PATRIOTISM is stirring the young children as well as the grown-ups, and "what the extra says" is the bed-time story demanded by quite a number of lads of 7 or 8 years of age: "How Bre'r Rabbit got ahead of Bre'r Fox" is no longer of interest.

Two of the boys of my acquaintance, Master William Hynes, Jr., and Master Ed Cotton, have decided that they would like to be drummer boys, and watch anxiously for the extras and want to know all about the latest news from Mexico.

The mother of one of the small boys discovered his toy savings bank had been broken and upon asking the little chap about it he said that there was an "Extra," and mother not being at home, that was the only place they could get money to buy an "Extra."

Candy, tops, roller skates and other things of great importance to the small boy had never tempted them like the "War Extra."

Cathro-Butter Wedding.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, when Miss Elsie A. Rutter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy E. Rutter, became the bride of George R. Cathro.

The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, evergreen and palms. Rev. T. J. Collier performed the ceremony. As the guests assembled a pipe organ voluntary was rendered by Miss Carol Marhoff, organist. The bridal party entered to the strains of the Lobengrin Bridal chorus. The bride wore a gown of ivory white chambray, made with draped skirt and square court train of heavy brocade, which fell from the top of the bodice. The bodice and tunic were of Chantilly lace, edged with ruffled crepe chiffon, effectively embroidered in pearls. Her tulle veil was held with tiny white roses and she carried a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Monica Laur, bridesmaid and only attendant was gowned in pink crepe de chine with overdress of dewdrop chiffon. The bodice was trimmed with pink rosebuds and finished in back with a large butterfly bow. She wore a picture hat of pink and white and carried pink roses.

Mr. David Cathro, brother of the groom, served as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Peter McDonald, Richard Robinson and Waldo Laur.

Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played while the wedding party was leaving the church. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Pink and white decorations were used.

The bride's go-away suit, was of blue gabardine, with which she wore a black

Milan hat, trimmed in pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cathro have gone on a short western trip and will be at home after June 1, at 3315 Ohio street.

Make this your "Meat"

A nourishing, satisfying strengthening dish that tempts the palate and gives stomach comfort after the digestive organs have wrestled with high-proteid foods—

Shredded Wheat Biscuit With Strawberries

Nothing so delicious, nothing so easily digested, nothing so easy to prepare. The only breakfast cereal that combines naturally with berries and other fruits.

Heat one or more Biscuits in the oven to restore crispness; then cover with berries or other fresh fruit; serve with milk or cream and sweeten to suit the taste. Better than soggy white flour "short-cake"; contains no yeast, no baking powder, no fats, no chemicals of any kind—just the meat of the golden wheat, steam-cooked, shredded and baked.
