By MELLIFICIA. Monday, May 4, 1914.

THE SUNDAY afternoon concert, so popular in New York, Chicago, St. Louis and other musical centers, may also become a feature in Omaha. These concerts, probably inaugurated by David Blapham in New York City, have become quite a part of the city life, and one may hear one or more of the Metropolitan opera singers in sacred concert almost any Sunday in season in New York. This gives one a more intimate understanding of the great singers to hear them in solos instead of repertoire and in costume.

The concert Sunday afternoon, given by Mr. Max Landow at the Brandeis, proved very popular, and the many friends of the pianist were present to enjoy the excellent program. Mr. Landow's many pupils and friends regret that this was his farewell appearance in Omaha for Mr. and Mrs. Landow, as their family will move July 1 to Baltimore.

The next Sunday afternoon concert to be given in Omaha will be the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, May 24, at the Brandeis. This concert is under the direction of Miss Hopper, who will next season bring a number of noted artists here for Sunday afternoon concerts.

All of the boxes were occupied at the Landow concert. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Crofoot had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Martin, Miss Lynn Curtis, Miss. Andre, Miss Virginia Crofoot, Miss Charlotte Michaelson and Mr. Lloyd Flynn of Douglas, Wyo. In the Creighton Glee club box were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burkley, Mrs. J. A. McNamee, Miss Hopper and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Borglum. Others having box parties were Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Fort, Mr. and Mrs. C. Will Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Metz.

Guests from Milan.
Signor Andrea Zeglianetti of Milan, Italy, and his wife, who is a sister to Mrs. S. L. Prawl, spent the week-end in Omaha as the guests of Mrs. Prawl, on their way to Los Angeles. Signora Zeglianetti spent twelve years in Italy, both studying music and afterward singing in grand opera before her marriage to Signor Zeglianetti. They spent some time in Iowa before coming to Omaha.

Novel Fishing Party.
Misses Wilma Melots and Maybelle Tinker entertained at a novel fishing party Friday evening at the home of Miss Tinker. The guests, provided with fishing poles, went fishing at "Waustuff Lake." The prize for the best selection was won by Mr. Theodore Patton. After picking chestnuts in "Parlor Grove" a delightful lunch was served, picnic fashion, from well-filled baskets on the shore of "Dining Room Island." Vocal numbers were given by Mr. Eric Erixon, Miss Wilma Melots and Miss Maybelle Tinker, accompanied by Miss Laura Rann, Mrs. E. H. Dickerson gave whistling solos and fancy dances were executed by Miss Ethel Morris and Mr. Joe Saunders. The steamer "Waddler" was used for the journey to and from the lake. Those present were:

Each member brought a gift wrapped, ready to drop into a miniature bag, and when Mrs. Swoboda is on the steamer she is to open one of these packages each day as a reminder of some member of the club. A program was arranged for the evening—games, guessing contests and songs. Mrs. Oldfield, in old-fashioned costume, sang a solo. A quartet sang a club song composed by Mrs. Hess. Fashion Hint

BY LA RACONTREUSE.

A true one-piece gown. The bodice with its long fitted sleeves bordered at their finish on the small round décolleté by a band of spangles and a small beaded fringe is redeemed from commonplaceness by a gorad girde, headed with huge emerald cabochons, making a rather high waist line, crossing in the neck. The same girde encircles the hips to catch the drape of the front. This second girde is finished by a long fringe of beads.

WOMAN ASKS RECOVERY OF KNIFE, FORK AND SPOON
A search warrant has been issued from police court against the premises of Mrs. Combs, 4018 North Sixteenth street. Mrs. Patricia Adams, Seventeenth and Brown streets, told City Prosecutor Fred Anheuser that she had moved into her present home before Mrs. Combs had entirely vacated, and that while the latter's goods were being moved to the other house, a knife, fork and spoon belonging to Mrs. Adams disappeared. She seeks to recover them by means of the search warrant.

TANGO EVERY NIGHT OF TRIP
California Shriners Have Good Time Aboard Excursion Train.
EQUIPMENT IS VERY LUXURIOUS
Special is Pulled by Painted Locomotive and Coaches Are Fitted Out with Everything to Meet Hearts' Desires.

California Shriners, who came in over the Union Pacific early Sunday morning and two hours later left over the Missouri Pacific, danced the tango every night between Los Angeles and Omaha. Some weeks ago, when it was announced that the Los Angeles Shriners would have a solid train equipped from their home town to Atlanta, Ga., where the conclave is to be held, it was published that the Californians would tango to their hearts' content, and now they are doing this very thing, notwithstanding the railroad officials asserted they would have none of it.

According to the Californians, each and every night after leaving Los Angeles they cleared the furniture from the diners and, after dinner had been finished, there was some tango. The California Shriners came at such an early hour Sunday morning that they were not given a real Omaha welcome, but, nevertheless, they were made to feel at home. Their train was met at the Union station by a large delegation from Tanager, and in automobiles the members of the party were given a spin about the city. In the party were at least two former Omahans. There was Mrs. Cora, Brugh, who left here in 1880, and Ed Shank, who was here for a long period prior to seventeen years ago. Both were surprised at the growth of the city and the many buildings erected. Tips were barred on the Shrine train from the coast, but just before reaching here a shake purse was made up and given to the porters and dining car men. There were 200 to distribute among them. Out of Omaha and to Kansas City the Missouri Pacific engine drawing the Shrine train was a picture in itself. In the Falls City shops there is a man who is a skillful artist. The engine was turned over to him and with colored crayon he covered the machine with pictures that were the admiration of the Californians. There were scenes in the desert and scenes along the way, everything typical of Shrinism.

