officiating. Interment will be private at Forest Lawn cemetery.

Sage and Sulphur Darkens Gray Hair

Brush this through faded, lifeless locks and they become dark, glossy, youthful. Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe. Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent Hair Remedy, which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies, with Weych's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.
