JOHN MEXICAN GOES TO

Officer Aughe.

"Mexicans are not in very good standing here, so I'll put you away for thirty days, and you needn't fire a salute either," remarked Judge Foster in sentencing John Mexican for the theft of a to take advantage of this opportunity.

School Opens Monday

April 27th and closes May 30, and will consist of 15 lessons. Two classes will be taught-Class

A will meet Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for five weeks, and Class B will meet Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, covering exactly the same instruction as given in Class A. Each class meets member this is only a limited engagement, and is a continuous course. You must be registered from 2 to 4:30 o'clock, afternoons. Please reand be at your table at the beginning of the course, otherwise it will be impossible for you to receive any instruction whatsoever in this class, as Madame Coates gives her undivided time to her pupils and is unable to answer questions or assist non-members in any way.

HE Mexican situation is causing apprehension to many Omaha people, for many sons and daughters of prominent families have been with the army on the border, and much interest is being shown in army movements.

Three Omaha brides who have been in Texas with their husbands will return home while the army mobilizes in the south.

Mrs. Thomas Hayes, who was formerly Miss Mary Ringwalt, has returned from Galveston and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Ringwalt.

Mrs. G. W. Whiting, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth Sweet, is expected shortly from Galveston.

Mrs. John Trinder, nee Nannie Page, who has been in Texas City, where they built a bungalow, will return shortly and visit her parents, Dr. Rouse on his paper, and then took Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Page.

The wedding of Miss Pauline Bourke and Captain Maish, which was scheduled to take place in Switzerland this summer, may also be postponed because of the Mexican situation.

The social season in the south is also coming to a close with the approach of warm weather.

According to the Army and Navy Register, the social season is closing in Manila, and many of the army officers' wives are leaving either for the states or for Japan.

Colonel and Mrs. Glassford, formerly of Fort Omaha, who have been in Manila, but now in Japan, are expected to return to the states shortly. Mrs. Haskell and children, also formerly of Fort Omaha, have returned from the islands and will visit in Albany, N. Y., until Lieutenant Haskell returns in the fall. Miss Stella Hamilton and Miss Mae Louise Hamilton, who have been in Manila, have been much entertained and are expected back shortly.

Tea for Visitor.

Miss Ruth and Miss Grace Slabaugh More Pledges for Art entertained at tea Saturday afternoon from 5 to 5 o'clock for their cousin, Miss Margaret Clayton, of Hannibal, Mo. The decorations were pink sweet peas and pink shaded candles. Tea was poured by Miss Nan Barrett, Miss Adelaide Vance and Mrs. F. H. Davis. About forty-five guests were present.

In honor of Miss Clayton, Judge and Mrs. W. W. Slabaugh entertained at a buffet supper Sunday, and today she was the guest of honor at a meeting of one of the bridge clubs at the home of Mrs. W. A. Wiley.

Shower for Bride-to-Be.

Dr. Jennie Callfas entertained at a miscellaneous shower this afternoon for Miss Lucy Stone, who will be a bride of next week. The decorations were in the easterner. The collection was in-American Beauty roses. Over 120 guests tended for the Metropolitan museum bewere present. Mrs. H. E. Sin Lazare Club.

The members of the Sin Lazare club will give an informal dancing party Monday evening at Turpin's academy.

Dancing Party.

Miss Elizabeth Carr gave a dancing and green was the color scheme of the to concentrate the society's efforts on its used. About thirty young people were county jails.

For June Bride.

An afternoon bridge was given Saturday by Mrs. George Rasmussen for Miss Holga Rasmussen, who is to be a June bridge. The decorations were pink roses. The favors were fancy baskets trimmed with white roses, and tied with pink tuils, filled with pink candies. The score cards were gold wedding rings with cupids. In the party were:
