OMAHA TAKES THE OPENER

Pa's Athletes Celebrate Opening Day by a Victory.

ST. JOSEPH TEAM IS SHUT OUT

Minouri Singgers Unable to Solve Cloaman's Delivery and Omaha Boys Find Sterser for Enough to Win.

Playing the kind of base ball that spells the word pennant about October 1. Pa Rourke's brave contenders for the Western league rag copped the long end of a 2 to 6 opening game at Rourke park Tuesday afternoon before a mob of admiring fans who crowded into the park to see all the newcomers in actions. The fans saw their fill, for it was the newcemera who made the shutout victory

Ebson Closman, left-handed twirler par excellence, dished up a banquet of shoots and curves with a slow ball for dessert and the St. Joseph lads could not produce the hits that bring runs. Once only was the little port-side heaver in danger and Earl Chase saved him by plucking a Texas leaguer that looked like a sure hit out of the air with three men on the sacks. Mr. Chase was given a hand and the crowd agreed that he made Jim Kane look like a hitching post, especially as he contributed two lovely hits. Crosby Some Batter.

Behind the bat worked Willie Lee Crosby, late of Texas. Willie Lee made only three hits out of three times at bat and played his position so well that he cut off one score and caught a man lingering on third base at a very inopportune time. Crosby's bullet-like throws caught the popular approval of the crowd. as did his hitting and when he was passed purposely in the eighth with two men on bases the fans assured Twirler Sterser that he manifested rare judgment in so doing.

Johnny Clancy working at second demonstrated that he is a finished fielder and brought in one run just because he can wait a pitcher out. Krug played a nice game, annexing a double and sending in the first run on a sacrifice squeeze play bunt. Fred Thomas rambled all around the halfway position and landed on the pill for one ripping single that helped to bring in the second score.

Mr. Schang, brother of the Athletics catcher, was the bad actor for the visitors. Mr. Schang made two swats out of two possible chances. George Watson also copped a couple of safe ones and made two brilliant catches in the sun