OFFICERS OF THE AD CLUB ARE NOT TO BE RE-ELECTED

None of the officers of the Omaha Ad club is to be a candidate for re-election at the annual election of the club in June. Every one of the officers has served his three years on the executive committee, and according to a kind of understood rule, after a man has served that long and has held office he does not immediately strive for office again. Frank Buitta became president on the resignation of Robert H. Manley, who went to the Commercial club as its commissioner. Charles Docketry is secretary. O. T. Eastman is treasurer and Harry Mahaffey is vice president. Docketry is to be chairman of the nominating committee that is yet to be appointed. The nominations are to be made at a meeting in about three weeks. The election is to be held about the middle of June.

PASSENGER LOSES MONEY AND TROUSERS ON TRAIN

John H. Hardy got on Rock Island No. 13 at Iowa City Sunday night and went to bed in one of the sleepers. When he did so he had a pair of trousers and $10 in the pockets. When he reached Omaha in the morning he was pantsless and moneyless. During the time between midnight and 8 o'clock this morning someone stole his pants and his money. His ticket to Denver, which was in the custody of the sleeping car conductor, was saved. Hardy was able to continue his journey, but he did so wearing a pair of pants belonging to one of the porters. None of the trainmen saw any suspicious parties on the train during the night.

Nebraska Laws for Incorporations Are Regarded Too Strict

General feeling, as expressed by the members of the committee on interurban roads and bridges of the Commercial club is that the laws of Nebraska are so strict as to be not especially encouraging to capitalists who seek a place to invest money in a proposition such as the building of interurban lines. It was pointed out by various members of the committee that the laws are such that a new company may not sell stocks below par as an inducement to investors, while at the same time the law is such that if a corporation makes more than 6 per cent on its investment any patron may petition for a reduction. At the next meeting of the committee the matter of the proposed new free bridge between Omaha and Council Bluffs is to be discussed and matters regarding the proposed Nebraska Interurban road is to be taken up also.

PICTURE OF THEO. WILLIAMS TO BE IN HALL OF FAME

The picture of the late Theodore Williams of Benson, who for many years was city circulator of The Bee, is to have a niche in the hall of fame at Washington. Dr. B. Brackett, pomologist of the United States Department of Agriculture, has written, asking for a picture and a sketch of Mr. Williams. Mr. Williams was one of the old residents of Nebraska and for many years prior to his death lived on a fruit farm just west of Benson. Here he did a great work for the state, bringing its fruit up to its present high standard. He was recognized as one of the best authorities on fruit culture in all of its branches. Not only this, but he propagated numerous varieties of fruit, including the Theodore Williams pear, the Freestone Goose and the Omaha plums.

CAMPBELL GETS VERDICT FOR $2,500 FOR CAR ACCIDENT

A verdict of $2,500 was given Edward N. Campbell of Council Bluffs, who brought suit against the street railway company for $50,000 for injuries received in a street car collision at Twenty-fifth street and Avenue A. Council Bluffs, on December 18, 1913, by the jury in federal court before Judge T. C. Munger. The case went to the jury at 4 o'clock Friday. The plaintiff is a former employe of the Sprague Foundry and Manufacturing company of Council Bluffs and alleges that he was thrown from the rear platform of the car when another struck it. Campbell, who is 45 years of age, asserts his injuries are permanent. The defense asserted there was a dense fog and that due caution was observed by the car crew.

The Northwestern is remodeling and repairing its depots at Stanton, Leigh, Kirgore and Tilden, Neb., and will spend $200 to $400 on each of the buildings. There are four other depots on the Nebraska lines that will be fixed up this year. In remodeling the old depots, the Northwestern will make them more modern and up-to-date. New hard maple floors will be laid. The waiting rooms will be enlarged, and in depots where there are general waiting rooms hereafter there will be one for the men and one for the women. Additions to all of the buildings will be erected. These will be for the freight.

TWO BURGLARS MAKE THEIR ESCAPE THROUGH WINDOW

A burglar who is skilled in escaping through windows, visited two residences Sunday night and got away with valuables when surprised by the occupants. W. C. Tompkins, 502 Chicago street, told the police that he heard a noise in his basement and saw his unwelcome visitor climbing out of a window, when Tompkins investigated. Two rings were stolen. Mike Koleser, 213 South Thirty-second avenue, had a similar experience, the burglar jumping out of a bedroom window when the family came home and found him ransacking the house. A watch and some money and jewelry were taken.

JAMES COFFEY THROWN FROM WAGON IN A RUNAWAY

John F. Coffey, a plumber, 706 South Twenty-fourth street, was thrown from his wagon in a runaway at Twentieth and Leavenworth streets. He received injuries to his head and arm and had to be attended by a physician, who was unable to say how serious the accident might prove to be. Coffey was taken in the police ambulance to his home, 521 South Twenty-fifth avenue.

LANE DECLARES BOTTOM OF CLOSE TIMES IS REACHED

General Freight Agent Lane of the Union Pacific is back from a visit to the eastern agencies of the company, having been out two weeks. Speaking of conditions in the east, Mr. Lane said: "While things are not booming, business is moving along and everywhere there is a feeling that the bottom of the close times has been reached. My judgment is that the west is in fully as good condition as the east. The future is going to depend to a great extent upon the crop of this season."
