BABY CONTEST OPENS TODAY

Many Special Features at Low Cost of Living Show.

RALSTON CROWD THIS EVENING

Baby Manufacturing Village Will Send Mayor Skinner and Crowd of Boosters with Quartet and Ladies' Chorus.

Every day this week there will be fifty or more babies judged in the Baby Health contest at the Low Cost of Living show, at the Auditorium, and the precautions which are being taken on every hand to care for the little tots, are almost as interesting as the judging itself, will be.

Every mother who has entered her baby in the show was asked to bring a pillow slip and a blanket. Hundreds of unusual inquiries were received when these notices were sent out.

Why do you want the blanket? Are you going to give my baby a bath in cold water? What good is a pillow slip without a pillow? Do you want the pillow too?

These and a thousand other questions came to the managers of the contest, who informed the anxious mothers that the pillow slips were to hold the baby's clothes, and the blanket to keep the youngster warm during the examination.

To Examine Children.

Physicians will first examine children to ascertain whether they are in condition to enter the contest. Any child which seems to be ill, or to have any symptoms of disease, will be refused entrance to the contest. This is for the protection of the child and the other children as well. The contest, with its quota of expert physicians and dentists, promises to be of greater education to all mothers, than any other feature of the show.

This evening in Ralston night at the show, and besides the bunch of Ralston boosters there will be Mayor Skinner, the Ralston quartet and the Ralston Women's chorus of twenty-five voices, which will contribute to the special entertainment of the evening.

Added to this there will be pictures of Ralston before the tornado, immediately following the tornado, and the same place a year later, showing how the work of rebuilding has progressed.

The old fiddlers' contest is to be another special feature of the show this evening, and ten selected entries will compete for the prize under the direction of A. E. Eaton of the young Men's Christian association.

The Teddy brothers with their burlesque wrestling act made such a hit at the cabaret dinner Saturday evening that they have been engaged to give two exhibitions each day at the Low Cost of Living show each evening.

Last night was Bohemian night at the show and a number of Bohemian men and women were in attendance and numerous special features were arranged for their entertainment.

Tuesday night will be society night at the show and the Shriners will have precedence there on Friday night following their dinner.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved. Why suffer from rheumatism when relief may be had at so small a cost? Mrs. Elmer Hatch, Peru, Ind., writes: "I have been subject to attacks of rheumatism for years. Chamberlain's Liniment always relieves me immediately, and I take pleasure in recommending it to others." 25 and 50-cent bottles. All dealers. -Advertisement.

Owls Announce They Will Have Carnival

That a carnival under the auspices of the Omaha branch of the Order of Owls, is to be held at the circus grounds at Twelfth and Paul streets the week beginning May 11, and that the shows of the Greater Parker Carnival company have been secured as an attraction, has been announced by officers of the order.

AND 'BUCK' IS MUCH TICKLED

Samson Declares His President is Pleased with Outlook.

MACHINERY IS ALL READY

Artisan Reus Has Ak-Sar-Ben Equipment in Place and All Oiled Up for Rehearsal of the Attendants.

"And Buck was tickled to death."

"Samson" was referring to no less a personage than Everett Buckingham, president of the board of directors of Ak-Sar-Ben, when he uttered these words.

Also he was speaking of President Buckingham's visit to the Ak-Sar-Ben Den last week in company with other members of the board of governors to see what Artisan Gus Reus had fixed up for the big show at the Den this summer and fall. The contraptions for the show and initiation are all ready and the trigger was pulled a few times just by way of showing the president of the board that the whole thing is actually alive and will work at the "beck" of the artisan.

"Of course, the initiation will kill off a dozen or fifteen every Monday night," frowned Samson, "but we should worry about a little thing like that."

The initiation team is to be called out for practice some time this week, according to present arrangements. Most of the team has been selected. It will take between sixty and seventy men in the initiation team.

Last year the tornado, which passed through the district in which the Den stands, did a great deal of damage and thus threw the artisan a few weeks behind in completing his work. This year, however, he says he will be ready to give the full show the very first night of the opening, which is to be Monday night, June 1.

President Everett Buckingham has been appointed by Mayor James C. Dahlman as official envoy of Omaha to represent Omaha at the Pageant and Masque at St. Louis, May 25 to 31. This is a big celebration and festival that is to be held at St. Louis at that time. The St. Louis business men have arranged this new festival and have sent letters to forty-nine of the largest cities in the United States asking that a special envoy be sent from these cities to represent them at St. Louis at that time. The board of governors of Ak-Sar-Ben is to meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Hotel Loyal.

Memberships are coming in nicely this year, especially since the hustling committee has set to work. Already the membership is 200 ahead of the figure for this time last year.

CHAMPIONSHIP MATCHES ON COURTS AT Y. M. C. A.

C. G. Linn won the hand ball championship of the Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon by defeating Dennis Ryan in a hotly contested match by taking three out of five games, 21-7, 21-12 and 21-10. The former champion put up a hard scrap, but lacked the sureness and accuracy of his opponent. C. G. Linn also won the hand ball championship of the Young Men's Christian association tournament by defeating Avery, 21-8, 21-13 and 21-9. For the 2 o'clock class championship, Linn defeated Blomberg, taking the sets, 21-8 and 21-5. In the 8 o'clock class, Adamson took the championship in the handy manner of 21-8 and 21-8. The consolations have not been completed as yet, but will be played Monday between Adamson and Blomberg. Avery will receive a bronze medal for taking second place in the tournament.

True Bills Against Dealers in Opium

The first indictments returned by the federal grand jury, which has been in session here for the last week and will continue its work this week, were returned late yesterday afternoon against two Chinamen and a negro charged with engaging, concealing, manufacturing and facilitating traffic in smoking opium. Young Sang is held on three counts of concealing, selling and engaging in the manufacture of opium; Young Toy, held on one count of facilitating the sale of opium, and W. O. Patton, negro, charged with concealing opium. The bonds in each instance were fixed at $1,000, which the defendants were unable to give and they were sent to jail to await trial before the United States district court.
