LONDON, April 21 .- According to the Standard, the large commercial interests is uncertain whether he now intends to in Great Britain believe that the American action will tend to improve the prospects of British financial and commer cial interests in Mexico, because it provides hope of eventual peace and the reunption of trade.

The Standard learns that the action of he United States government has the full acquiescence of the British govern ment and that any international complications are extremely unlikely.

The Times in an editorial says this morning: "The crists has come in a form, which, as sincere friends of the American people, we could well have wished different. Their justification for forcible interference in Mexican affairs is far stronger than the particular pretext upon which the president decided to abandon his policy of watchful waiting. "It is not probable that Americans will care to rest their case for intervention on the failure of the various proposals submitted to the Mexican government by Will President Wilson during the last year." Admires Our Self-Control.

The Daily Mail says: "There can be no mistaking the British attitude. It is one of admiration for the tolerance and self control with which President Wilson has employed all the resources of diplomacy to avert the crisis; of unstinted sympathy with the American people in th difficult and laborious undertaking which lies ahead of them, and of absolute confidence in the success of the American arms by land and sea. "Intervention has been thrust upon the Americans, and they may be sure of the good will of the whole English speaking world in facing an unsought for task."

The Dally News says: "It is only fair to President Wilson to recognize that he the knowledge that President Huerta has him no alternative. But the fact that it Charles J. Badger, commander-in-chief has unwillingly been taken in his hands does not lessen the danger of the new
